HOOVER'S DRY PROGRAM FACES SNAG IN SENATE

Must Pass Through Hostile Committee.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Speedy action on President Hoover's prohibition enforcement legislation was planned today by house leaders, but difficulties loomed up in the senate.

The first of the administration bills may reach the floor of the house by the end of next week. This is the bill transferring prohibition enforcement from the treasury department to the department of justice. It was introduced today by Representative William Williamson [Rep., S. D.], chairman of the committee on expenditures in the executive departments.

While house leaders and committee chairmen showed a disposition to rush through the administration measures there was an ominous lack of enthusiasm on the senate side.

Face Anti-Hoover Group.

In the senate all the bills except that relating to the District of Columbia will be handled by the judiciary committee, which is more strongly anti-administration than any other committee in the senate. While a majority of its members are dry and are likely to report legislation favorably dry organizations exert sufficient pressure, the first disposition of the group controlling the committee is usually to make trouble for the administration.

Senator George W. Norris [Rep., Neb.], radical leader, is chairman of the committee and other members include Senator William E. Borah [Rep., Idaho], whose criticism of present prohibition enforcement methods has been responsible for much of the recent agitation on the subject, and Senator John J. Blaine [Rep., Wis.], who is not only avowedly anti-administration, but also a wet.

Borah Ominously Quiet.

Senator Borah continued today his policy of silence on the administration program, but it is anticipated that he may seek to legislate the present prohibition enforcement personnel out of existence in view of his declaration that prohibition will never be enforced by the present men. Under the administration bill the present organization would be shifted bodily from the treasury department to the department of justice.

The constitutional difficulties which involve the Wickersham commission's recommendations for changes in judicial procedure are certain to cause lengthy debate among the constitutional lawyers in the senate.

House Aims to Please.

In contrast to the senate, all appeared to be harmonious in the house. Representative George S. Graham [Rep., Pa.], chairman of the house judiciary committee, although personally wet, prepared to cooperate heartily in the administration program.

After the prohibition bureau transfer bill is launched there will come two or more bills from the judiciary committee relating to changes in judicial procedure and also amending the Volstead act along the lines recommended by the Wickersham commission. Chairman Graham said this program will be considered at a committee meeting tomorrow. Early hearings are in prospect.

Whether the judiciary committee also will handle the administration bill creating a unified border patrol under the coast guard or whether it will go to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, which ordinarily has jurisdiction over coast guard maters, is undecided.

Similar Bill Already Up.

The judiciary committee already has a similar bill, introduced by Representative Grant M. Hudson [Rep., Mich.], but Representative James S. Parker [Rep., N. Y.], chairman of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, thinks the legislation belongs to his committee. The administration bill has not as yet been completed.

Indications today seemed to be that the house would act on all these bills ahead of the senate. The bill providing a special enforcement code for the District of Columbia probably will be taken up first in the senate. This bill is already before the senate committee on District of Columbia affairs, to which it was sent recently by Attorney General Mitchell.

Representative Graham said today that as chairman of the house judiciary committee he would introduce

MR. BOWMAN GOES HOME WITH HIS EARS STOPPED UP

To the Chicago avenue police yesterday morning hastened Mrs. Rose Bowman, 4526 Sheridan road, bearing dire tidings about her husband, Clayton, 32 years old, a salesman.

"O, the poor man, please save him," she implored. "He's been gone all night and just now some man telephoned that kidnapers had him in the Olympic hotel and were going to take him for a ride."

To the hotel sped a squad led by Sergt. Edward Walters. Standing in the middle of his room they found Bowman, clad only in his oxfords, spats and derby.

"I was out on a bender," he explained sheepishly. "I was about to pass out when some one offered to bring me here to sober up. He left me here with covering only for my feet and head. I wanted to break the news gently to the wife so I called her up and told her with a disguised voice that I've been kidnaped."

Sergt. Walters suggested he call her again and ask her to bring down a suit and overcoat. He complied, but reluctantly, and finally went home fully dressed with his wife at his side and his fingers in his ears.

COLD WAVE WITH SNOW TO STRIKE CHICAGO TODAY

A cold wave which will extend over most of the central states will strike Chicago this morning, the government weather forecaster, C. A. Donnel, predicted last night. Occasional snow flurries are due today and there may be some snow tomorrow.

Chicago had a foretaste of the cold snap last night. From 40 degrees at 9:30 a. m., the mercury dropped to 26 degrees at 6 p. m. Between 6 and 7 p. m. it fell three more degrees. By 3 o'clock this morning it had dropped to an unofficial 15 degrees above.

Mr. Donnel forecasts a temperature between 10 and 15 degrees for this morning.

'MOTHER JONES,' 100 ON MAY 1, TO VISIT CHICAGO

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Mary Jones, known internationally in labor circles as "Mother Jones," promised today she would attend a celebration of the Chicago Federation of Labor on May day of the hundredth anniversary of her birth.

"Mother Jones" has been ill at her home at Silver Springs, Md., near here, for several weeks, but she retains her cheerful attitude.

"I will be one hundred years old May 1," she said, "and I am going to Chicago on that day, where the Chicago Federation of Labor intends to have a celebration in honor of my century of life."

Woman and 2 Men Captured in Gun Battle

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Irene Schroeder of Benwood, W. Va., M. G. Dague, and J. W. Crawford, the objects of a nation wide search in connection with the killing of a Pennsylvania highway policeman last Dec. 27, were captured in a gun battle near Laveen, Ariz., tonight.

They were surrounded by posses, who had been on their trail since last night, when they kidnaped a deputy sheriff from Florence, Ariz., and wounded him and a second deputy in a gun battle at Chandler a short time later.

Information here is that they also are wanted in Detroit and in Texas as slayer suspects.

Fugitives Are Cornered.

Posses spread throughout the Arizona hills and cornered the fugitives near Laveen. They barricaded themselves and refused to surrender until it became apparent that their position would be taken by assault.

The fugitives were surrounded on the top of a small peak in the South Range mountains. Had they remained quiet and held their fire, they might not have been discovered, officers said.

As the advance guard of the main body of possemen approached the base of the peak, however, it was scattered and driven to cover by shots fired from the top. None of the fugitives' bullets took effect, nor did any of the fire returned by the possemen. A brisk exchange took place, until the men and woman on the peak discovered the main body of the posse was near by.

Force Deputy Into Auto.

Joe Chapman, sheriff's deputy was forced into the fugitives' car last night by the two men, armed with revolvers, when he attempted to arrest the woman occupant of the car. She was alone in the machine when the deputy approached, and refused to produce ownership papers for the automobile.

A short time later at Chandler several deputies attempted to halt the machine and were fired upon by the occupants, Lee Wright, a deputy, being wounded. Chapman, apparently wounded while in the car, was thrown out.

Kill Officer, Wound One.

Newcastle, Pa., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Irene Schroeder, her brother, J. W. Crawford and M. Glen Dague, have been the object of a search since Dec. 27, when Corporal Brady Paul of the Pennsylvania highway police was shot and killed and Private Ernest Moore wounded near here after they stopped an automobile occupied by a woman, two men and a child.

The officers were questioning motorists following a store holdup at Butler, 30 miles to the east. When they halted the car, both Paul and Moore were shot down, Paul allegedly by the woman. The four in the car fled toward Newcastle and here stole another machine.

During the snow storm Sunday night, Dec. 29, Mrs. Schroeder left her four year old son, Donnie, with her father at Benwood, W. Va., making her way to and from her parent's home despite a watch kept by police. The boy was quoted by officers as saying his parent "shot two cops."

CHILDREN LIGHT NAPHTHA IN PLAY; MOTHER MAY DIE

A prank played by four of her six children may cost the life of Mrs. Marie Rosalis, 36 years old, 913 Lytle street. The mother was nursing her six months old daughter, Caroline, while her next child, Louisa, played on the floor. The four older children, playing with forbidden naphtha in the kitchen, made a fuse of newspapers, attached it to a can of the explosive liquid, lighted the fuse and ran outside.

The blast stunned Mrs. Rosalis. The flames had spread to her couch when Jose Cilba, 32 years old, a roomer, kicked in the door. He lacerated his arms in punching out the window panes to clear away the smoke, then carried the two children outside. When he returned for Mrs. Rosalis her dress was aflame. At the county hospital physicians said the two children were only slightly burned but that the mother probably would die.

STATE DRIVES AT PEACEMAKER STORY BY DORR

BY VIRGINIA GARDNER.

More than two hours of cross-examination by Assistant State's Attorney Harry Ditchburne late yesterday failed to disturb the poise of Howard Dorr, insurance salesman, whose life the state is asking for the murder on Nov. 20 of William J. O'Brien.

Again and again when the prosecutor brought to the attention of the prisoner-witness sections of his own confession, made just after the murder to the police and to the prosecutor himself, Dorr would say, "I don't recall. You told me to say so many things that I can't tell you offhand just what I did say."

After meeting this response repeatedly, Prosecutor Ditchburne finally stopped, stared at Dorr, and said to Judge Harry B. Miller.

"I think this would be a good place to stop for the day. I won't be through with this witness for some time."

Addresses Jury as a Salesman.

Taking the stand in his own defense in Judge Miller's court as the morning session opened, Dorr addressed the jury much as he might have addressed an insurance convention with a rousing appeal for bigger and better sales.

During the course of his glowing account of himself in the role of a busy man who nevertheless thought first of the wife and kiddies and second of the peace and welfare of his tenants, O'Brien and his wife, Genevieve, the fatal shooting of O'Brien appeared, according to Dorr's tale, in the light of a regrettable accident.

He Amazes Court Crowd.

Court spectators stared in apparent amazement at the brisk young man in his impeccable attire who pleasantly related an account of the shooting and then turned to a lengthy discussion of details of his life insurance business.

A touching picture of the relationship between the Dorr and O'Brien families in the two flat apartment they shared at 7328 Maplewood avenue was drawn by Dorr, the only discordant note between Dorr and his tenant being the shooting of the latter by the former.

But even that was explained by Dorr in a smooth account which showed him intervening between O'Brien and his wife when O'Brien was threatening Genevieve with a gun.

When Dorr came to the part in his story when he was in the detective bureau, a prisoner, making a confession of the crime, he still remained a hero, true to his duties as father and husband.

Dorr Explains Confession.

"I decided I was doing my family a great injustice by keeping them there," he said, referring to the bureau, "and that I would tell the police anything they wanted if they'd let my wife and children and Mrs. O'Brien go."

Under cross-examination by Assistant State's Attorney Ditchburne, who with Assistant State's Attorney Walker Butler is conducting the prosecution, Dorr appeared the accuser rather than the accused.

Reading from the alleged confession made by Dorr to the police and entered as a state's exhibit, Mr. Ditchburne chose questions put to Dorr at that time, as well as his answers, and asked if it wasn't a fact that such a question had been asked and such an answer given.

"No, I don't remember saying it was so, but I remember your saying that it was so," Dorr said at one time.

Defendant Takes the Stand.

When Dorr took the witness stand as court convened a stir swept over the courtroom, which was crowded to capacity, while hundreds of persons waited in line in the corridors for a chance to get in following the noon recess. The defendant smiled broadly at his wife, sitting pale and listless in the front row, as he has done regularly on entering the courtroom since the trial began.

He first told of knowing William O'Brien when both worked as conductors for the surface lines about seven years ago. At that time Dorr was president of a street car men's social club. The first time he met Genevieve O'Brien was when O'Brien brought her out to look at the flat Dorr wished to rent in the summer of 1928. With almost no prompting on the part of

Setups Wrong, but Club Wins Drinking Suit

The serving of setups of cracked ice and ginger ale or mineral water, though it may violate the spirit of the federal prohibition law, does not make a club liable for damages arising from drinking on its premises, according to a ruling by Superior Judge Harry C. Stuttle yesterday. In his decision the judge held that the wrong committed by the drinker in imbibing precluded him from collecting damages for injuries in an accident attributed to the drinking.

The decision sustained a demurrer filed by Attorney Leonard C. Reid in behalf of the Olympia Fields Country club in answer to a $25,000 damage suit against the club by Mrs. Luella S. Tyler of 7503 Yates avenue, in behalf of her 19 year old son, James R. Tyler Jr. Attorneys Francis J. Houlihan and Frank Michaels, representing Mrs. Tyler, announced that they will appeal.

Four Defendants Named.

The suit was brought April 21, 1928, and named three other defendants, Mrs. Charlotte Slobe, wife of Dr. Frederick Slobe, 6721 Merrill avenue; Daniel Harris Jr., 7001 Euclid avenue; and Charles Scott, 7345 Harvard avenue. Scott and Harris were said to have served liquor to Mrs. Slobe and Tyler during a frolic at the club on Aug. 25, 1927.

Toward the end of the party the youth accepted a ride home in Mrs. Slobe's automobile. His attorneys argued that he would not have accepted the offer if he had not been drinking. Mrs. Slobe was unsteady at the wheel, due to highballs, the ginger ale and mineral water for which had been furnished by the club, according to the plaintiff, and the car plunged into a creek near the club, injuring Tyler.

First Demurrer Fails.

The first demurrer of the club was overruled by Superior Judge David, who held the club liable for damages under the old dram shop act. On this decision the attorneys for Tyler filed an amended bill, dropping the three defendants and holding the club solely responsible. The demurrer to this bill was sustained.

"It is conceded that a man who drinks, whether he purchases the liquor or accepts it from others, violates the law," said Judge Stuttle, who is filling in here from Montgomery county. "He commits a wrong, and then, because of the wrong, suffers injury. The mishap is of his own willing, and he cannot beg courts for relief. The club in serving setups did not force him to drink. That was solely of his own willing."

Federal courts have held that such service implies acquiescence in infringement of the eighteenth amendment.

MEXICO REOPENS CONSULATE IN TEXAS; ROW ENDS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 14.—Genaro Estrada, acting foreign minister, today ordered the immediate reopening of the consulate at Laredo, Tex., which has been closed since former President Plutarco Elias Calles was threatened with arrest there a month ago.

The order followed a message from Joseph P. Cotton, acting secretary of state at Washington, giving guarantees by the American government that Mexican citizens passing through Laredo would not be molested in any way, providing they abide by immigration rules.

The Mexican consular officials, who had remained in Laredo, were on the job at once, according to Estrada. This closes a chapter in international diplomacy, which has greatly concerned Mexican importers and exporters, including the purchasing department of the Mexican government, which is awaiting heavy deliveries from the United States.

ALL RECORDS SMASHED FOR EDUCATION COST

Aldermen Fear Levy Will Be Illegal.

The board of education at 12:43 o'clock this morning passed a budget totaling $101,786,408, by far the largest budget in the history of Chicago schools. The vote was unanimous, 10 to 0.

The budget was adopted after the members had waited many hours for the auditing department to complete its figuring. Faced with the legal necessity of passing the budget before midnight, the board members caused the clock in the board room to be stopped and then sat in formal session awaiting the report from the auditors.

10 Millions for Debts.

Included in the total amount of the budget was $10,018,171 in unpaid liabilities of the board incurred in 1929. The balance of $91,768,237 is for current expenses in the coming year, and is compared with $86,496,608 appropriated last year. The increase this year is $5,271,629, not counting the added debt.

Appropriations to the various funds for current expenses, compared with figures for last year, are as follows:

Fund—	1930.	1929.
Educational	$53,389,103	$52,937,903
Free text book	2,525,530	1,907,645
School playground	1,253,662	753,953
Building	33,045,001	31,121,341
Teachers' pension	1,555,000	585,800
Totals	$91,768,237	$86,496,608

The entire 1930 tax levy for the educational, building and playground funds has been appropriated, according to President Caldwell, although the law prohibits borrowing in excess of 75 per cent of the board's tax anticipation warrants. No borrowing power is available in the teachers' pension and free text book funds.

No Estimate of Shortage.

The school trustees last night were not prepared to estimate the total cash shortage which necessarily must result if additional revenues are not made available during the year.

To the educational fund of $53,389,103 must be added last year's deficit in this fund of $8,048,783, making a total appropriation of $61,437,886. Estimated revenues for this fund are $61,741,540.

According to the figures of the board's expert accountants, McCoy, Snyder & Holland, available revenues will only be $53,389,103. Therefore in this fund alone there will be a cash shortage of $7,497,901.

The trustees made no attempt to make a budget within the available revenue, taking the position that they would make appropriations as if there was no shortage whatever in the school treasury, and depend up on the citizens, bankers and the legislature to prevent closing of the schools.

The fear expressed by the city aldermen that the school board budget was illegal, in that its revenues were inflated as a subterfuge to comply with the new budget law passed by the last legislature, caught no ears among the trustees.

Prefer to Close Schools.

Rather than curtail the activities of the schools to bring expenses within available revenues, the trustees would see the schools closed entirely, they agreed.

The auditors had been working since 2 o'clock Monday afternoon trying to balance the budget figures. The trustees were in session until 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, hoping to pass the buget then, and finally adjourned until last evening.

At 9:30 o'clock last night it was announced that the auditors were still at loggerheads over the books, which did not balance.

The trustees sat about idly. Hours passed, and finally the hour of midnight approached. Attorneys had asserted that the budget had to be passed last night in order to provide the required seven days of consideration before the next regular meeting of the board, set for Jan. 22. If the budget had not been passed it could not have become finally adopted until two weeks later.

Wonder at Delay.

As midnight passed, the members sat silent at their desks.

At half past twelve—by the reporters' watches—there was still no word from the auditors.

Interested citizens awaiting the budget wondered at the delay, especially in view of the fact that almost no changes in the setup have been made since the first draft of the budget was presented ten days ago.

Finally the 300 or more sheets of the budget were brought in. Within ten minutes the budget had been approved by the finance committee and unanimously adopted by the board of eight Thompson trustees and two appointees of the late Mayor Dever.

In casting his vote Trustee James Mullenbach asked that he be placed on record as being in favor of all items with the exception of an appropriation of $30,000 for the high school R. O. T. C.

In addition to the 1929 deficit of $5,048,782 in the educational fund, which the board was required to absorb in the new budget, other 1929 deficits included: Free text book fund, $872,422; building fund, $1,041,369; teachers' pension fund, $15,884, and playground fund, $39,711.

ALDERMEN WORRIED

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The public schools of Chicago will close for the lack of funds about the middle of next November, according to the board's own expert accountants, McCoy, Snyder & Holland. Their analysis of the board's budget and resources was made to H. Wallace Caldwell, president of the board, in writing. That forecast is on the assumption that the board passes a valid budget.

The city council is interested in the school budget because the law requires the city council, on request of the school board, to levy all school taxes. The question of closing the schools is not worrying the aldermen now. But they are deeply concerned just now with a rumor that there are serious flaws in the board's budget for educational purposes.

Legality in Question.

The 1929 state law requires the school board to adopt a balanced budget. The trustees are prohibited from appropriating more than their income. The draft of the school budget indicates that they have inflated their income. The tax levy is dependent upon the appropriations.

If the budget is legally defective, the board's tax levy is open to question and the sale of tax anticipation warrants, based upon the tax levy, will consequently be interfered with. Without the sale of tax warrants the schools will receive no money with which to operate until about Nov. 15.

Under the new law the board is required to set forth in its budget its estimated revenue for the current fiscal year. The board has estimated the 1930 resources of its education fund and school fund at $61,741,540. The principal item in this estimate is $46,561,555 from general taxes.

Limit on Borrowing.

Of course the 1930 taxes will not be collected until after the 1928 and 1929 taxes, and only the 1928 tax is likely to be collected this year. The board is permitted to borrow 75 per cent of the tax levy, which the expert accountants have told the board is only $39,100,000. But the board sets up as a resource $7,800,000 which the law prohibits the board from borrowing.

In this respect it is reported that the board is attempting to evade the law. The new statute says that "such budget [of the school board] shall present a complete financial plan for the current fiscal year."

There is no plan presented in the board's budget by which this $7,800,000 can be obtained. The new law further says that "It [the budget] shall include detailed estimates of all balances available at the beginning of said fiscal year and expenditure during such year." Accordingly, the board estimates its income from 1928 and 1929 taxes at $5,382,000 as a balance available. The Strawn committee estimates this balance at $2,282,000—a difference of $3,100,000 on what is available.

Aldermen Get Opinions.

It is the opinion of two lawyers in the city council that the board's claim to $46,901,555 from taxes leaves its budget open to serious attack and menaces the validity of the tax levy. Certain aldermen, in view of the legal duty of the council to levy the school taxes, do not want the blame placed upon them for any closing of the schools which may occur.

City lawyers have told school officials that the city can legally pass only one tax levy ordinance, and that the board cannot have a legal tax levy without a valid budget.

The city council will be ready next Saturday to pass the city's corporate budget. Mayor Thompson said yesterday that a study of the legality of the budget is being made. He will not indicate whether he will veto the amended budget until he knows about its legality.

Library Cuts Pay Roll.

The library board announced yesterday the discharge of about 200 employés and the cutting of its book purchases 50 per cent because of the lack of funds. In addition the branch library hours will be cut from twelve to eight daily. The board said that this is the first time in more than twenty years the board has been compelled to negotiate heavy loans to obtain money on which to operate the libraries.

Health Commissioner Kegel, Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe, and Commissioner of Gas and Electricity Kennedy asked Corporation Counsel Ettelson yesterday if they can reemploy the employés for which the council has made no appropriation. Mr. Ettelson said that he would give an opinion later.

COUNTY REACHES FINANCIAL HAVEN; CERMAK CROWS

$7,000,000 Tax Warrant Sale Approved.

After getting the approval of the Strawn citizens' financial committee on the proposed sale of $7,000,000 worth of county tax anticipation warrants, President Cermak of the county board yesterday struck at the critics of the 1930 county budget. He characterized attacks against the budget as political moves to discredit the county board and boasted that the county will be the first of the tax spenders to realize income from its appropriation bill.

President Cermak appeared before Silas H. Strawn and the citizens' committee at noon. He explained that the tax anticipation warrants issued and to be issued by the county are well within the revenues. He listed outstanding liabilities at $3,215,000 and current requirements until March at $3,450,000.

Newby Points Out Danger.

Commissioner Harry A. Newby, chairman of the finance committee, pointed out that if the board is to pay all of its outstanding liabilities and requirements, it will have no funds to meet pay rolls after March 1, since the sale of warrants will realize little more than $7,500,000. He suggested that the committee approve payment of only the most urgent liabilities, as had been planned by the board.

The committee voted to approve the commissioners' plan. It was held that the sale of the warrants was the only possible way for the county to function and that $7,000,000 worth of warrants might safely be sold.

"With the approval of this committee, called to study the financial situation of local governing bodies, and the support of the legal opinion of the law firm of Chapman & Cutler, the vaditity of the 1930 budget is beyond question," President Cermak said. "This fact will doubtless bring some sorrow to those who have been anxious to discredit our work, for political purposes.

Attacks Ald. Nelson.

"It has been charged that the county has overestimated its revenue. Ald. Nelson on the floor of the council assailed the budget as a bunk budget citing the fact that we estimate the county treasurer's income for 1930 at $5,000,000 where it was $2,500,000 in 1929 and the county clerk's at $900,000 where it was $400,000.

"The alderman forgot that both of those offices will do two years' work in 1930 because of the failure to collect tax bills last year. In the same way he challenged jurors' appropriations of $600,000 declaring that we spent $1,100,000 in 1929. He was misinformed. We spent $900,000 and will effect a savings because of a change in the law which places a fee on jury trials."

London Crooks Open Radio Station to Foil Police

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—London crooks now have their own radio station. It was being hunted tonight by Scotland Yard. This high powered unregistered transmitting station sends out signals which interfere with reception of police instructions to wireless equipped squad cars, and has foiled the pursuit of several robber bands. The crooks' station operates on Scotland Yard's wave length, which was supposed to be secret.

Smoking in Library Leads to Student's Suspension

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Harrison Salisbury, managing editor of the Minnesota Daily, undergraduate publication at the University of Minnesota, was suspended for one year today for smoking in the library in violation of a new rule.

BOARD SPURNS PLAN TO SWAP SCHOOL LAND FOR BEACH PROPERTY

President Caldwell of the board of education yesterday indicated that the school trustees will not carry out the suggestion of the Chicago Plan Commission to exchange school property at 63rd street and Cicero avenue for city land at Clarendon beach in order to provide a larger area for the Municipal airport now located on the school's property.

In a speech before the Air Capital Committee meeting in the Press club 30 North Dearborn street, he remarked that an attempt to carry out the plan commission's suggestion would cause greater criticism, "from political sources" than the plan offered by Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe to have the city lease on a long term basis the land now occupied by the city air field and other land adjoining it.

The latter plan is generally favored by the board, Caldwell asserted. He said the school board building and grounds committee would discuss the proposal with Mr. Wolfe next week and that in a few weeks he expected to see the deal consummated. It was inferred that Mr. Wolfe's plan was favored largely because of the belief that it would be carried out with less criticism.

TEACHER HELD AS POISONER OF TEN CHILDREN

Accused of Drugging Breakfast Cereal.

New York, Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Miss Pearl Topper, 27, who gave her occupation as school teacher, was arrested tonight in her room in the fraternity house of the Parnassus club on a warrant from Bergen county, N. J., and held in the West 30th street precinct over night for New Jersey authorities.

Miss Topper was indicted by the Bergen county grand jury last week on a charge of attempted poisoning, the police said. The warrant accuses her of having administered arsenic last Aug. 19 to ten children.

Served in Oatmeal.

Records in Bergen county show that on that date a woman employed as assistant director in the summer camp of the Mary Hillard association of New York was suspected of having sprinkled arsenic on bowls of oatmeal set out for ten children being cared for by the association on its property at Montvale. The children became ill but recovered. Physicians said the poison had no fatal effect because the large doses acted as an emetic, while a smaller quantity would have caused death.

The assistant director disappeared the morning after the children were taken ill.

Quarreled with Cook.

It developed that she had quarreled with the camp cook the day before the children were poisoned and had threatened to seek revenge. Miss Topper denied she knew about the poisoning.

ROADHOUSE CALLS CAUSE JUDGE TO JAIL OWNER YEAR

Riverhead, L. I., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—A similarity in telephone numbers caused Court Judge George H. Furman to impose a one year jail sentence today on Gertie Kramer and her husband, Herman, who pleaded guilty to conducting a nuisance at the roadhouse they operated in Bellport.

Other roadhouse proprietors who pleaded guilty during the day escaped with $100 and $150 fines.

Judge Furman disclosed that the reason for his severity in the case of Mrs. Kramer and her husband was that his telephone number and that of the Bellport roadhouse were almost the same and that he had received so many wrong calls from persons seeking the roadhouse that he knew exactly the character of the place the couple operated.

SO. PARK BOARD FEELS PINCH OF SHORT REVENUE

Kelly Says Revaluation Means 17% Cut.

Lowered valuation of real estate in the South Park district under the reassessment as compared with the 1927 assessment will force the park board to slash all appropriations in the forthcoming budget by one-sixth. This announcement was made yesterday by President Edward J. Kelly, who predicted that the board's revenue will be cut by $500,000 through the reassessment.

The estimate is made on a comparison of the assessors' valuations for assessment purposes in 1927 and 1928. These show a decrease in property valuations of approximately $178,317,000. This cut, coupled with further probable reductions by the board of review, and the loss and cost of tax collection will work the loss in revenue, President Kelly said.

Points to Loop Reductions.

"I have no desire to offer criticism, but I believe that the public should be apprised of the facts," Mr. Kelly said. "When the assessors reduced loop valuations they dealt a vital blow at the south park district.

"All told, the commissioners are sure that we will have $500,000 less this year than we would have had from the 1927 levy. We have watched the reassessment anxiously in the hope that the condition might be averted by some relief or other, but as we approach the making of our budget we see no hope. This loss of revenue will be reflected in every department. Each one will be subjected to a cut of one-sixth.

Calls Cut Untimely.

"The loss comes at a most unfortunate time. The district has taken on increased burdens in outer drive improvements, acquiring of many small parks, and general extension of dudes in all branches of work."

It was pointed out that the district can secure relief only through a legislative act raising its tax levy.

JAIL BEN KARPEN IN LOS ANGELES ON CHECK CHARGE

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Ben Karpen, who described himself as a member of the Karpen family of Chicago, furniture manufacturers, was in jail here tonight charged with suspicion of forgery and grand theft.

Karpen admitted he had been known as "the Cabaret Kid" in Chicago during the period following the death of his father, who bequeathed him $250,000.

"I wish I had that quarter of a million I spent in cabarets now," Karpen said.

Karpen declared his arrest was the result of a mistake. He is charged with giving a check for $350 on the New York bank account of his brother, Nathan Karpen, to pay $168 owed Louis Hentleff, his employer in a furniture business here. The check was returned unpaid.

Howard Elmore Is Named in $156,848 Damage Suit

The praecipe of a $156,848 damage suit was filed yesterday in the Superior court against Howard W. Elmore, president of the sanitary district, by the law firm of Lawless & Cox, in behalf of Marvin F. Tackett of Highland Park. The attorneys declined to discuss the suit other than to say it was not political. President Elmore said it involved a real estate transaction in which he acted as Tackett's agent. When the property could not be sold Tackett tried to force him to buy the property, Elmore said. He added that he had no contract with Tackett.

MIDNIGHT SNOW, A COPPER AND A BOTTLE OF MILK

Judge Gives This Tale a Happy Ending.

On Monday night at midnight Irving Newer, who is 28 years old, and his wife, Lillian, were walking aimlessly about, turning from one street to another without apparent design. The sidewalks were covered in many places with pools of standing water and with a soggy crust of half melted snow. The weather was chilly. Newer and his wife were not too warmly clad and besides they must take turn about in carrying a bundle.

This bundle was their daughter Mary, who is 2 years old. Inasmuch as they could, by catching the reflection of the street lamps, avoid most of the water that lay upon the walks, it was no comfort to them when, in a dark place, they stepped almost ankle deep into some haphazard trench; no comfort for their shoes were too well worn to resist these temporary drenchings.

Noticed by Policeman.

They had been walking miles, it seemed to them, when the glance of a curious policeman caught them.

"Why don't you go home?" he said, laying a forefinger on the arm of the husband.

"We have no home," said Newer. And he shifted Mary, the 2 year old, over into a more comfortable position.

The policeman glanced from husband to wife as if determining just whom to question next. "You must have come from somewhere."

Newer with his free hand drew his collar more closely about his neck. "We had a furnished room with Mrs. Virginia Keller at 1041 Belden avenue," he said. "I couldn't pay the rent any more so we had to get out. We've nowhere to go."

There was a disconsolate little moan from the bundle that was Mary, the 2 year old.

Officer Takes a Hand.

"Come on," said the policeman, "she can't be that hard. We'll see if we can't talk her out of it."

And together they walked back to the rooming house. The policeman put on a bold front and extended his best compliments to Mrs. Keller. But that good woman gazed straight at him with an unflinching eye.

"Not only will there be nothing doing," she said, "in the way of taking these people back, but I want them arrested."

"For what?" asked the policeman.

"Newer broke into the room he had been put out of and stole a bottle of milk."

"Mary was hungry," said Newer. "I couldn't stand to hear her cry when I knew there was a bottle of milk——"

"Do you insist on this arrest?" asked the policeman.

Insists on Arrest.

"I do," said Mrs. Keller. And the Newers, husband, wife, and the 2 year old Mary, went to the East Chicago avenue police station.

Yesterday Judge Alfred O. Erickson heard the evidence against the defendants. Then he said: "Here is $5 to start a collection to help these people. It's a pitiful case. And it is dismissed."

Whereat the Newer family departed for shelter and food with $23 nestling in Newer's pocket.

WOLFE USES PUBLIC FUNDS TO TELL OF CITY HALL'S VIRTUE

Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe has developed a method of distributing political propaganda, boosting himself and Mayor Thompson by the use of public funds, according to records in the city hall. Pamphlets containing praise of himself and the mayor are written by Wolfe and the cost of printing and distributing are met with public funds.

The pamphlets appear to be expositions on Wolfe's department. In each, however, Wolfe has inserted political campaign matter and sends it in the same envelope that carries the water bill.

The latest activity along this line was the printing and distributing of 25,000 pamphlets bearing the title, "Chicago's Water Supply System." These have been mailed to residents in the northwest and southwest sections of the city.

"The pamphlets are sent where water was scarce and a panic had developed as a result," said Commissioner Wolfe when questioned. The records show the scarcity of water was felt last summer and the pamphlet was not printed until October.

NORTHUP WILL KEEP HANDS OFF REASSESSMENT

The state's attorney's office will not take a hand in the reassessment muddle, at least until State's Attorney Swanson returns from Florida, except insofar as individual cases of tax "fixing" may be discovered by the officials, Acting State's Attorney John E. Northrup announced yesterday. Prosecutor Northrup said he would investigate reports that some precinct politicians, especially in the country towns, had promised to "fix" taxes in return for votes or money.

The visit of George O. Fairweather, chairman of the county commission on real estate valuations, and William H. Malone, chairman of the state tax commission, to Northrup's office Monday, was the subject of much speculation yesterday. It was admitted in some quarters that the two officials made the visit in an effort to hurry the completion of the reassessment, which has held up tax collections for months.

SEEK TO INDICT SLAIN BANDITS' PAL FOR MURDER

Groups of persons were visiting the county morgue last night to view the bodies of two bandits on the slabs there. The companion of the slain men was in a cell. In a home at 4172 West 24th place the body of Detective Jerry Murphy was in a coffin and at the Garfield Park hospital Lieut. Edward Conroy, a veteran of the police force, was being treated for a wound in the shoulder. Such was the aftermath of the furious gun battle fought early yesterday morning in an apartment building at 4049 West Jackson boulevard.

"Good police work," was the comment of Commissioner William F. Russell, who in addition expressed sorrow over the killing of Detective Murphy.

A police alarm had sent Lieut. Conroy, Detective Murphy and two of their brother officers from the Fillmore station to the Jackson boulevard address at 4:30 o'clock. Burglars had entered the apartment of Harry Sucherman, occupant of the first floor, and he touched a buzzer that sounded in the apartment of his brother, Nathan, who lives across the hall. Nathan called the police.

Surrounded by Police.

The three burglars had taken $80 from Sucherman's trousers and had forced him to open a wall safe that was empty. They were ready to depart when policemen under command of Lieut. Conroy surrounded the building, with Conroy and Sergt. Lynch at the front and Policemen Murphy and Loeffler, plain clothes officers, at the rear.

The three burglars came to the landing and were confronted by the policemen.

"Come out and surrender," Lieut. Conroy demanded.

The answer was a volley of shots from the door. Murphy entered the building through a rear window and went through to the lobby where the bandits were at bay. He was killed before he had time to fire a shot.

Throw Gas Bombs.

Tear gas bombs were thrown into the lobby and one of the bandits ran upstairs and tried to get into the apartment of Dr. A. A. Hirsch, saying he was a police officer. Mrs. Hirsch ran to a window and called down to the police in uniform.

"They're banging at my door. Shall I let them in?"

Lieut. Conroy shouted to her to call the station and ask for reinforcements and to let no one into her home. She called and in a few minutes two detective bureau squads arrived. The police rushed inside and found Murphy dead beside the bodies of two of the robbers. The third bandit shouted from the third floor that he would surrender. He came down.

He gave his name as Sam Wasserman, alias Sam Waterman. He is 32 and lives at 1256 South Troy street. His dead companions were Al Holtzman, whose home was in Hoopeston, Ill., and Sam Wolf, a Chicago crook. Wasserman said he had met them for the first time on Monday, but Chief of Detectives John Stege established that Wasserman, a former convict from Michigan, had been arrested a year ago with Wolf.

Faces Murder Indictment.

Arrangements were made to indict Wasserman for the murder of Policeman Murphy, although he said he had not fired a shot. Assistant State's Attorney Abe Merovitz said that even if Wasserman had not shot he was equally guilty because the three were engaged in the commission of a crime.

Mrs. Sallie Gooldman, 1901 South Springfield avenue, identified the body of Holzman as that of one of three men who took $200 from her and her husband on Jan. 13. They entered her home and tortured her to force her to tell where money or jewelry was hidden.

CHARGES WIFE WITH INFIDELITY FOR 22 YEARS

Walter E. Anderson, 813 Ridge avenue, Evanston, through his attorney, Lloyd A. Faxon, brought suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Winona Chapman Anderson, yesterday. The Chapmans were married March 18, 1908, and separated last Jan. 2. They have a married daughter, Ethel, 21 years old.

The bill alleges that Mrs. Anderson, who is 43 years old, has had improper relations with other men during her entire married life. Anderson says his wife possesses a dual personality which enabled her to conceal her misconduct until recently, when, he alleges, he obtained proof of her acts.

Because of worry over his wife's ways, Anderson charges, he lost a position as vice president of the Inland Rubber company which paid $25,000 a year and was forced to take a position at $5,000 a year. When he established his wife's guilt, the bill continues, he lost faith in womankind, and is no longer mentally or physically able to hold an executive position.

Detectives Use Tear Gas Bombs to Rout Suspects

Tear gas bombs were used yesterday by the state's attorney's detectives to force two men out of a flat at 6935 South State street. They are Chester Monroe, 34 years old, and Ralph McCrue, 27 years old, who were traced to the flat by Charles Beresas, 12412 South Halsted street. Beresas complained that on Nov. 29 two men took him for a ride and robbed him of $130. When the detectives went to the flat they were told to go away or they would be shot. Reserves were called and a few tear bombs brought the suspects out. Miss Margaret McCarthy was taken in the raid, but she was released.

Thief Floored, Disarmed by Man He Tries to Rob

Caught off guard as he was robbing the till in the office of a parking space at 6515 Cottage Grove avenue, Emil Schulz, 38 years old, 3800 Ellis avenue, was knocked down and disarmed by the proprietor, E. W. Seip. Schulz, with a pistol in his right hand, was fumbling with the till when Seip said "Let me help you," delivering an uppercut the same instant. At the Woodlawn police station Schulz confessed six other robberies.

Lemons Grow in City

Challenging the claim of the Garfield park conservatory in possessing the only lemon tree in Chicago, Walter Frolich, a florist, summoned press photographers to his greenhouse at 5527 Walton street yesterday. He bade them take pictures of three dwarfed lemon trees growing under glass and urged them to taste the nine lemons on the branches, all as large as cantaloupes. The trees, which are of the ponderoso species, were brought from Italy by his father and are forty years old, Mr. Frolich says.

YALE DEATH GUN TO BE SOUGHT BY TESTS ON BULLET

Two New York detectives, firearms experts, will arrive in Chicago this morning, bringing with them a bullet taken from the body of Frankie Yale, Brooklyn racketeer who was slain in his automobile in Brooklyn July 1, 1928.

Coroner Bundesen, during a recent trip to New York, visited Police Commissioner Grover Whalen, and suggested that the Yale bullet might be compared with bullets fired from gangsters' guns seized in Chicago, and particularly with the machine gun bullets fired from the machine gun of Frank Burke. Burke's gun has been identified as having fired the bullets which killed seven men in the St. Valentine's day massacre.

The two detectives are Harry Butts and Stanley Gorman, and they will visit the new crime school at Northwestern university, where the science of ballistics is being promoted.

FIRE ROUTS FOUR FAMILIES.

Four families were driven from their homes by smoke, and damage estimated at $2,500 was caused by a fire starting from an overheated stove in the rear of the Ontario Shirt shop, 630 North Clark street, last night. The families lived above the store.

POOR SPELLING TRAPS BLACKMAIL PLOT SUSPECTS

His peculiar style of spelling directed suspicion against Edward Sonneborn in a blackmail plot last night. Sonneborn, a 35 year old teamster, and his wife, May, were arrested by the Sheffield police at their home, 6816 Wentworth avenue.

A week ago, John Ricketts, one of the proprietors of Ricketts restaurant at 2727 North Clark street, received a letter instructing him to send $1,000 to one J. L. Crane in care of general delivery at Ottawa, Ill. The letter threatened him with death if he failed.

Ricketts told police who notified the Ottawa postmaster to arrest any person asking for J. L. Crane's mail. Ricketts forwarded an empty package but no one called for it at Ottawa. However, there came a card postmarked Chicago, instructing the Ottawa postmaster to forward Crane's mail to 6816 Wentworth avenue, Chicago.

Yesterday a messenger with a package was sent to the Wentworth avenue address. Mrs. Sonneborn refused to accept it so Sheffield avenue police entered the house for further investigation.

Sonneborn produced a letter, received he said several days ago, and instructing him to hold all mail for J. L. Crane and say nothing to police. Noting that various words in both letters were similarly misspelled, the police put Sonneborn to a test. He erred on every word the letter writer had misspelled.

U. S. ALARM OVER PARROT DISEASE NOT WARRANTED

Doctors Say Diagnosis Is Not Yet Definite.

New York, Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Additional deaths attributed to psittacosis, or parrot fever, were reported in various sections of the east today, but public health officials continued to assert that there was no occasion for general alarm.

One death was reported in Hollis, Queens; one in Yonkers, one in Johnstown, N. Y.; one in Toledo, O., and one in Baltimore, Md. The public health authorities in Washington reported a total of seven deaths and fifty cases of illness to date.

The total cases to date in New York City were eleven, including four members of the same family.

Robert Buchanan died today at Yonkers General hospital and his wife is ill. In both cases the illness was traced to a parrot given as a holiday present a few days before Christmas.

Autopsy to be Held.

Dr. Clarence Buckmaster announced that relatives of Buchanan had granted permission for an autopsy upon the body for the advancement of medical science. Dr. Amos O. Squier of Ossining, former head physician at Sing Sing prison, will coöperate with state health authorities in the autopsy.

The death in Toledo, O., of Miss Catherine Tierney, 67 years old, was the second there within the last few days to be attributed to the disease. Her ailment was traced to a parrot brought recently from South America.

In Baltimore Mrs. W. M. Burns died, the second supposed victim to the strange malady in that city. The parrot to which her illness was traced was bought during the holidays.

Mrs. Leon F. Swears, who died in Johnstown, N. Y., became ill soon after a parrot bought recently in Schenectady became sickly.

Dr. William H. Park, professor of bacteriology and hygiene at New York university, said that if a parrot had been in a household over a considerable period of time it was highly unlikely that it would contract or be a source of the disease.

The New York health department is making a survey of parrots in pet shops in New York city in an effort to eradicate the infection, he said.

ELECTRIC TRAIN SMASHES AUTO; PEDDLER KILLED

Louis S. Fine, 45 years old, 4232 Grenshaw street, a vegetable peddler, was killed yesterday when a north bound Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee electric train struck his automobile at the Winnetka road crossing in Winnetka. His car was demolished by the impact, which battered in the front of the train. William G. Ives, 138 North Park avenue, Waukegan, a supervisor for the railroad, was cut by flying glass.

Fine's death and one other raised the 1930 Cook county motor toll to 27. The other victim:

Ellis McCary, 40 years old, 6201 North Maplewood avenue. Fatally injured when his car skidded on icy pavement and crashed into a ditch at Rogers and Kenneth avenues.

Six year old Erwin Snider, 343 South Central Park avenue, was injured, probably fatally, when he was struck by a hit and run motorist as he crossed Fifth avenue at Central Park avenue. He was taken to the Garfield Park hospital.

DEE BACK HOME AS SPANISH COURT CALLS HIS TRIAL

Dispatches from Madrid last night said a Spanish court yesterday had issued an order requiring Packey J. Dee, La Salle street broker, to surrender as a prisoner within ten days or forfeit a $1,000 bond.

Dee was arrested last July after filching an ancient porcelain plaque from the museum of the Royal Escorial palace. He said the theft was a prank, and his friends procured his release on bail.

Mr. Dee announced later in Paris that he had no intention of returning to Spain. He was reached last night at his home, 399 Fullerton parkway, but declined to comment.

TWO YEAR TERM FOR TWO DRINKS UNDER JONES ACT

U. S. Court Sustains Stiff Sentence.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 14.—(AP)—The Jones law was held applicable to the sale of two drinks of liquor for 50 cents by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here today, and Frank Ross of Elm Grove, W. Va., accused of making the 50 cent sale, must serve a two year prison term "at hard labor" under the ruling.

Judge Edmund Waddill Jr., senior Circuit judge, dissented from the majority finding of Judge Elliott Northcutt and Judge John J. Parker, stating: "The Jones act was primarily intended to reach and prevent violations of the law conducted on a large scale, not petty offenses such as this case confessedly involves—a sale of two drinks costing 50 cents."

Court Curbs Search of Cars.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Federal prohibition agents without a warrant of arrest or of seizure cannot search an automobile upon a highway unless they have reasonable grounds for believing that the machine contains liquor, Judge Andrew Miller ruled in federal court here today.

His ruling was made in the case of Will H. Leighton of Minot, arrested by a prohibition agent on a highway south of here while he was repairing a tire on a car which contained liquor. He was charged with unlawful transportation.

The agent's testimony did not reveal that Leighton had any knowledge that the car contained liquor. He claimed the car belonged to another person.

Case Is Dismissed.

After the court had upheld the defendant's motion for suppression of evidence and destruction of the liquor, Usher L. Burdick, assistant United States district attorney, moved for dismissal of the charge, which the court granted.

"A prohibition agent, if he has no information that would lead a reasonable man to believe there was liquor in the car, has no right to search that car without a warrant," Judge Miller said. "If that were not true, then prohibition agents would have a right to stop everybody anywhere and search their cars on a chance of finding liquor. No such right exists under the law."

Court Stops Club Wreckers.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Dry agents here who have taken pleasure in denuding exclusive night clubs of their fine furnishings after raids, received a setback today when United States Judge Simon Ladler ruled that the law which permitted seizure of personal effects applied only ment to yield to the demand of the manufacture of intoxicating beverages and not to the mere sale of them.

$200,000 LIQUOR VESSEL OWNER IS FOUND GUILTY

Foreign Licensed Ship Fails to Save Him.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 14.—(AP)—John T. Callahan, Newark, N. J., was convicted by a jury in federal court today of violating the tariff act, aiding and abetting in the importation of liquors into this country.

Callahan was alleged to have been the owner of the schooner Charles Edward, which was seized by coast guards 4 miles off the Delaware capes on the night of Nov. 10, 1927, with a cargo of liquor estimated to be worth $200,000.

Outfitted in Nova Scotia.

Testimony disclosed that Callahan went to Canada and purchased the schooner, which was outfitted at Lunenberg, Nova Scotia, and provided it with a crew at St. Pieree, Miquelon islands.

Callahan was charged with violating the tariff act, which makes it illegal for any one to import or bring into the United States any merchandise contrary to law. Violation of this part of the tariff law is punishable by imprisonment up to two years and a fine up to $5,000 or both.

Contending that none of the things charged against their client, except an alleged conversation at Cape May, N. J., had occurred within the jurisdiction of the court or in the United States, counsel for Callahan asked for a verdict of not guilty.

Tells of Alleged Bribe Offer.

The Cape May conversation referred to the testimony of James P. Gilhooley, a coast guardsman, that before the boat arrived Callahan promised him $5,000 if he would convoy the ship into the Delaware bay, mentioning Reedy island as the destination.

Judge Morris, in denying the motion to instruct the jury to acquit Callahan, ruled than any person in a foreign country who owns or outfits a vessel and loads it with goods that may not be legally imported into the United States and sends it out with a view of having those goods imported into the United States, is guilty of violating the tariff act, regardless of his nationality or place of residence or whether he has ever been in the United States.

Calls It Wrong to Class Beer Selling With Arson

Providence, R. I., Jan. 14.—(AP)—The Providence Journal tomorrow will say that President Emeritus W. H. P. Faunce of Brown university in an interview tonight said: "When we place the selling of a glass of beer in the same category as forgery, or arson, and think that by merely increasing the penalties we can increase obedience we are confusing moral issues for the whole nation."

Expressing his reaction to the country's ten years of prohibition, Dr. Faunce deplored indulgence in "bitter personalities" by opponents and proponents of prohibition. He expressed the opinion that, while the country is having a "tragic experience," a general agreement will be forthcoming eventually if "the spirit of tolerance for other men's opinions is preserved."

COAST GUARDS WHO SHOT THREE DEAD ARE FREED

Grand Jury Upholds Black Duck Killings.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 14.—(AP)—A special grand jury called to consider evidence in the slaying of three men aboard the rum runner Black Duck by coast guardmen reported in Superior court here tonight that it had found no indictment.

Among the 22 witnesses heard were eight of the crew of the coast guard patrol boat 290, which fired on the Black Duck in lower Narragansett bay Dec. 29, fatally wounding Jake Weisman of Providence, Dudley Brandt of Boston, and John Goulart of Fairhaven, Mass. Charles Travers, wound survivor of the rum boat crew, likewise testified.

Jury Explains Finding.

After reporting no indictment to Judge A. A. Capotostoko, John H. Balcom, foreman of the jury, read the following statement:

"In view of the great public interest in the matter under investigation by the grand jury, involving the so-called Black Duck shooting, its members feel that a statement should be made at this time. We believe that the attorney general's department has fully and thoroughly presented to us all the evidence available which would assist us in arriving at a decision in the matter. The investigation and consideration has been completely carried out. We accordingly report that we find no true bill."

Guardsmen Get U. S. Advice.

Before appearing at the courthouse the coast guardsmen, headed by Boatswain Alexander Cornell, who was in charge of the 290, conferred with United States Attorney Henry M. Boss Jr., at the federal building. It was understood the men were advised as to their constitutional rights in their grand jury appearance. Mr. Boss is in the position of defense counsel for the guardsmen.

It became known this morning that a written report filed with United States Attorney Boss by Treasury Special Agents Owen P. McKenna and Thomas F. Finnegan of Boston, completely exonerated the coast guardsmen.

Nurse Tells Fatal Error; Death Is Held Accident

A nurse's fatal error of two weeks ago was disclosed yesterday at a coroner's inquest. Miss Georgia Brader of the nursing staff at the county hospital testified that on Dec. 30 she administered a dose of morphine, mistaken for paregoric, to Mrs. Matilda Cote, 74 years old, 1329 Grove avenue, Berwyn, who was a psychopathic patient. The dose was fatal within a few hours. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

CANADIAN BOOZE KINGS BUILD HUGE CACHE NEAR U. S.

Choose French Isle as Dry Laws Tighten.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—Convinced of the Canadian government's intention at the impending session of parliament to prohibit the exportation of liquor to the United States, rum runners are building up huge liquor stores in the French islands of St. Pierre and Miequelon, in the St. Lawrence gulf. From these strategic points, over which Canada has no jurisdiction, they will continue to bombard the United States border with booze.

Statistics show that Canada has exported to St. Pierre 800,000 gallons of hard liquor in the first nine months of the present fiscal year as compared with much less than half that amount in the same period last fiscal year.

St. Pierre Is Cheap Outlet.

Canadian officials have found that liquor manufactured in Ontario and exported to St. Pierre has actually been re-exported recently to Detroit and sold there for less than the liquor directly exported from Windsor to Detroit.

The whisky which goes to St. Pierre is subsequently reshipped to the United States and may be transported from the Atlantic seaboard either by railway or motor truck.

The United States, of course, may still expect limited liquor supplies from all border points. The Ontario government liquor shops sell liquor in limited quantities without question as to its ultimate disposition, and there will be plenty of individuals prepared to smuggle small cargoes over.

Beer by the Glass Vetoed.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 14.—After three years' trial of the system of government sale of intoxicating liquors from government emporiums only, Premier Ferguson of Ontario today turned down the request of the trades and labor council for the sale of beer by the glass in hotels and restaurants. The premier said the people were satisfied with present conditions and there was no demand for sale of beer by the glass.

the administration bills if it was desired that he do so.

"While I do not believe in prohibition and think it is morally wrong," said Mr. Graham, "I will do everything possible to support administration measures."

Sees No Difficulties.

Mr. Graham said that he thought the proposal for increased powers for commissioners of federal courts to permit them to dispose of minor prohibition cases could be worked out in a constitutional manner. The judiciary committee held hearings in the last session on a somewhat similar proposal included in a bill introduced by Representative Walton Moore [Dem., Va.].

Representative Williamson, in introducing the bill to transfer prohibition enforcement, except that part of it relating to industrial alcohol, to the department of justice, said that he would arrange hearings before his committee at an early date and that favorable action would be taken after a brief consideration.

"No controversy has arisen between department heads with respect to the proposed transfer," said Mr. Williamson. "On the contrary, there has all along been the fullest coöperation with a view to such changes as might be of assistance in securing the best possible enforcement of the prohibition act."

Sabath Offers Beer Bill.

Representative A. J. Sabath [Dem., Ill.] introduced in the house a bill to repeal the supplemental prohibition act, passed in 1921, which prohibited prescribing beer and wine for medicinal purposes.

"If my bill were approved beer and and wine could be prescribed and used for medicinal purposes, thereby reducing the general discontent and resentment against present intolerable conditions, as described by President Hoover, Secretary Mellon, and the crime commission," said Mr. Sabath. "It would reduce to a minimum the profitable bootlegging industry and the government would derive a substantial revenue."

FIND 1,200 BOTTLES OF LIQUOR ABOARD U. S. LINER AMERICA

New York, Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Persistent suspicions have been shown by prohibition and customs officials that the steamship America of the United States lines had a large supply of fine liquors aboard when she arrived here Nov. 17 last.

Those suspicions were verified today by the seizure of 1,200 bottles of champagne and liquors by customs authorities at Pier 4, Hoboken, where the ship is being loaded for sailing. The bottles of liquor were packed two or three together with wrappings of German newspapers, tied up to look like such nondescript packages as are commonly seen on the streets in holiday time.

Two men, believed to be members of the America's crew, were arrested.

Welcome Dry Act Violator Home from Federal Prison

Herrin, Ill., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Greeted by 50 friends at Carbondale when he alighted from the train, Elmer McCormack was home today after serving a sentence for conspiracy to violate the prohibition law nearly a year ago. The caravan of cars escorted McCormack to his home. Elmer's brother, ex-Mayor Marshall D. McCormack, has ten months to serve, while Police Chief John Stamm will be released in five months.

EAST CHICAGO OFFICIALS DENY LIQUOR CHARGES

Mayor and Police Chief Testify at Trial.

Mayor Raleigh P. Hale and Chief of Police James Regan, the principal defendants in the East Chicago booze conspiracy trial at Hammond, presented their denials to all charges from the witness stand yesterday. The case appears likely to be in the hands of a jury by Saturday. Twenty defendants, eighteen defense lawyers, four government prosecutors, and a sprinkling of federal agents have been engaged in the hearing before Federal Judge Slick for eight days.

The mayor and the chief were star witnesses for each other yesterday, categorically denying that they had taken bootleg graft; had connived with saloonkeepers and vice lords, or even knew that two score bootleggers [the number arrested in a raid last August] were plying their trades in the town of 65,000 population. But, both shrugged, the police force was small, only sixty-four, and they did the best they could with it.

Hale First on Stand.

Hale, a practicing physician, was the first of the pair to settle himself on the stand. He worked hard as a witness for two hours, turning carefully so that the jury might hear the answers he made to Attorney C. B. Tinkham's questions, and speaking clearly and loudly.

His manner was humorously tolerant as he attempted to wave aside, with definite answers, all the implications in the damaging testimony a dozen government witnesses had directed against him.

Thus, he made the charge of his nephew, John Burhop, that he, Hale, had accepted $600 Burhop had collected from Mexican bootleggers, appear as the angry words of a man Hale had removed from the police force for plenteous reasons. The question, "Have you ever taken such money?" was answered by a thunderous, "Never!" And the implications of a former police captain, James Kirrin, who testified that he had been transferred because "he knew too much," was turned into the virtuous act of a public official who wouldn't permit his police to accept easy money.

Denies Every Charge.

Step by step, Dr. Hale calmly denied everything that had been said against him, but under the sharp staccato cross-examination of Special Assistant Attorney General Earl J. Davis, he lost some of his composure. Davis brought out that Hale had once gone into the resort of a notorious bootlegger, where, however, he said he hadn't taken a drink, and the additional fact that he had conferred, politically, with three Negro saloonkeepers and vice-lords.

Chief Regan, slower and less voluble in his address, followed Hale, denying that he had taken $500 from Nick Marovich to fix a liquor case or that he had connived with Nick Sudovich, booze lord, in the protection of Sudovich's liquor parlors.

Sudovich had never been in his office, he claimed, adding that almost 1,000 liquor search warrants had been issued at the request of his department in his five years in office.

Under cross-examination Mr. Davis brought out that Regan had appeared as a defense witness for Sudovich in a murder trial although the police chief maintained he did not know Sudovich's occupation.

Patrolman Ralph Hart and Patsy Ramey, former detective, followed Regan and denied testimony of government witnesses.

Chief of Detectives Martin Zarkovich was the last witness, asserting that he had not sent Bootlegger Marovich to Regan when the bootlegger was in trouble over a whisky seizure.

FREER HEIRESS IS DIVORCED BY ERNEST WILLSON

Ernest Russell Willson, an official of the Otis Elevator company, was granted a divorce decree yesterday by Superior Judge Williams from his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Freer Willson, 33 Bellevue place. The action, charging desertion, was brought secretly and was not revealed until the judge signed the decree.

Mrs. Willson is the daughter of Archibald E. Freer, wealthy retired head of the Tarrant Foundry company. She is a graduate of Bryn Mawr. Her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Everest Freer, is a talented musician, having written and produced an opera, "The Legend of the Piper." The mother has been a patron of Chicago opera and has taken an active part in women's club work. Willson is a graduate of Yale.

A Fashionable Wedding.

The Willsons were married on April 15, 1916, in a fashionable society wedding. They have three children, Edward F., 10 years old; Barbara Helen, 9, and Archibald Everest, 7. A fourth child, Jane, was drowned at a Wisconsin resort in 1921.

Willson charged that his wife left him on Jan. 1, 1926. The divorce had been expected for some time in social circles.

Willson filed his bill on Jan. 2. He was represented by the law firm of Sims, Godman and Stransky. Mrs. Willson filed an answer through Attorney Robert E. Cantwell Jr. The answer confessed desertion. The hearing was held two days after the filing of the bill and was conducted with secrecy.

Share Custody of Children.

Under the decree Mrs. Willson waived all claim to alimony and Willson waived all dower claims. His wife's father has an estate estimated at $5,000,000. Mrs. Willson was granted custody of the children for nine months out of each year, from Dec. 15 to Sept. 15. During the remaining three months the children will be in custody of the father. There was also a provision to allow the father custody of the children over alternate week-ends.

Mrs. Willson was given permission to select schools for the children, provided that the schools be in this country. She also was granted the right to take the children to Europe.

Too Much "Sonny"

Because her husband beat her when he became enraged at her repetition of the song "Sonny Boy," which she was practicing for vaudeville performances, Mrs. Marye velyn Baxter, 633 Deming place, yesterday won a divorce before Superior Judge Williams from her husband, William Hubert Baxter, an interior decorator. The Baxters were married April 19, 1923, and separated last July 28.

TIFFANY CLUB TO GIVE DINNER AT WAUKEGAN

In a formal opening of a campaign to elect Lester T. Tiffany sheriff of Lake county, the Lake County Tiffany for Sheriff club will hold a banquet in the Republican candidate's honor in the Waukegan Masonic temple Thursday evening. Dinner will be served from 6 to 8 p. m.

The campaign organization has invited all friends of Tiffany, who is at present chief of police of Lake Forest, to attend the banquet. Arrangements have been made for 1,000 guests, and speakers and representatives from all parts of Lake county are expected.

PUSSYFOOT CUTS LOOSE WITH NEW DRY LAW VIEWS

Answers Winston Churchill in London Paper.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 15.—In today's Daily Telegraph's letters to the editor, "Pussyfoot" Johnson, well-known dry advocate, addressed a brochure to the English public, explaining that the prohibition law of the United States is not meant to prevent people from having a drink, but only to legislate against any one selling it to them.

Mr. Johnson's letter was caused by the remarks of the former chancellor of the exchequer, Winston Church ill, who wrote in the Telegraph recently as follows:

"The attempt by legislation to prevent by the stroke of a pen 120,000,000 persons from drinking spirits, wine, or beer was the most amazing exhibition alike of the arrogance of the minority and of the impotence of the majority that the history of representative institutions can show."

Doubts Churchill's Mathematics.

The first statement to which Mr. Johnson takes exception is Mr. Churchill's mathematics, because he says only one-tenth of the American population drank before prohibition anyway, therefore prohibition does not prohibit anything for the remaining nine-tenths.

"The primary purpose of prohibition is not directly to prevent people from drinking," "Pussyfoot" continues. "That is only a by-product of the system. Any law telling the people what they can drink and what they cannot drink would be overwhelmingly defeated in America. I would fight against such a law myself. What a man eats or drinks is an individual act, so long as nobody is affected thereby. But when a man engages in the business of selling a thing that causes such a vast amount of trouble, society becomes directly and acutely affected and has the right and duty of protecting itself against unsocial acts.

Brings Out Comparison.

"Our laws against selling liquor rest exactly upon the same basis as our laws prohibition the selling of rotten meat and impure milk.

"Every law in the penal code of Great Britain is a prohibition law. If it is correct to prohibit murder, apparently it is equally correct to prohibit drinking."

"Pussyfoot" adds that "the principal Canadian cities in proportion to their population have from three to seven times the number of arrests for drunkenness as New York, the rottenest old dump we have in America. London has three times as many drunkenness arrests as New York."

STRAUS OFFICIAL KILLED IN N. Y. BY 9 STORY PLUNGE

H. S. Martin Ill for 18 Months.

New York, Jan. 14.—[Special]—Several hours before he was to sail for Europe for treatment for a nervous disorder, Herbert Spencer Martin, a wealthy business man was killed today when he fell or jumped from a window in his ninth floor apartment at 820 Park avenue.

Six and a half years ago Mr. Martin turned over his $1,000,000 undergarment manufacturing business to four of his employés, all of whom had worked with him for more than twenty years. He retained his position as vice president of S. W. Straus & Co., and president and treasurer of the Ambassador Hotels corporation which owns and operates hotels here, in Atlantic City, Los Angeles and Palm Beach.

Under Physician's Care.

A year and a half ago he became seriously ill and since that time he constantly has been under care of physicians, several times undergoing treatment in sanitariums. He finally decided to go to Europe to consult specialists. His wife, the former Madelon Straus, eldest daughter of the head of the banking house of which he was an officer, was to have accompanied him.

Mrs. Martin told the police that she and her husband went to the theater last night and on their return to their apartment on the eighth and ninth floors of the apartment building they finished their packing and retired shortly before 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Martin fell asleep. She was awakened two hours later by the ringing of the telephone. When she answered it an employé of the apartment house told her the body of her husband had been found in a courtyard beneath the window of her husband's room.

Hears Body Strike Pavement.

Mr. Martin's death was discovered when Albert Anderson, a watchman, passing the house, heard the body strike the pavement of the court, two floors below the street level.

Mrs. Martin said her husband often had difficulty getting to sleep, and that it was his habit in those circumstances to stand before an open window and breathe deeply. She thought he had become faint and fallen from the window.

Widow and Three Sons Survive.

Besides his widow Mr. Martin is survived by their three sons, Herbert Spencer Jr., 11; Stuard Barnes, 8, and John Maxwell, 2, and his mother and sister, Mrs. Matilda Martin and Mrs. Robert Isaac, both of New York. Mr. Martin was born in New York on April 12, 1883, and was educated at the Sach collegiate institute.

Beside his business interests he was active in philanthropic work. He was a large contributor to the Federation of Jewish Charities, and was honorary secretary of the Montefiore hospital.

CLARENCE FUNK WILL IS FILED; ESTATE MILLION

The will of Clarence S. Funk, who helped to bring about the ouster of William Lorimer from the United States senate 19 years ago, was filed yesterday with Probate Court Clerk Mitchell C. Robin. It leaves the bulk of his estate, estimated at $1,000,000, to his widow and two children.

After minor gifts to relatives the estate is to be divided into two equal parts. One is left outright to the widow, Mrs. Kathryn F. M. Funk, and the other is held in trust for the children, Mrs. Dorothy Guthrie and Donald S. Funk. The daughter is to receive the income of her share and at her death the principal will be divided among her children. The son receives half of his portion now and the remainder when he becomes 30 years old. The son is 28 years old.

Mr. Funk died on Jan. 6. The will was drawn July 1, 1919.

EXERCISE

AT THE SNAP OF A SWITCH

WOMEN find the Stimulator a marvelously enjoyable means of keeping the slenderness of youth. Busy men, in sedentary occupations, badly need its benefits to take the place of regular outdoor exercise. It makes the "daily dozen" a stimulating pleasure instead of an arduous task. The Graybar Stimulator has only one moving part—the motor. It has no gears. It is simplicity alone which makes this remarkably low price possible.

CAN HATREDS BE CURBED? NAVAL PARLEY PUZZLE

Envy of U. S. Also Plays Part in Dickering.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—When the 19 delegates of the five powers sit down at the horseshoe table on next Tuesday to open the historic conference on naval reduction they will represent a complex of national hatreds and rivalries which will be a Herculean task to disentangle.

There will be the French and Italians hating each other, and each fearing that the other will gain the slightest advantage in naval power in the Mediterranean. There will be the British and French, almost equally hating each other, and fearing the other will gain a superiority in power in the channel and the seas around their two coasts.

Americans Eye British.

The three will be united by fear and by dislike, envy and suspicion of America, and the Americans will be none too trustful of Great Britain, although their relations now are much better than they were before Prime Minister MacDonald's visit to America.

On the side lines will be Japan, anxious to preserve its hegemony of the far eastern Pacific and ready to fall in with any arrangement which, while satisfying the other powers, preserves its safety in that part of the world.

France seems to hold the whip hand in the preliminary sparring so far. America, Great Britain, and Japan seem fairly well agreed that battleships can be either scrapped or more likely gradually extinguished by adolescence. France and Italy do not care a twopenny curse about battleships. France insists on retaining submarines, which are a danger only to Great Britain and Italy, both of which would be glad to see them abolished, but there seems little chance of that, although it is possible the French may be compelled by a logical interpretation of its naval defense thesis to agree to a limitation of size.

Small Hope for Speedy End.

Japan also wants to retain submarines, but has already announced its willingness to limit the size so that they can be only regarded as defensive weapons. All of these conflicting aims give opportunity for endless intrigue and bargaining and offer little hope for a quick ending of the conference.

It is announced today that in deference to Secretary of State Stimson's wish to arrive here at the earliest possible moment the George Washington has been speeded up and will arrive at Plymouth at midnight Thursday. A special train for Mr. Stimson and a few members of the party leaves Plymouth at 2 a. m. Friday and will arrive in London before 9 a. m. Other members of the party will have to wait until about 8 a. m. before leaving Plymouth and will arrive in London about 2 p. m.

Fix Seating Arrangements.

The seating arrangements for the first plenary conference were announced today. King George will enter the royal gallery of the House of Lords at 11 a. m. after all the delegates are seated and will take a place in the middle of the table. On his right will be the French delegation and on his left the British. Next to the French will be Canada and Australia, and at the extreme right the Americans. To the left of the British will be India, Ireland, Italy, Japan, New Zealand and South Africa, and on the inner side of the table will be interpreters and official stenographers. Later sessions will be transferred from the House of Lords to St. James's palace.

The full list of delegates was announced today as follows:

United States — Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, Charles G. Dawes, ambassador to Great Britain; Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Belgium; Dwight W. Morrow, former ambassador to Mexico; Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy; Senator Joseph T Robinson of Arkansas, and Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania.

The British Delegates.

France — Premier Andre Tardieu; Aristide Briand, foreign minister; Georges Leygues, minister of marine.

Italy—Admiral Alfredo Acton, Sig. Bordonaro, Admiral Riani, and Sig. Dino Grandi, foreign minister.

Japan—Tsuneo Matsudaira, Admiral Takarabe, and Raijiro Wakatsuki.

Canada—Col. J. L. Ralston, minister of national defense; Australia, James E. Fenton, minister for trade and customs; India, Sir A. Chatterjee, high commissioner; Irish Free State, Patrick McGilligan, minister for external affairs; New Zealand, T. M. Wilford, minister of justice and defense: south Africa high commissioner, Mr. Walter.

British Cabinet Hears Policy.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Presiding over a cabinet council today, Prime Minister MacDonald outlined the British policy for the forthcoming naval disarmament conference in a final statement to his colleagues before the opening of the sessions Jan. 21. Precisely what the British policy is remains a little vague in the mind of the British public.

Hhe broad lines of Mr. MacDonald's plans may be announced before the conference opens, possibly tomorrow when he will discuss the conference as a while with British and foreign newspaper correspondents whom he has invited to the foreign office.

The finishing touches to the commodious headquarters of the American delegation were made today under the direction of Lammot F. Belin, first secretary of the embassy. Ambassador Hugh Gibson, arriving from Brussels tonight, will be the first of the chief delegates to occupy one of the numerous suites of offices which take up almost three floors of one of London's finest hotels.

London can boast of housing two American embassies during the conference, one in Grosvenor Gardens and the other in the Ritz. Each is an independent organization communicating direct with Washington. Ambassador Dawes will act as liaison officer between them.

U. S. Vessel Pushes On.

S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—(AP)—With good sailing weather forecast the George Washington pushed eastward at increased speed today in an effort to land the American naval delegation at Plymouth as early as possible Friday.

A spirit of conciliation and patience will be urged by Henry L. Stimson in his address at the British government's dinner conference next Monday night when the American secretary of state will be the principal speaker.

Secretary Stimson has already completed a large part of the speech, but is not expected to conclude it until after further consultations with his colleagues at the five power naval conference and other important personages in London.

The address will be devoted to the ambitions of the conference to further peace through limitations of navies. It appeared certain tonight that Mr. Stimson would not touch on individual issues between various countries, such as those between France and Italy, nor make any announcement of policy.

To Stress Sense of Insecurity.

It is his feeling that such announcements at the outset of the parley immediately offer grounds for opposition and criticism, making achievement of the aims of the conference more difficult. The sense of security prevailing since the signature of the Washington treaty, with its consequent reduction in international irritations, will be touched upon.

Another point which the secretary expects to stress is the sense of insecurity that comes from too little means of defense and neighbors' feeling of insecurity through too much defense. Finding a mutually satisfactory medium on these points is felt by Mr. Stimson to be the object of the conference.

SENATE ACTION ON U. S. ADHERENCE TO WORLD COURT TO BE DELAYED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Present indications are that President Hoover will not ask the senate to ratify American adherence to the world court during the present session of congress. Such a policy would automatically delay senate action on this revised protocol, signed by President Hoover, for a year, and possibly longer.

Administration leaders have found several reasons for not acting on the protocol at this session of congress. One is the fact that Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson and two members of the senate are in London at the naval reduction conference. Secretary Stimson is one of the President's closest advisers on the world court matter, and his presence is desired in Washington while it is under discussion. Mr. Stimson undoubtedly would be expected to present the administration case for the court before the foreign relations committee.

Senators David A. Reed [Rep., Pa.] and Joseph T. Robinson [Dem., Ark.] are with the American delegation in London. Senator Reed is a strong administration supporter, and Mr. Robinson, Democratic floor leader, is an advocate of American adherence to the court.

The fact that Ambassador Dwight Morrow, another member of the American delegation, is to be appointed a member of the senate when he returns has also been considered by administration supporters of the court.

With Stimson, Reed, Robinson, and Morrow in Washington, advocates of American adherence believe the chances for senate approval would be improved.

GERMANS AGREE TO TAKE STOCK IN WORLD BANK

Schacht Bows in Quarrel Over Reparations.

BY JAY ALLEN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

THE HAGUE, Jan. 14.—Prof. Paul Moldenhauer, German minister of finance, tonight wrote a letter to the French finance minister, Henri Cheron, making a formal promise that the Reichsbank will participate in the financing of the world bank for the handling of reparations payments under the Young plan. Adoption of the plan now seems assured.

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Reichsbank president, still fuming over his failure to defeat the bank statutes, as amended by the allies, declared to the German press:

"I felt the only way to make the world respect the integrity of the Reichsbank was for the Reichsbank to refuse to enter into this immoral agreement. But I am bound by international agrement, and I must respect German law or emigrate. I will resign only if I am wrong. I will not resign to please anybody."

Schacht Saves His Face.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

With astonishing dexterity the clever Schacht managed to precipitate a solution for the crisis of his own making, and at the same time save his face.

Amid his frothings with indignation he is congratulating himself on having forced the German cabinet to father a law which will be submitted to the Reichstag requiring Germany's bank of issue to subscribe its share of the superbank's capital as provided by the Young plan.

Dr. Schacht brought this solution about in the following manner.

He gave out the interview saying that his personal convictions and indignation prevented him from agreeing to such a participation, but adding that if forced to do so by competent authorities, he would, like the good German that he is, swallow his feelings and obey.

Curtius Acts on Hint.

This statement immediately got to Julius Curtius, German foreign minister, who was quick to seize upon the point that Dr. Schacht was in reality asking to be made to be good. So the solution of legislation prescribing the Reichsbank's duties to the superbank, was evolved.

ACCUSES WIFE OF DEATH PLOT; ASKS DIVORCE

James A. Fields, a mail truck driver, 2525 North Tripp avenue, yesterday filed a bill for divorce in the Superior court charging that his wife had plotted to kill him to obtain his insurance of $17,000.

Fields and his wife, Mary Belle, were married on May 26, 1924. He left her last Dec. 23 when he overheard a conversation on a crossed wire between his wife and two hoodlums, plotting his death, according to the bill. Fields declares that his wife was giving the men a sketch of his mail collection route so that they could crash into his light truck with a much heavier truck at some point and cause his death.

The bill says Mrs. Fields had persuaded him to take out insurance policies totaling $17,000. Fields, through his attorney, Harry X. Cole, asks that the wife be enjoined from attempts to kill him. The bill also charges Mrs. Fields with habitual drunkenness. It declares that she spent all the household funds for gin.

America and Latvia Sign Treaty of Arbitration

RIGA, Latvia, Jan. 14.—(AP)—A treaty of arbitration and conciliation between Latvia and the United States was signed today by Foreign Minister Balodis and American Minister Coleman.

STRATTON TELLS OF ECONOMIES IN STATE OFFICE

New standards have been established in the handling of public funds by Secretary of State Stratton, according to an informal report issued by his office yesterday. The secretary, according to this statement, not only has produced a new source of revenue for the state by collecting and turning over interest on revenue from automobile licenses and other sources, but has established a system of surety bonds which protects the state against any possible losses.

Another point to which the statement attaches importance was the fact that funds received from Cook county now are deposited in Chicago banks and downstate receipts go to downstate banks. Under Mr. Stratton's predecessors, it is said, all the receipts of the secretary's office found their way to a single downstate bank which paid no interest.

The report also states that the receipts of the department in 1929 were $1,960,764 greater than they were in 1928—the total for the former year being $17,087,209—and that this greater volume of business was handled with no increase in the number of employes.

KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN.

7 Hours in Bed and Not 7 Minutes of Sleep!
The Toll Acidity Takes
You go to bed dog-tired, but the minute you hit the pillow all sleepiness vanishes. If you do sleep at all, it's only in snatches and you wake out of these "stupors" with a strange, startled feeling, sometimes in a cold sweat. Morning finds you a rag, gaunt and hollow-eyed and barely able to crawl out of bed.
Acidity is due to our unnatural eating habits, our excessive smoking and irregular hours. The excess acid upsets digestion and causes acid-indigestion with gas and heartburn. It causes putrefaction and fermentation in the gastro-intestinal canal which, frequently results in ragged nerves, sleeplessness, loggy days and general loss of strength and vitality.
A remarkable new corrective of acidity has been developed by a famous 100 year old pharmaceutical house in Germany. As an acid corrective it begins where bicarbonate of soda leaves off. This new, improved magnesia comes in the form of small white tablets called Magnesia Oxoids, which do not have to be chewed, but which may be swallowed whole. Magnesia Oxoids, upon contact with the acid in the stomach, generate nascent, or active, oxygen! Now, active oxygen, as any doctor will tell you, when generated within the digestive tract does just the things required for acidity. It stimulates the secretion of the alkaline mucus. It checks the putrefaction and fermentation in the gastro-intestinal canal. It exercises a stimulating effect upon the activities of the intestinal walls and aids the movement of the bowels.
All three effects are necessary to the true relief of acidity and Magnesia Oxoids supply them in a perfect natural manner.
5-Day Acid Test
To ascertain just how "acid" you are, make this 5-day acid test. Get a bottle of Magnesia Oxoids from your druggist or any other druggist on our money-back guarantee. Take two after each meal for five days. Mark the change in your physical condition—note how much more sound and restful your sleep and how much more cheerful and active your days. If you don't sleep better and have more "pep" and power, return the balance of the Magnesia Oxoids to the druggist and he will refund your money.

LEAGUE AIMS TO BAN WARS WITH KELLOGG PACT

Plan to Use Treaty for Teeth in Covenant.

BY ROBERT SAGE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Jan. 14.—The anthem of peace was warbled so feelingly this morning by Geneva's star trio, that unforeseen circumstances cropped up and a committee of eleven members will be set to work within the next five weeks to find a means of plugging the Kellogg peace pact irrevocably into the league of nations covenant for acceptance by the assembly next September.

The melodious bass of England was represented by Foreign Minister Arthur Henderson, who carried the air of the peace hymn, with the veteran Foreign Minister Briand of France singing a melodious tenor, and the German newcomer, Dr. Von Schubert, chiming in here and there with a weak but willing baritone.

The Clause on War.

As a result of the efforts of the trio, it now appears that articles 12 and 15 of the covenant will be subjected to an amendment before the end of the year. In its present form, article 12 specifies that league members can only resort to war three months after a judicial decision of the difficulties has been rendered by the arbitration board, or a report has been given the league council.

Article 15 tacitly admits the legality of warfare, when peaceful means fail. In dressed up form, both articles would brand war, under any circumstances, as a definite breach of league obligations, to which all members have sworn.

In his proposed amendment to the covenant, in the light of the Kellogg pact, Mr. Henderson points out that league members at present are bound by two sets of obligations—the league covenant and the Kellogg pact.

Aims at Private Wars.

"The covenant, which was drawn up in 1919, left cases where the right of a private war in certain circumstances continues," the British foreign minister stated, "while as a result of the Kellogg pact, no members of the league can resort to war under any circumstances. In our belief it is not desirable to leave league members under these two different sets of obligations. We want, therefore, to bring them into harmony with each other by taking out of the covenant those rights to a private war, which are now obsolete."

"The pact of Paris had its effect in strongly denouncing wars and criminality before the whole world and showing that it was indispensable and should be shunned with horror," M. Briand said. "It is a fact that in the past, although everybody disapproved of warfare, it was considered a legal act under certain circumstances. In drawing up the Paris pact, however, we believed that the time had come to tell the world that war was a crime and had to be resorted to under no circumstances.

"I believed this act in full harmony with the views of the league. It seems to me the committee should not only find a means of condemning war, but of producing the impossibility of its ever coming to life again. They should find other means, than words, for blocking this frightful thing."

In response to the eloquent peace verses of Mr. Henderson and M. Briand, the German representative replied briefly:

"I only desire to state that my government attaches special importance to the solution of this problem and that I support M. Briand's views."

THE TRIBUNE CONTEST OF INTERESTING LETTERS

Every morning The Tribune prints a photograph of the stamp and postmark and the name and address of the recipient of a letter from an interesting or little known place, with a map showing its origin and a brief word of description.

If you have received a letter from an interesting or little known place send the envelope to The Tribune. The sender of every envelope which is reproduced will be paid one dollar.

From Martinique

Martinique is an island of the West Indies belonging to France and is best remembered as the scene of the great disaster of St. Pierre in May, 1902, when by an overwhelming eruption of Mont Pelee the entire town was engulfed in flame and lava, causing a loss of life estimated at 40,000. One-tenth of the island, which comprises 380 square miles, was devastated, causing a loss of upwards of $20,000,000.

The discovery of the island is credited to Columbus in 1502, though some authorities place the date in 1493. France has been in possession since 1635—except for three brief periods in the latter part of the eighteenth century and early in the nineteenth century when the British seized it but each time surrendering it to France, the last evacuation being in 1814.

Martinique's most historic figure is Empress Josephine, Napoleon's first consort. She was born on the island in 1763, the eldest of three daughters of Joseph Tascher de la Pagerie, a lieutenant of artillery in the French army. As the wife of the Vicente de Beauharnais, a young officer, she reached Paris. Her husband was executed during the revolution. Napoleon met her in 1795, when as a dazzling young widow she had become one of the queens of Parisian society. Their marriage followed in 1796 two days before Bonaparte set out for his command of the army of Italy.

INDIANA FLOODS DRIVE FAMILIES OUT OF HOMES

Relief Work Is Organized at Vincennes.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Anticipating continued rise in the flood swollen Wabash river at Vincennes, where a stage of 23.1 feet was registered late today, warnings were sent to families in lowlands to leave their homes tonight. Experienced river men said the Wabash probably will go to 26 feet. In the disastrous 1913 flood it rose to 24.

J. M. Kimmell, mayor of Vincennes, issued a statement tonight in which he asked the residents of Vincennes and Knox counties to coöperate in every way with agencies of relief. H. B. Williamson, national representative of the American Red Cross, arrived from Washington. Lydia Bigelow, field representative for the Red Cross in Indiana, also reported for duty at Vincennes.

Dam Break Causes Rise.

The river started rising at Vincennes again today after receding temporarily last night following a break in the dam several miles north of here. The Ohio river valley near Vincennes also is covered with flood water, and damage has been considerable. Many farm homes are surrounded by water and schools closed.

Washington, Ind., tonight reported both forks of White river nearing the 1913 flood stage. Bedford reported heavy damage in the lowlands, with the city water pumping station in danger of inundation. Families at Fort Tiner, Tunnelton, and Williams were forced to move. Washouts blocked the Illinois Central railroad in Brown county.

Other Cities Alarmed.

Bluffton reported the Wabash has risen 1.5 feet in twelve hours and still is rising. Wabash reported families in lowlands have been removed from second stories in boats. Peru, a 1913 flood center, viewed the rising waters in Wabash and Mississinewa rivers with misgiving, since reports from upstream meant a higher flood level at Peru.

A break in the levee near Emison, north of Vincennes, resulted in flooding approximately 20,000 acres of bottom land between Emison and Oaktown. A break in the Lyford levee, near Clinton, north of Terre Haute, caused the river to spread over 10,000 acres.

Illinois Land Inundated.

Centralia, Ill., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Rapidly rising waters in many streams, the results of almost incessant rainfall for the last week, proved a serious menace to many southern Illinois communities today, and drove some families from their homes in Vandalia and vicinity.

More than 60,000 acres of fertile farm land in the bottoms was inundated when the levee north of Vandalia on the Kaskaskia river gave way today. Much of the corn crop which has not been husked is under water.

Rain ceased at Mount Carmel today, but the Wabash river passed the stage of 26 feet and the weather bureau there predicted a stage of 28 feet for the crest. More families living along the river moved out today after remaining in their homes as long as possible.

Ohio Families Marooned.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Several hundred families at Ottawa, O., and Mechanicsburg, O., tonight were marooned in their homes as water surrounded the towns. Elsewhere in Ohio flood conditions were abating.

Two Die in California.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Two men were found frozen to death today in California, as the United States Weather bureau here predicted a lull in the storms which have swept all parts of the state.

MRS. McCORMICK DECLARES TARIFF ROW ECONOMIC Insists Eastern Senators Don't Know West.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Robinson, Ill., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Tariff making as an urgent issue in solving the farm problem was emphasized today by Ruth Hanna McCormick by the second day of her campaigning for the United States senate. She argued that the present debate in the senate is a division between the industrial and agricultural regions and that the coalition between southern Democrats and radical Republicans is the fruit of changed economic conditions, not party politics.

Audiences in Paris, Marshall, and Robinson gave evidence that the farm question is uppermost in their minds. Today's tour was into a region of the Wabash river, where corn growers have experienced three or four tough years. Talk outside the courthouses after the meetings was that the problem of agriculture is what the voters in these parts are interested in most. The world court and the league of nations issue ran second in audience interest, with indications that when the campaign swings into high it will rage hotly, as it did seven years ago and three years ago.

Follow Economic Pressure.

One big trouble among the tariff makers at Washington, Mrs. McCormick declared, is the lack of knowledge of western farm conditions among the eastern industrial states. Senators from western farming states who were styled "sons of the wild jackass" by Senator George H. Moses [Rep., N. H.] are merely following economic, not political, pressures, Mrs. McCormick set forth without mentioning the "jackass" appelation.

"The debate in the senate," said Mrs. McCormick, "illustrates how economic conditions have changed in the country since the last tariff was enacted. There is talk of the coalition of radical Republicans with Democrats, but this has nothing what ever to do with party lines. We have grown so rapidly and our industry has developed to such size in a comparatively short time that eastern representatives in congress have not kept pace with the development in the middle and far west. It is difficult to readjust their point of view when it comes to writing a tariff bill.

"You will find Democratic senators from southern farming states voting with Senators Borah, Brookhart, La Follette, Howell, and Norris and others from western agricultural states. In southern states which have had an accession of industries you will find Democrats voting with industrial Pennsylvania. The line is drawn between industrialism and agriculture.

The Bread Basket Region.

"Eastern representatives claim they represent farming interests, but they fail to understand how different the situation is out in the great bread basket region. Men like Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, brilliant men, have no more conception of what an Illinois farm is like than the man in the moon, let alone a North Dakota wheat farm or an Idaho ranch.

"The fighting now is to hold the fort for agriculture as against industrialism. Men from the big eastern industrial states, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and New England are naturally more concerned with the industrial schedules while at the same time those from the far west take the side of agriculture. At the same time, no senator would be worthy of his seat if he allowed himself to become so ardent in supporting agriculture that he would lose sight of the fact we must protect our industries.

Bill Must Be Compromise.

"Inevitably the bill must be a compromise, we should raise the agricultural industry up to the levels of other industries, remembering that unless the farmer receives his share of the profits his ability to purchase, the manufactured article is inevitably reduced. We must raise the tariff walls for industry so far as to protect, but not exclude our foreign commerce."

Mrs. McCormick touched briefly on the Illinois waterway issue, reserving it for fuller discussion later.

A NOTABLE DISPLAY OF DISTINGUISHED MODERN MOTOR CARS WILL BE PRESENTED AT THE LINCOLN

METROPOLITAN SALON

AT THE LINCOLN SHOWROOM OF THE FORD MOTOR COMPANY 2440 S. MICHIGAN AVENUE, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS JANUARY 15th TO 24th

FOR NINE YEARS the Lincoln has been known as one of the finest cars built anywhere in the world. Its name has stood for superb engineering and beauty of appearance. That tradition has been scrupulously maintained. Today the Lincoln is a better, more beautiful automobile than it has ever been.

The purpose of the Lincoln Metropolitan Salon is to bring to this city once a year the latest examples of distinguished custom coachmaking and the most modern developments in automotive engineering. This is your opportunity to see for yourself to what an extraordinary degree the craft of fine automobile making has been brought. The Lincoln appeals most strongly to those discriminating people who appreciate the highest achievements in motor car mechanism and body design.

The cars you will see are representative of the skill of the country's leading custom coachmakers—Judkins, Willoughby, LeBaron, Brunn, Dietrich and others. A number of the body types which have recently been added to the Lincoln line are making their first appearance in this city. Others represent the latest refinements made on body types which have everywhere been acclaimed as consummate achievements in the coachbuilders' art. In a sense, this is more than a Lincoln exhibit—it is a presentation of the finest work done by the foremost custom coachmakers in the industry.

You will be interested in the mechanical exhibits which give an insight into the Lincoln methods of precision craftsmanship in building fine motor cars. You will see a set of the famous Johansson gages, accurate to four-millionths of an inch, which make possible the delicate precision in machining and adjusting all parts of the Lincoln mechanism. An exhibit of Lincoln parts, finished with the utmost possible precision, will show you the practical results of this painstaking method of production.

You will also see a copper-plated display chassis, a cutaway motor, an aluminum body, a rear axle assembly, and other interesting mechanical exhibits.

The body types displayed will include the Phaeton, Sport Touring, 5-passenger Coupe, Judkins Berline, Locke Club Roadster, Willoughby Limousine, Dietrich Convertible Sedan, Dietrich Convertible Coupe, Willoughby Town Sedan, Standard 7-passenger Sedan, 7-passenger Limousine, Judkins Coupe.

CARAWAY CALLS SUGAR LOBBIES A $400,000 GRAFT

Declares Business Men's Money Wasted.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Tariff lobbyists, in particular those of the sugar interests, were depicted today by Senator T. H. Caraway [Dem., Ark.] as a set of "grafters, fattening upon the donations of credulous business men, who might as well give their money to a palm reader or a crystal gazer."

Caraway assailed the lobby crowd in presenting to the senate a report of the inquiry of the lobby investigation committee, of which he is chairman, into the activities of sugar interests on the pending tariff bill. The report denounced both the low and high sugar lobbyists, estimating that together they have raised more than $400,000 in their campaigns to influence congressmen.

Sugar Debate to End.

Late today, after receiving the Caraway report, the senate agreed to wind up its debate on the sugar schedule at noon Thursday. At that time it will vote on the Harrison amendment to retain present duties.

"I hope that responsible business men will cease paying tribute to these lobbyists, the grafters in the District of Columbia, who have nothing to sell," Senator Caraway asserted in his speech to the senate.

"The whole matter is nothing but simple graft. It's worse than that, because it plays upon the public and undermines the confidence of the American people in the integrity of their government. People must believe that legislation is bought and sold in Washington and peddled like any commodity. They might just as well go to a palm reader or crystal gazer, as give their money to lobbyists."

Hoover Is Exonerated.

The Caraway report listed the expenditures of those urging a higher sugar tariff at $175,000 to $200,000, specifying the Domestic Sugar Producers' association as their agent and the expenditures of those opposing a high tariff at $200,000 to $225,000. A committee composed of H. C. Lakin, George A. Zabriskie, and Edwin P. Shattuck handled the money for the latter group.

"A particularly reprehensible part of the program carried on by Lakin was an effort to stir up hostility to the United States in Latin American countries upon the assumption that it, by its tariff policy, was mistreating Cuba," the report stated.

Shattuck was employed by Lakin because of his personal friendship with President Hoover, the report pointed out, but Shattuck denied that he had ever talked with the President about the tariff. The committee added that it found "no impropriety nor anything open to censure or criticism" on the part of the President.

3 MORE NOMINATED CENSUS SUPERVISORS FOR COOK CO. AREA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—The names of three additional persons nominated for supervisors of the 1930 census in Cook county were announced today by Senator Charles S. Deneen [Rep., Ill.]. They are: J. E. Vesely, 1910 Ridgeland avenue, Berwyn; John R. Malmquist, 801 North Taylor street, Oak Park, and R. L. Goodman, 1524 Clifton Park avenue, Chicago. The name of Mrs. Martin Kent Northam of Evanston, the only Cook county woman supervisor, had been announced previously.

WORK IS BEGUN ON PLANS FOR NEW POSTOFFICE

Work on plans for Chicago's new $14,000,000 postoffice was started yesterday by Graham, Anderson, Probst & White, architects. The completed plans will be sent to Washington for approval of Frank E. McMillan, treasury department engineer.

The new building, which will be bounded by Clinton, Harrison, Canal, and Polk streets, will be nine stories high and 800 feet long by 300 feet wide. The roof will be flat, so constructed that it may be converted into an airplane landing platform, Mr. McMillan said.

Final specifications for the building were decided on at a meeting between Mr. McMillan, Postmaster Lueder, and Assistant Postmaster C. P. Scheel last Friday. Six floors of the new structure will be used by the postoffice department and the other three will be turned over to other government offices, it was determined.

Court Tells Undertaker of Last Chance to Collect

"You can go to the cemetery where the body is buried and take the shroud from the corpse, remove the coffin, and leave the body to the tender mercies of the Almighty," Superior Judge David yesterday told I. J. Zolt, undertaker at 1646 West 46th street, who was in court to collect a funeral debt. Zolt was complaining that Mrs. Marie Pett, 1630 North Merrimac avenue, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Courtney Pett, had failed to pay $745 for the funeral of their son and husband, John Pett. Pett died last April 27 and is buried in St. Casimir's cemetery.

Broadway Stars pass merciless CLOSE-UP TEST

Like 9 out of 10 screen stars, they have long kept their skin at its best with Lux Toilet Soap . . .

GERTRUDE LAWRENCE (Candle Light) says: "I'm enthusiastic about it."

MARILYN MILLER (Sally) says: "It keeps my skin satin-smooth."

BEATRICE LILLIE, delightful comedienne, is devoted to Lux Toilet Soap.

CLAUDETTE COLBERT (See Naples and Die) "Keeps my skin so smooth!"

WINNIE LIGHTNER says: "It cares for my skin so perfectly! I love it."

BOBBE ARNST says: "It is certainly a marvelously delicate soap."

RUTH CHATTERTON, much beloved star, says: "Lux Toilet Soap leaves one's skin so smooth!"

MARY EATON, charming star, says: "Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin always beautifully fine and smooth."

THE moment the talkies "arrived," many of the most famous stars of the Broadway stage were signed by the great motion picture studios. Then, under the glare from the huge incandescent close-up lights, they faced the cruelest test a skin can possibly meet.

Unless their skin showed alluringly smooth and fine on the screen, they could scarcely hope to "get across" in talking and singing pictures.

These Broadway stars passed the test, needless to say. Theirs was the flawlessly smooth skin demanded for the innumerable close-ups of sound pictures. And never were they more appreciative of the gentle care Lux Toilet Soap has given their skin.

For long ago the famous women of the theater made Lux Toilet Soap their own. Long ago it was made the official soap in 71 of the 74 legitimate theaters in New York alone—and in other leading theaters throughout the country.

Hollywood found out years ago that no girl ever becomes a motion picture star unless her skin shows perfect on the screen. That is why, of the 521 important actresses in Hollywood, including all stars, 511 are devoted to Lux Toilet Soap. It keeps the skin lovely and smooth as a flower petal.

It was at the request of the actresses themselves that all the great film studios have made this white, delicately fragrant soap official in their dressing rooms.

You will be delighted with Lux Toilet Soap, too! You can keep your skin attractively clear and smooth just as the famous women of the stage and screen keep theirs—by using it. And it does lather so very generously, even in the hardest water! Order several cakes—today.

LENORE ULRIC (The Sandy Hooker): "It keeps my skin always exquisitely smooth."

HELEN MORGAN (Sweet Adeline) says: "—a wonderfully satisfactory soap."

ANN PENNINGTON, adorable star, says: "I wouldn't be without this lovely white soap!"

JOAN BENNETT says: "Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin so smooth. It is certainly a joy!"

JEANETTE MACDONALD says: "I consider it a real find. It keeps my skin lovely."

HELEN CHANDLER says: "I'm devoted to Lux Toilet Soap. It's delightful!"

NORMA LEE says: "It is so soothing and it leaves your skin just like velvet."

HELEN KANE says: "Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin so very softly smooth and clear."

DELAY HEARING ON FEEDER BUS PLEA TILL JAN. 28

Following brief discussion yesterday, the Illinois commerce commission postponed until Jan. 28 the further hearing of the Chicago Surface Lines' proposal to establish a trackless trolley feeder bus service in Diversey parkway and Belmont avenue.

Frequent clashes between the legal representatives of the Chicago Motor Coach company and the surface lines marked the hearing before the commerce commission, sitting in Chicago. Women, representing improvement clubs on the northwest side, took sides with the attorneys. Delegations of homeowners occupied seats in the spectators' section while their children played about in the conference room. At several former hearings these delegations testified they want the motor coach service replaced with the feeder bus system proposed by the surface lines. Fares on the feeder buses would be 7 cents.

Would Abandon Lines.

Attorney James G. Condon, representing the coach company, said the company would abandon its bus service on 14 miles of streets on the northwest side if the Illinois commerce commission should approve the feeder bus plan.

Mr. Condon said such an action would affect approximately 28,000 passengers who use the motor bus service daily. The service affected would include that on Belmont avenue between Laramie and Diversey avenues and Narragansett avenue; Diversey between Crawford and Wrightwood avenues and Narragansett avenue; Central avenue between Lexington street and Lawrence avenue; Laramie avenue between Washington boulevard and Elston avenue; Central Park avenue between Franklin boulevard and Peterson avenue; Narragansett avenue between Austin and North avenues, and Irving Park boulevard and Harlem avenue.

On the west side, Attorney Condon pointed out, the bus service on Hamlin avenue between 14th street and Fifth street and the service on 14th street between Independence boulevard and Kilbourn avenue would be eliminated.

Sets Loss at $348,000.

"The losses of the Chicago Motor Coach company on the northwest side lines since Oct. 3, 1928, has approximated $348,000," said Mr. Condon.

"During 1929 the losses were $210,000 and the current losses would be greatly increased if the Diversey and Belmont lines were taken out of the service."

Mr. Condon demanded that the surface lines within 10 days submit proof as to their ability to finance and install the feeder service.

This request brought the reply from Attorney Harry P. Weber that the $21,000 necessary to start surface line feeder service is available.

"Most of the motor coach extensions have been operating at a deficit and now the officials of the motor coach company would like to unload them," Mr. Weber said. "That is the principal reason the company is at tempting to palm off these extensions by making an issue of the proposed feeder buses in Diversey and Belmont."

Ald. Thomas Bowler [41st] declared the Chicago Motor Coach company was motivated by a desire to sell its transportation system in the contemplated city wide surface-elevated-subway consolidation. He said the coach company and the surface lines were hindering transportation in the outlying sections of the city to compel a favorable vote for a traction ordinance.

RUSSIAN AT TOP OF WORLD TALKS TO BYRD NEAR THE SOUTH POLE

MOSCOW, Jan. 14.—(AP)—A wireless triumph over time and space was achieved on Dec. 1 by Ivan Krenkel, chief Russian radio operator in Franz Josef land, when he talked for more than an hour with Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd at the south pole.

Krenkel, the man at the top of the world, says that he communicated with Rear Admiral Byrd at the bottom of it on a short wave length of 41 meters over a distance of nearly 15,000 miles. The wireless station in Franz Josef Land is the northernmost radio outpost in the world, lying far north of the arctic circle.

In a message today to the newspaper Izvestia Krenkel said that Admiral Byrd asked news of the missing American flyer Eielson, lost over northeastern Siberia, and talked about weather conditions in the antarctic. Krenkel gave him the arctic weather news and exchanged greetings with the members of the expedition.

W. POINT DROPS DE PRIEST'S LONE NEGRO CADET

West Point, N. Y., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—The United States Military academy's only Negro cadet was found deficient in mathematics and honorably discharged from the corps of cadets today. He was the fourteenth Negro to enter the academy and the eleventh to leave it at the end of the first six months. Three have been graduated.

With sixty-four other men who also failed in the "Christmas writs," the Negro cadet, Alonzo Souleigh Parham of Chicago, left tonight for his home. He was appointed by Oscar De Priest, Negro congressman.

The dismissal of Parham did not come as a surprise, for he has been deficient in mathematics since the beginning of the academic year in September. He entered the school July 1 and during the summer months received purely military instruction, at which, officers said, he was very apt.

Entrance Caused Comment.

The entrance of Parham into the academy caused a great deal of comment throughout the country, as did Congressman De Priest's announcement at the time that he intended to name another Negro next year, as well as two members of his race for the naval academy.

At West Point, officers and all instructors took particular pains to accord Parham the same treatment as any other cadet. When De Priest went to the academy to visit his appointee he declared that Parham was satisfied.

Shortly after he entered the academy, Parham, with the 385 other members of his class, took a test in various academic subjects which was more a guide to instructors than anything else. In that test Parham received a grade in the thirties on his mathematics papers. The class average was above sixty.

Cadets who are deficient in any subject may, by applying, receive extra instruction at no expense.

Cadet Parham applied for added instruction in mathematics, but dropped it after a week.

That another Negro cadet will be appointed was indicated by an Associated Press Washington dispatch which quoted Representative De Priest.

De Priest said that he understood Parham had sixty days in which to make up his credits.

"Of course, I may be mistaken," he said, "but if my appointee is definitely discharged, I shall appoint another colored boy."

Says He Got Square Deal.

Weehawken, N. J., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Arriving here with other cadets, dismissed from West Point today for deficiency in studies, Alonzo S. Parham tonight indicated he has not decided whether to exercise his privilege of taking an examination next March in an attempt to re-enter the academy.

"I must confer with Representative De Priest," he said, "and my father."

RED TAPE CUT; VICTIM OF LAW FREED FROM JAIL

Massey Sent Back to His Downstate Home.

Harry Massey, the carpenter from El Paso, Ill., who has been held a prisoner in the county jail though he was exonerated by a coroner's jury on a charge of manslaughter, was shown yesterday that the technicalities of the law can be cut through and a man released.

Attorneys Harold Levy and Emmett Byrne, both former "ace" prosecutors of the state's attorney's staff came to the rescue of the bewildered Massey with a writ of habeas corpus. Judge John J. Sullivan issued the writ and cut the $10,000 bond to $1,000. Nathan Schechter, 1420 South Turner avenue, a restaurant keeper, who was interested in the case by the attorneys, supplied the necessary bond.

As a result Massey was free for the first time since he came to Chicago 10 days ago to visit his dying cousin, George Hunt, high school athlete who received a spinal injury in a football game last October and who had been brought to Chicago for surgical attention.

Attorneys Give Services.

Massey's first act on being released was to make a long distance telephone call to his fellow citizens at El Paso. Attorneys Levy and Byrne volunteered their services, they said, to right a wrong to a stranger in Chicago, and the bondsman joined in the charity act.

The attorneys will appear again as volunteer counsel when Massey's case is to come up for final disposition this morning before Judge William Helander in the felony court. They will replace Assistant United State's District Attorney Henry Balaban, who had been appearing in the case and was reported to have expected a fee of $250. Attorney Balaban, however, said yesterday that the El Paso citizens promised him a fee, but that he never set any price.

Massey's "crime," for which he has been in prison ten days, consisted in being a passenger on a truck as he entered Chicago. The truck was proceeding in Ogden avenue, keeping in the street car tracks to avoid the snow, when William Vorbrula, a Surface Lines supervisor, jumped on the running board and ordered the truck driver to pull over to the side of the street.

Return Verdict of Accident.

Vobrula either fell or jumped off the running board and then slipped and fell beneath the truck. A coroner's jury on Saturday held that the death was accidental. The police, however, had placed an independent charge of manslaughter against Massey and the driver and he was being kept in jail until his case would be reached in the slow routine of the courts, when Attorneys Levy and Byrne and Judge Sullivan came to his rescue yesterday.

Meanwhile Hunt, the injured boy, had been taken back to a Pontiac, Ill., hospital to die.

TWO LOST AIRMEN'S BODIES FOUND; THEIR PLANE HAD HIT TREE

New York, Jan. 14.—[Special.]—The long search by air, sea, and land for Daniel Marra and William Kirkpatrick, who took off from Farmingdale, L. I., last Friday morning on what was to have been a brief altitude test flight of their Fairchild monoplane, ended today in the finding of the wrecked plane and the bodies of the two young aviators.

The Associated Press reported that a search party came on the wreck by the shore of Lake Amston, a small body of water near Amston village in the northeastern part of the state. Apparently the flyers, their small supply of gasoline exhausted in the blind battle with the fog which hid their starting point from them, had attempted to bring their ship down in a field bordering the lake.

To do so, they must have skimmed closely over the trees of the heavily wooded tract adjoining the clearing. The plane crashed against an oak at the edge of the field, turned over, and caught fire.

One of the men was pinned in the wreckage and his body was burned beyond recognition. The second man appeared to have been hurled clear of the débris by the crash.

Weather conditions were bad when Marra and Kirkpatrick went aloft Friday morning. It was foggy and aloft a brisk wind was blowing out to sea. More than forty airplanes have participated in the search for them.

70 AGENTS SEE 3 GUNMEN ROB INSURANCE FIRM

Two men with sawed-off shotguns and a third with a pistol entered the Cicero office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, 5203 West 25th street, yesterday in the course of a sales talk before 70 agents, terrified ten clerks and customers, and escaped with approximately $4,000 cash.

One robber jammed his shotgun through the cashier's cage, frightening Miss Rose Kubat, who snatched up $3,000 in bills; however, and was fleeing to the lecture room in the rear when she dropped the money. The bandit picked it up, strode after her and kept the agents covered while his partners picked up the remaining loot.

The robbers fled in a time worn sedan which, according to witnesses, bore the Illinois license number 135-686. This number was traced to a flivver owned by one Rosario Liggio.

URGES PAY PER MILE WEIGHT TO CARRY AIR MAIL

Brown to Ask Congress to Amend Law.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—A complete new system of compensation for air mail contractors, whereby they will be paid upon a flexible mile weight basis, instead of the present fixed charge basis, was proposed today by Postmaster General Walter F. Brown as a solution of the air mail finance problem.

The postmaster general said he would ask congress to amend the 1928 air mail act so as to authorize him to contract with private aircraft concerns to carry mail at fixed rates per mile for definite weight spaces, the base rate not to exceed $1 a mile for 1,500 pounds of mail capacity. Under the law now compensation is fixed on a poundage basis, not exceeding $3 a pound, without regard to the distance traveled.

Speaks in Cleveland.

Mr. Brown set forth his new air mail policy in an address before the Cleveland chamber of commerce, a statement being released simultaneously by the postoffice department.

Many contractors, operating under the present contracts, have fared poorly and others have prospered, depending upon the volume of mail flowing over the particular routes they operate, the postmaster general pointed out. The rate from Boston to New York, for example, is $3 a pound; from New York to Chicago, 86 cents; from Chicago to Salt Lake City, $1.95; from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles, $3; from Atlanta to Chicago, 78 cents; and from Cleveland to Pittsburgh, $3.

Method Is Unsound.

"The method of determining the compensation of air mail contractors must be revolutionized," Mr. Brown asserted. "The system of paying by the pound, regardless of distance traveled, is manifestly unsound."

Under the new plan Mr. Brown proposed the setting up of a schedule of compensation providing for the payment of perhaps 30 cents a mile for a weight space of 100 pounds, with increased compensation per mile for increasing weight spaces, until the maximum of $1 a mile for 1,500 pounds of weight space is reached.

HUSBAND MISSING, WINS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Ruby Taber, 155 South Francisco avenue won a divorce yesterday before Superior Judge Williams from Floyd Taber. The Tabers were married Jan. 19, 1926, and separated the following April 18, when he went to search for work and never returned. Attorney Irving Eisenman represented Mrs. Taber.

ARMY ARCTIC PATROL PLANES SCATTERED IN SPOKANE FLIGHT

Great Falls, Mont., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Twenty-two planes of the army arctic patrol sent out to test winter flying conditions between Selfridge field, Mich., and Spokane, tonight were scattered along a 1,300 mile snow covered front.

The maneuver was extended about 300 miles farther west today when three pursuit ships left Havre, Mont., to cross the continental divide at an altitude of 13,000 feet and land at Kalispell, about 170 miles by air line from Spokane.

A flight of 400 miles by a transport plane piloted by Lieut. P. E. Shannahan from Minot, N. D., to Havre marked the only other progress made by the flyers today. Thirteen pursuit planes that landed here yesterday after a flight of about 550 miles from Minot, today postponed a projected hop to Spokane because of trouble with motors and reports that passes over the continental divide were shrouded in mist.

High School Head Learns Right Way to Keep Well

And finds that simple health rule makes all the difference between Success and Failure

Miss Mary S. Cline, Head of English Department, Easton (Pa.) High School

EVEN so wise a person as the head of a high school department may have something to learn about how to keep well, just like the rest of us. So at any rate says Miss Mary S. Cline, the Director of the Department of English, Easton (Pa.) High School. She allows the use of her name in connection with this announcement in the hope that her experience may be of value to other people who want to be well.

"I used to love a hike over the hill on a frosty afternoon," writes Miss Cline. "And then I began to be too tired to start out—too listless to move. I began to fear the cold. I began to hate my work.

"I had a horror of medicines. So when the doctor told me to try Nujol, I protested. 'But this is different,' he said. 'Nujol just passes through the body, lubricating it and absorbing the poisons. And,' he added, 'it won't make you fat. Try it.'

"I did try it. My energy began to come back. I began to take my after-school jaunts again. Work seemed pleasant and my whole outlook changed. I was my old self again, with enough energy to climb the mountain, and the joy of health once more restored."

What is the secret of Nujol's success? Just this: the human body, like any delicate mechanism, requires perfect lubrication to function properly and get rid of the waste poisons that make us feel dull, languid, tired, headachy. Tasteless and colorless as pure water, Nujol aids nature in carrying away these poisons. It is not a medicine. It contains no drugs. It works naturally, harmlessly.

Most people start Nujol on the advice of their doctor, possibly a trained nurse, or some friend who knows of its value from personal experience.

Try Nujol for two weeks. You will be amazed at the results. Know what it is to feel well, refreshed in the morning and full of pep for the day's work or play. Get Nujol today at the drug store. It costs but a few cents a day, but it makes you feel like a million dollars!

Mothers acclaim this gentle dentifrice for children's teeth

When little teeth are coming in "for keeps" it is important that from the outset they be kept clean, healthy and unmarred.

Don't be in a hurry to select a tooth paste for your youngster to use. Study the claims and the action of all. Eventually, we believe, you will come to Listerine Tooth Paste as so many thousands of mothers have done.

For this modern dentifrice, made by the makers of Listerine, is distinguished for its thorough cleansing qualities and its gentle, safe action.

Contained in it are cleansing and polishing agents of amazingly fine texture that are harder than tartar and consequently remove it. Yet, they are softer than the precious enamel which they clean, therefore do not harm it.

In solution they wash every facet of each tooth. They sweep out decaying matter. They remove discolorations and tartar. They penetrate tiny crevices between the teeth. They give enamel a marvelous luster.

Because of its safety, careful mothers choose Listerine Tooth Paste for use by their children. Adults, too, by thousands, have discarded older and costlier favorites for this new dentifrice that gives results immediately apparent. Incidentally, at 25¢ it saves you about $3 per year compared to dentifrices in the 50¢ class. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

STATE DRIVES AT DORR STORY OF THE MURDER

He Pictures Himself as Hero of Shooting.

his attorneys, Barratt O'Hara and Arthur Caristen, Dorr continued his story as if he were merely reminiscing of old times.

"Bill and I always had been very good friends," he said. "We used to go out to shows and Mrs. O'Brien and my wife would go out together. On Sundays he was always fooling around in the basement.

"There seemed to be a little trouble between the O'Briens. Sometimes I used to think it was Mrs. O'Brien's fault and sometimes I thought it was Bill's."

Dorr described alleged quarrels between the O'Briens and spoke of three occasions when he rescued Genevieve when she tried to commit suicide. One of these incidents, he said, occurred on a certain starry night when Genevieve, clad in pajamas, jumped off a pier at a Michigan summer resort, where the O'Briens and Dorrs shared a cottage last summer. Dorr, seeing her, ran out of the cottage, where he was undressing, leaped into the water and pulled her out, he said.

A long series of quarrels between the O'Briens, Genevieve's tears, and Mrs. Dorr's sympathy for her figured in his testimony. Part of the time, Dorr said, he took Mrs. O'Brien to his office to work to take her thoughts off her troubles.

His Attitude Toward Mrs. O'Brien.

MR. O'HARA—What was your relation with Mrs. O'Brien at all times, Howard?

DORR—Why, I would say, nothing but sympathy. Mrs. O'Brien and I have never talked about anything except their trouble. I told them as soon as they had a child everything would be different, that all it took to make a home was children."

The last sentence was said slowly and with a dramatic flourish, which was somewhat marred by an objection made by Mr. Butler.

MR. O'HARA—Did you ever at any time make love to Mrs. O'Brien?

DORR—I never did.

O'Brien had told Dorr that "he didn't want any damn kids running around the house," but "all Mrs. O'Brien wanted was a baby," Dorr testified.

"One day I came home and we went upstairs to see Mrs. O'Brien," he said. "Mrs. O'Brien then told my wife that she was expecting a baby. My wife told me and when I saw Mrs. O'Brien I grabbed her hand and congratulated her. I was requesting Bill the week before that to be more considerate of his wife. But Bill wouldn't listen. He walked away."

Q.—Were there ever hard feelings between you and Mr. O'Brien- A.—Never.

Story of the Shooting.

Dorr launched into a recital of the events that led up to the shooting.

On the morning of Nov. 19, the day before the shooting, he said, his wife went to a shower given for his sister. Mrs. Dorr called him at his office to tell him Mrs. O'Brien was on her way there, he testified. He and Mrs. O'Brien had lunch together and he took her to her father's house after 5 o'clock. At 8:30, he said, he went to call for her, as he had promised that either he or his wife would do. Mrs. Dorr was unwilling to go, he said, because the wet wash had just come home and she wanted to hang it out in the basement.

After he and Mrs. O'Brien got home, Dorr said, they "went to the basement and I believe—yes, I am positive—Genevieve helped my wife hang up some clothes."

Dorr fixed the fire, and then they went up to the Dorr apartment and sat there talking until about 11 o'clock."

"Then the children were in bed," he said, alluding to his 2 year old daughter and 6 year old son, "and we went up to the O'Brien flat, the three of us, and talked for two hours. Then I believe my wife got Mrs. O'Brien undressed and she went to bed."

Q.—Mrs. O'Brien went to bed? A.—Yes.

Q.—At that time did she seem more nervous than she had earlier in the day? A.—Yes, she was more nervous. She kept saying she would have to do something, and I said I'd talk to Bill once more. Every time I did he was nice for a little while afterwards.

"Later on," Dorr continued, "my wife came in and said, 'I believe she's asleep,' and I said I would go on down. 'No,' she said 'we'd better stay a while,' so we stayed until about 2:30, when my wife and I went downstairs. About 3 o'clock Bill came home."

Q.—Where were you at that time? A.—Downstairs.

Q.—Where was Mrs. Dorr? A.—Downstairs.

Q.—Where was Mrs. O'Brien? A.—She was in bed.

Warns O'Brien About Wife.

Dorr then related how he stopped O'Brien as he came in, and advised him that his wife was nervous.

Q.—Your attitude was friendly? A.—Oh, yes, Bill and I were always friendly. When I'd give him advice he'd put his arm around me and say, "Howard, you are older than I, you know better than I do."

Dorr then looked around at the jurors. His expression was one of nobility.

"Good night, Howard," O'Brien said, and "Good night, Bill," Dorr answered, according to his story.

As he and his wife started to retire, he said, they heard screams from above, and went up to find O'Brien pulling his wife's hair. "She's getting smart again," O'Brien told him, Dorr said.

"We calmed them down," he went on, "and when Bill said Genevieve was hitting him, I kidded around and told him she couldn't hurt him.

Hear a Shot Upstairs.

"We went back downstairs and the next thing I knew my wife was shaking me, and I heard more screaming and hollering upstairs. We started to go up, and got to the door of our apartment when we heard a shot."

Q.—Just where were you when you heard the shot? A. [cheerfully]—You want me to show you?

Attorney O'Hara signified that he did, and Dorr walked to the chart of the O'Brien flat hanging in the courtroom and pointed. Resuming the stand, he continued.

"When we got there Bill had Mrs. O'Brien by the shoulder, with a gun in the left hand. 'What're you trying to do, Bill?' I said. 'Nothing; why didn't you stay downstairs?' he answered. Mrs. O'Brien just kept on screaming. I eased up alongside Bill. I said, 'Look at her, Bill,' and when he did, I leaped between them and grabbed at the gun."

Reenacts Scene with Lawyer.

Dorr then jumped from the witness stand, seized Attorney O'Hara by the shoulders, and, with a glance at his audience, performed dramatically. Attorney O'Hara scuffled as well as he could, but he lacked the masterful swing and the well staged thrusts his client gave him.

"I was positive Bill didn't want to use the gun on Mrs. O'Brien or myself, but I felt that I had to get that gun in order to prevent trouble," Dorr went on as O'Hara recovered his breath. "When I grabbed for the gun it went off. I went running through the dining room.

"I was going to take the gun out of the apartment. But I slipped and fell, and Bill grabbed the gun. We tussled for it, and it went off again. Then we fell downstairs, Bill to the landing, I part of the way. At that point there was another shot.

He Runs to Telephone.

"I became afraid so I ran downstairs to a telephone, lifted up the receiver and shouted, 'A man's been shot at 7328 South Maplewood,' and went in my bedroom to start to dress. My little boy had wakened, so I put him back to bed."

At that point Judge Miller called a short recess. Following the recess Dorr continued, telling of opening the door to the police and accompanying them upstairs. Then he told of being questioned by the police and Assistant State's Attorney Ditchburne.

During the 30 hours before he made his "so-called confession," Dorr said, he was not permitted to see his wife, to eat, or to sleep

He denied the statements made in his alleged confession were true. He said he was virtually told the story to tell. He denied he had said Mrs. O'Brien's statement was true when it was shown to him, and said he was stopped when he protested that her statement they had had immoral relations was untrue. Genevieve herself in his presence said her confession was not true, he said.

After the noon recess of court Dorr told of his business affairs. He described selling O'Brien two policies totaling $5,000.

DORR CROSS-EXAMINED

Apparently unwearied by the long story he had just related, Dorr turned with interest to Assistant State's Attorney Ditchburne when Attorney O'Hara gave the order, "cross-examine!" He smiled politely at the prosecutor and listened to the opening questions with an air of courteous concern.

The cross-examination started mildly with a query as to the date of Dorr's marriage. He gave his wedding day as July 12, 1918. Then came the mention of Mrs. O'Brien's name and the witness adopted a characteristic attitude which he maintained throughout the cross-examination. He spread his arms along the back of the bench as if to brace himself against attack and his voice took on a slightly higher pitch.

Q.—How long have you known Genevieve O'Brien? A.—Since a year ago last July.

Q.—Do you happen to know how old she is? A.—Twenty-three.

Q.—How old was William J. O'Brien? A.—Twenty-five.

Q.—When you first knew him, was he married? A.—Not to my knowledge.

Quizzed on Rescue Incident.

There followed a series of questions revealing that Dorr had never been socially acquainted with O'Brien until the latter's marriage. But the prosecutor dropped this line of questioning abruptly to plunge into the examination of Dorr's account of how he saved Mrs. O'Brien from drowning.

Dorr showed a nice modesty here when questioned as to Mrs. O'Brien's garb upon the night when she walked down a pier and jumped into the lake, presumably in an attempt to drown herself.

"How was she dressed when you saw her on the pier?" he was asked. And the witness looked apologetically at the largely feminine audience before replying: "In her pajamas."

Q.—Where was William O'Brien when you saw his wife trying to jump off the pier? A.—He retired a little while before.

Q.—Did you recognize Mrs. O'Brien right away? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you recognize the pajamas? A.—No, sir.

Q.—What did you recognize about her? A.—Her size.

"Well," continued Prosecutor Ditchburne. "You went out and saved her. Did you wake O'Brien up afterwards and tell him about it?"

"No, sir. I didn't want him starting more trouble."

Q.—You thought he would start trouble if he found his wife had tried to commit suicide? A.—He always did.

Dorr again told, upon request, how he tried to help O'Brien in his business and financial troubles.

"If Bill was broke, he could always eat at our house," he remarked. "My wife never baked a pie or cake or bread in our house but what the O'Briens got part of it."

It was here that the first hint of bitterness crept into his voice and he let his glance flicker in the direction of Mrs. O'Brien.

Other Rescues Are Described.

He was cross-examined about the other occasions upon which, he said, he had saved Mrs. O'Brien from suicide.

Q.—Now, as to the time that she jumped into the lake and turned on the gas and took poison, did you ever discuss those matters with the police? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you ever, on any of these occasions, call a doctor? A.—No.

Dorr said he had paid Mrs. O'Brien $5 a day on several occasions to help him with his office work and the questioning concerning this admittance occupied much time.

"I hired her both because she could help me and because she needed the money," the witness testified.

"Out of the charity of your heart," suggested the prosecutor.

Up to this point, witness and cross-examiner had been comparatively amiable in their relations. But when Prosecutor Ditchburne produced Dorr's first statement to the police and began comparing it with his present testimony, both Dorr and his counsel, O'Hara, grew heated in their protests.

"Do you mean to say that you didn't say these things to Commissioner Stege, myself and others on the night of Nov. 20?" asked Ditchburne of the witness.

"I don't recall," snapped back Dorr. "You asked me so terribly many questions over there and told me to say so many things I do not remember."

Again, when a discrepancy in his police statement and his present testimony was pointed out, the witness declared, with a reproachful look for the prosecutor:

"All that is very hazy to me, owing to the condition that I was in and to what all you had told me was so and had to be so."

Previous Story Recalled.

Q.—Didn't you say that on the night of the shooting, you heard hollering and screaming, woke up and went upstairs to find O'Brien lying on the floor, and that you asked him what was the matter, and he looked at you and said, 'You shot me'? A.—I don't recall saying that.

The same answer "I don't recall," was made to a number of other queries directed along the same line. And again the witness interpolated: "You told me to say so many things that I can't tell you off hand just what I did say."

Prosecutor Ditchburne finally stopped, stared at Dorr for a few moments, then said to Judge Miller: "I think, your honor, this would be a convenient place to stop. I won't be finished with the witness for some time and I want him to be instructed not to talk."

The court ordered Dorr not to talk to any one but his attorney. Court was then adjourned and Dorr, as smiling, confident, and self-possessed as when he took the witness stand in the morning, was ushered back to his cell.

"U" OF DES MOINES PROPERTY TO BE SOLD TO SATISFY MORTGAGE

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Des Moines university, Baptist Fundamentalist institution which closed its doors last fall after a long series of controversies, is to be sold to satisfy a $225,000 mortgage held by the Boatsman's National bank of St. Louis.

Federal Judge Charles A. Dewey ordered the real estate, buildings and equipment sold after the bank asked foreclosure and judgment for $207,070.

The university became involved last spring after the trustees heard charges against Dr. T. T. Shields, board president, and Miss Edith Rebman, secretary-treasurer. They were exonerated, but when the board ordered the entire faculty dismissed a hundred students staged a riot.

Dr. Shields ordered the school closed but a court order reopened it. On Sept. 1 Miss Rebman issued a statement saying the school would not reopen.

ROUGHAGE IS ESSENTIAL IN REDUCING DIETS

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Is Ideal Roughage

If you are following a reducing diet, it is doubly important that you take a regular amount of roughage into the system daily. Most reducing diets do not contain a sufficient amount of roughage. The result is constipation—thief of both health and beauty.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is recommended by many doctors and dietitians because it contains the bulk necessary to insure proper elimination.

Also, because it contains the iron needed to help prevent anemia—another danger in reducing diets.

ALL-BRAN is not fattening. Its bulk sweeps the system clean of poisonous wastes—helping to promote glorious health and beauty.

A popular way to eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is soaked in fruit juice. Try it! It is delicious with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over cereals, salads and soups. It adds flavor to cooked foods and is equally effective. Your grocer has Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It is served in restaurants, hotels and dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

HAVE YOU SEEN THESE TWO GREAT NEW CARS?

OAKLAND

GENERAL MOTORS'— Lowest-priced Eight—

$1045 AND UP

In view of what the New Oakland Eight offers, its price is attractively low. This becomes increasingly evident the more intimately you know this lowest-priced General Motors eight.

A Background of Sixteen Years

Three years of actual designing and testing preceded the announcement of the New Oakland Eight. In addition it incorporates General Motors' sixteen years' experience in building fine eight-cylinder automobiles. This mature background accounts for its sound basic design and for the many new features which contribute so greatly to the qualities of eight-cylinder luxury which it provides.

Superior Performance

The New Oakland has an 85-horsepower engine. This is the highest power ever employed in a car of Oakland's size and weight, racing cars excepted. Oakland develops one horsepower to 37 pounds of car weight. That's why few cars are as fast. That's why few, if any, can pass it on the hills. That's why it accelerates so rapidly in traffic. In fact, that is the reason for its superior performance.

Eight-Cylinder Smoothness

With its high speed and fast acceleration, the New Oakland combines the smoothness resulting from the overlapping power impulses inherent in eight-cylinder design. This smoothness is intensified by such exclusive features as its complete downdraft fuel distribution, its patented laminated spring and rubber engine mountings and a new type of cylinder head which assures uniform combustion.

Only a close inspection and a demonstration will enable you to understand fully the many advantages provided by the New Oakland Eight. And only when you know its advantages can you appreciate how reasonably it is priced!

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

The New Oakland Eight, $1045 and up, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers included in list prices. Bumpers, rear fender guards and spring covers extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

NEW SERIES PONTIAC BIG 6

$745 AND UP

Once again Pontiac has improved upon a car already noted for its excellent qualities. To the hundreds of thousands who own Pontiacs, and to everyone who is interested in low-priced automobiles, this announcement is important. For it introduces the New Series Pontiac Big Six—a new and finer car with a famous name.

New Beauty, Smoothness, Safety

Smart new bodies by Fisher make the New Series Big Six a more beautiful Pontiac. A new belt moulding which encircles the car emphasizes its stream-line length and lowness. There is a choice of attractive new Duco colors at no extra cost. Pontiac's smoothness is increased by a new type of rubber supports for its 60-horsepower engine. Improved non-squeak four-wheel brakes and a new sloping non-glare windshield add to the car's safety.

Time-Tried Performance

When these and other improvements were being made, however, all of Pontiac's basic big car excellence was retained. Owners of the New Series Pontiac Big Six are assured of Pontiac's impressive speed, power and acceleration. They will find its economy and long life, as always, a source of saving and satisfaction. And they will have the pleasure of owning a car whose style is enduring and whose basic excellence accounts for its high resale value.

Come in. Let us show you the many advantages of this finer car with a famous name—the New Series Pontiac Big Six.

The New Series Pontiac Big Six, $745 and up, f. o. b. Pontiac, Mich., plus delivery charges. Shock absorbers standard equipment. Bumpers and spring covers at slight extra cost. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f. o. b.) price when comparing automobile values . . . Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

G. O. P. Triple Alliance Appears on Rocks.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Mayoralty aspirations, it was charged yesterday by insiders, have smashed up the slate making for the county primaries.

The nomination of mayoral candidates is fifteen months off. The first day for filing petitions for county and sanitary district places is only two weeks from next Monday and the primaries that will determine the party choices for this long list of offices is less than three months away. But the shadow of the more distant municipal election is said to have mussed up everybody's plans for the immediate campaign.

There is evidence that three Republican leaders who recently indulged in a figurative handshake to stick together—Chairman Snow of the county committee, Charles V. Barrett, and former Attorney General Brundage—have determined to part company, with each free to put up such candidates as he sees fit.

Deneen Men Dissatisfied.

In the Deneen camp there was dissatisfaction reported yesterday over the acceptance in toto of the five man sanitary district slate proposed by the Seabury-Butler committee. Several of the group's lieutenants had candidates for drainage board places and they were heard to grumble that, regardless of the high standing of the men indorsed, all five of them come from north of the river and therefore there will have to be a big shifting around in the territorial allotment of ticket spots that will hurt the feelings of a lot of folks.

Chairman Cermak of the Democratic county committee had upset his own camp by refusing to run again for the presidency of the county board. This was followed by newspaper reports that back of his decision was consideration in one form or another of the mayoralty.

One report was that Cermak's friends had urged his retirement from office to prepare the way for his own race for the city hall. Another one was that when he withdrew in the expectation that Coroner Bundesen woud run for the county board place, thereby possibly lessening Bundesen's chances for the mayoralty for which his supporters say he is headed.

Among the organization workers it was said that Dr. Bundesen will not desert his duties in the coroner's office to which he was elected in 1928 for a four year term and that he is determined to make a good record there.

Along with this talk came positive assertions that whatever Democrats seek the mayor's office a year hence, Clayton F. Smith, chairman of the county managing committee, will be in the race with full confidence that he can muster a majority of the ward leaders behind him.

These developments left the Democratic dopesters in a tangle exceeded only by that in the Republican county committee. Chairman Snow has called a meeting of the committee at the Hotel La Salle at 2:30 this afternoon "to take such action as may be necessary in connection with the selection of candidates."

The jam in this camp is traced directly to the next mayoralty fight. Some of Mayor Thompson's best friends say that despite their pleas he will run again next year. That fact has been known to Barrett and Brundage. Both object to helping raise Thompson's hopes. Barrett himself has been boosted as a candidate by his west side organization friends.

How Smashup Came.

The rupture of the Snow-Barrett-Brundage alliance came at a secret conference last Sunday. On Monday there were efforts to heal it. They failed. Yesterday Barrett and Brundage were both starting out on plans entirely independent of the city hall connections they charge against Snow and his close associates such as George F. Harding, county treasurer.

The specific cause of the break was a discussion of who was to run for ward committeeman in Brundage's home ward, the Forty-sixth. Chairman Snow and his close associates said it was impossible for them to call off Harry Klatzco, a city hall employé, who is backed by Ald. Oscar Nelson, Thompson's ex-Democratic council leader.

This was construed as an admission that neither Snow nor anybody else connected with the alliance could prevent the Thompson forces from attempting to build up an organization to back him for a fourth term. All talk of joint slate making stopped right there.

Barrett is to have a conference of his west side ward leaders. Brundage is to do the same with his followers on the north side. But the almost official forecast is that each will start out on an anti-city hall path at once, leaving Snow and his friends in control of a majority of the county committee.

POLICE JANITOR HELD AS SLAYER.

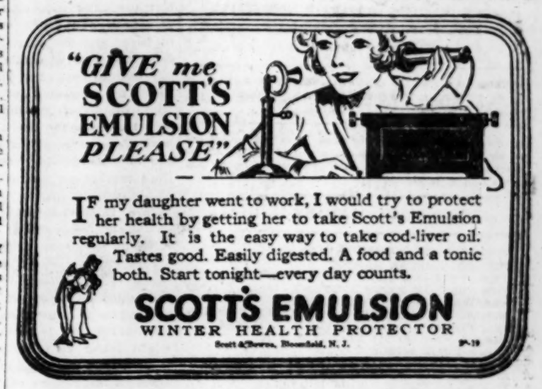
Ernest McClanahan, 40 years old, 3535 Adams street, a janitor in the Fillmore police station, who shot to death another janitor, Edmond Von Glabeke, 41 years old, 3452 Jackson boulevard, in a quarrel in the station last Friday, was held to the grand jury on a murder charge by a coroner's jury yesterday.

GIRL SITS ON TACK IN SCHOOL SEAT, DIES OF BLOOD POISONING

Mount Morris, N. Y., Jan. 14.—(AP)—A recitation in Griegsville High school was interrupted by muffled laughter recently when Angelina Ceronie, 14 year old star forward of the girls' basketball squad returned to her seat and unsuspectingly sat on a thumbtack.

Angelina was a good sport. When the teacher rapped for order she didn't tell. Three days later she was absent from school and today the age old prank is a joke no longer.

Blood poisoning had developed from the tiny wound and Angelina died yesterday.



IF my daughter went to work, I would try to protect her health by getting her to take Scott's Emulsion regularly. It is the easy way to take cod-liver oil. Tastes good. Easily digested. A food and a tonic both. Start tonight—every day counts.

THE FIRST REPORT OF THE COMMISSION.

The foreword of what the law enforcement commission's report would be, as disclosed by the administration and by gratified drys in congress, was accurate as to specific recommendations, but it was not complete. The commission would seem to be a house divided against itself. The advance digest of its findings, indicating that it would be wholly dry, prepared for the recommendations for further attacks on constitutional immunities, but not for the concession that no inquiry will be of any value which does not go to the bottom of the whole matter.

The members who wrote this section of the report did everything that was done to save it from futility and to save the reputation of the commission itself. They have stated things which will be hard now to dodge. "To reach conclusions of any value we must go into deep questions of public opinion and criminal law." A number of these questions are noted: The Whig tradition of the right of revolution (English Whigs founded the American republic); the conception of natural rights classical in our policy; the Puritan's objection to administration; the divergences of attitude in various sections of the country, the attitude of the pioneer, the democratic tradition of individual participation in sovereignty.

"We must not forget the many historical examples of large scale public disregard of laws in our past. To give proper weight to these things, in connection with the social and economic effect of the prohibition law, is not a matter of a few months."

The report has recommended that the padlock be used more freely against property rights and that where possible a citizen be tried without a jury, but it also has stated the purpose of its further activities, if any—to take the eighteenth amendment and put it in its relation to the principles of American government, to the provisions and the intent of the constitution as it was without this amendment, to the temperament of the American citizen, the basic ideas of his life and the structure of his country.

Such a study would reopen the whole question. In every particular mentioned by this section of the report the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, along with the official and judicial procedures under them, have violated the purposes for which the United States was formed and have denied what citizens had a right to expect.

That explains the present day spectacle of lawlessness, so called, in this country, and the more intelligent members of the commission knew that they were dealing with trifles when they recommended codification of laws, a consolidation of enforcement agencies, a change in frontier intercommunications, etc. They also may have known that they were not dealing with trifles when they recommended more padlocks and fewer jury trials, but they did recognize where the whole problem was.

The American government has been laid prostrate by excesses of bigots supported by people who do not know what they are doing but who are strongly engaged by ideas of right and wrong. The order of the country is distracted because the essential laws of the United States have been violated. American citizens are against law because it is law which should not have been imposed on them. There is enough of the Whig tradition and the classical democratic conception of the natural rights of man still alive in the America which they founded to produce resentment and resistance when government goes back to autocracy.

That's the problem the commission will open up if it is faithful to its own statement that "to reach conclusions of any value we must go into deep questions of public opinion and the criminal law." Nothing else will be of any consequence.

EDUCATING THE POLICE FORCE.

The citizens' police committee has reported its criticism of the police system in Chicago. Most of the advice was confined to the reallocation of executive powers and duties. It was largely a study of the bosses' work. The recommendations seem sensible and logical, conducive to more effective marshaling of the personnel. But the committee suggests no measure for improving the character of the personnel.

We have recently had occasion to remark at the deficiency of at least some of the noncommissioned policemen in the most elementary features of their work. Mistakes have been made which betray lack of blackboard training among the rank and file of the force. Officers have been assigned to tasks requiring special knowledge with no more preparation than that of an unskilled laborer.

This condition will not be improved by the changes which the committee proposes. Removing the commissioner's office from the city hall to the police administration building would protect the chief somewhat from the advances of politicians and would make him less accessible to favor seekers. But it would not teach new policemen how to obtain evidence after a crime, nor how to behave in court, nor would it teach them the elements of detective work. Likewise, the other recommendations would affect only indirectly the usefulness of the man on the beat. The proposal for a reduction in the number of subordinates immediately answerable to the commissioner follows a well advised policy for administrative efficiency. So is the proposal to relieve the commissioner of many distracting chores and the proposal for redistribution of police divisions on a more logical principle.

How much more useful would be this reorganization of the executive functions if it were accompanied by the education of the police force! So long as it is proposed to reform the top, why not improve the bottom, too? The housecleaning might better be undertaken from attic to basement. Then we would have a more efficient management and a more efficient staff to manage.

IN THE SHADOW OF MONT PELEE.

Residents of Martinique, alarmed by the activity of Mont Pelee, are taking refuge in Trinidad. The eruption of 1902, which brought death to an estimated 40,000 persons, is a warning to authorities. Public and private entertainments and the customary February fêtes on the French island have been proscribed.

Unlike the present generation, the people of Martinique in 1902 had no presentiment of catastrophe when Mont Pelee began to steam and discharge dust. There had been inconsequential eruptions in 1762 and 1851, and the fact that a new vent had opened merely aroused the curiosity of the natives. Indeed, an expedition was scheduled to visit the summit of the mountain and investigate on the morning of the holocaust.

The explosion occurred shortly before 8 o'clock the morning of May 8, 1902. From the breach in the southern slope of the mountain issued a cloud of incandescent volcanic dust and superheated steam. This ammunition catapulted upon St. Pierre, traveling more than sixty miles an hour. Obstructions were wrecked and ignited. The population of St. Pierre instantly perished, cremated in the atmosphere which was fired to a temperature of 1,000 degrees Fahrenheit, or asphyxiated by the fumes. Two convicts in a deep dungeon survived.

The Roddam, anchored beyond the other ships in the harbor, was the only surviving vessel. The swell set up by the detonation snapped the anchor chain of the Roddam, which sailed with the news to the next island, St. Lucia. Venezuela, 800 miles distant, felt the tremor. It caused brilliant sunset glows which were witnessed in England, Germany, and China.

After the explosion the volcano continued to spout material at the rate of 8,000,000 cubic feet a minute. Before it subsided a pillar of rock 800 feet high was pushed up from the vent. Geologists say that this dam of rock diverted the natural vertical movement of the débris, acting as a nozzle to direct the flow immediately upon St. Pierre.

With this calamity in mind, the natives will take extraordinary precautions to protect themselves against any emergency. In 1902 Mont Pelee was restless thirteen days before the great explosion. If the island is again doomed, there is justification for hoping that the damaging eruption may be delayed long enough to permit the residents to gain shelter.

THE CHEERING MINISTERS.

Dr. Doran, federal prohibition commissioner, spoke to three hundred ministers in New York on enforcement. Near by in Connecticut a short time before the coast guard had distinguished itself by two performances, first by machine gunning three men to death on a rum runner, second by having some thirty or more guardsmen arrested after they had become drunk and disorderly on liquor seized on a runner.

Dr. Doran said that the coast guard's duty was to enforce the law and to do that it must be armed and it must use its arms. "At this juncture," said the New York report, "there was a thunder of applause, many of the ministers springing to their feet and waving their arms in approval of the statement."

For some reason, relevant or irrelevant, this brings to mind Capt. John Philip at the end of the naval battle of Santiago quieting his rejoicing crew with "Don't cheer. The poor devils are dying." Capt. Philip, it may be recalled, was known in the service for his attachment to the Christian faith.

Editorial of the Day

SPEED NOT MEASURE OF SAFETY.

[Bloomington, Ill., Pantagraph.]

The problem of reducing the number of fatalities in automobile accidents in the United States is one which seems to be perennial. It has been talked about and written about without cessation of recent years, and yet the number of deaths per year steadily mounts. It is estimated at 30,000 in the country for 1929.

Controlling speed is not the proper remedy, according to Dr. Dickinson, chief of the heat and power division of the United States bureau of standards. Rather, the measure of safety is gauged by the possibility of stopping a car before it strikes the nearest object in its path. This distance would vary with conditions. Dr. Dickinson would then reduce the safety rule to this formula: "No vehicle shall be operated at a speed such that it cannot be stopped within the assured clear course ahead."

Dr. Dickinson would have drivers rely less on their speedometers and more on their instinct, knowledge, and experience. Today if a man is involved in an accident while he is driving 18 miles an hour, if the traffic laws allow him 22 miles an hour in that particular district, he is absolved from blame. Dr. Dickinson contends that a driver is equally guilty whether the accident occurs when he is driving 10 to 40 miles an hour, as long as it can be proved that he was not in position to stop within the clear course of his vision.

The adoption of the clear course ahead as the basis of a speed law, however, would necessitate a change in right of way rules, according to Dr. Dickinson. The present right of way regulations, he says, are so confusing that even the courts are unable to interpret them. They could be simplified by providing that a driver may have the right of way as long as he remains in his own lane, i. e., along a straight stretch, but that any action interfering with traffic such as stopping suddenly, making a crossing, pulling out from a curb or turning a corner, first requires a signal which must be answered by the driver of the other car most concerned before the first motorist can proceed.

How to Keep Well By Dr. W. A. Evans

HEALTH OF THE BUSHMEN.

THE Bushmen of South Africa never eat any sugar, nor do they have any considerable amount of starchy foods in their dietary. Yet they have about as much tooth decay as we do, with an allowance of about a third of a pound of sugar per capita daily, and our diet rich in breads, pastries and cereals.

Dr. W. J. Cameron, who has always been in close touch with the dental profession, says: "I paid particular attention to their teeth and found conditions much as among our own people. Some had good teeth and some had carious ones. Some had pyorrhea and others were free from it. And I could note no difference in dental conditions between those living on meat or mixed diet."

Dr. Cameron says the Bushmen live almost altogether on meat. They are wise enough not to eat it raw, but the cooking they give it is only thorough enough to sterilize it. The marrow of roasted bones they regard as a great delicacy. They eat the organs as well as the muscle. In addition they eat a few roots, herbs, fruit and melons, but as they live around water holes in a desert country there are not many melons nor much fruit nor many vegetables of any kind. They have no grain.

Human breast milk is the only food supply for the babies. In consequence of the scarcity of foods fit for young children mothers are likely to nurse their children until they reach the sixth year. Dr. Cameron does not mention that this custom reduces the birth rate, as it is said to have done among the Indians. The baby death rate is very high. Otherwise they are not unhealthy people. They are very prone to pneumonia, from which they rarely recover. They do not have sleeping sickness nor malaria because they keep away from the country in which these diseases prevail.

Dr. Cameron did not mention consumption nor rheumatism in his story of his visit. In all probability they do not have much of the first and they pay heavy toll to the second. Such was the actual case among the American Indians, who lived much as the Bushmen do and whose disease history probably was not much different.

CHEER FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

J. C. writes: Possibly a word to a twenty year old tubercular patient will cheer as much as medical advice. Both are necessary. It seemed impossible to part with my seven year old son, who wept bitterly and nearly broke our hearts by his combined patience and despair, but he left us for a year, finished his treatment at home and today, at sixteen, is well.

A man we knew said, "What that child did, I can do," and has waged a splendid fight with good results. Two women I know left home and small children, and today are carrying on at home with their families.

These people had far more to fight than a person who is not married and if it was realized that others have fought a more bitter fight and won out, cure would be possible. Tuberculosis is not the losing battle it once was, and a fighting spirit is half the battle in these cases. Don't try to be cured at home, accept help from so-called charitable sanitaria if necessary, and live to enjoy life in the future. Use your head and heart as you go along and you are cured.

REPLY:

You are right.

PITY THE POOR BARBER.

D. B. writes: I have been a barber for ten years. I shave all kinds of men and sometimes I serve a man whose breath makes me sick. To overcome these breath odors I chew a little tobacco. I do not smoke as much as a cigar a day on the average. I have been told that chewing tobacco protects me against disease.

1. Is that so?
2. Will chewing and smoking hurt me?

REPLY:

1. There is no basis of truth for that statement.
2. Smoking less than one cigar a day and chewing a little tobacco should not hurt you. You do not say how long a plug lasts.

MAY VISIT CANADA.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—[Friend of the People.]—A Canadian born who has filed a declaration of intention paper, but who has not his final papers, desires to visit Canada.

What will be his status when he terminates his visit—will he be allowed entry back in the States the same as a citizen, or will his return to Canada affect his status to become a citizen here? D. F. B.

If a Canadian citizen, who was properly admitted to the United States, desires to make a visit to Canada he will have no trouble in returning if he can prove his lawful admission to the United States and his continuous residence since that time.

If a person who has his first papers only leaves the United States on a visit the continuity of his residence is not broken providing he does not remain out of the United States for a period of more than six months. S. D. SMITH.
District Director of Immigration.

Highland Park, Ill., Jan. 10.—[Friend of the People.]—The father of a child born in Montreal is English, the mother American. At the age of three months the child is brought to the United States and the parents are divorced and the child put in the custody of the mother. He is educated here. Is he a citizen? J. M. K.

The child referred to was born an alien and remained an alien unless the father died and the mother returned to the United States and resumed American citizenship before Sept. 22, 1922, and before the child was 21 years of age. FRED J. SCHLOTFELDT, District Director of Naturalization.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

yessir, it looks now as though the common people were going to get a chance. This is a land of equal opportunity, where one fellow is just as good as another, and a damn site better, if you ask him, but the dry commission makes us realize that things have been going all wrong. They point out in their reports to congress that the courts are so congested that the citizen whose infraction of the dry law isn't worth any more than a five hundred dollar fine, or a six months' jail sentence, doesn't get any attention.

No, sir, he's been practically ignored. And that isn't right! Every American citizen is the equal of every other American citizen. We said that before, but we want to hang on to it. But what is the condition we see before us today? Why, the courts taking care of the millionaire rum runners and beer barons and the Big Five and Ten Jones law boys and the hip flask and Own-Your-Own-Still boys can't get into court with a set of burglar tools.

That's what the commission points out, and Mr. Hoover says that things have got to be fixed up so that every American citizen, no matter if he isn't worth more than a couple of months in the county jail, is going to be taken care of. Well, that's right. There's Al Capone in a nice comfortable jail down in Philadelphia, but the commission says the laws haven't been able to take care of the greater number of our citizens.

Under Mr. Hoover's plan, Dr. Doran says that arrests can be speeded up fifty per cent. With 80,000 arrests last year and one hundred and twenty thousand to be made this coming year, you can see for yourself that it looks at last as though the common citizen was going to get something nearer to an even break. Yessir, we've got to quit building battleships and put the money in Bigger and Better Jails.

Nor does she shatter any futile lance

Is a flower with an essence sharply sweet,
And wholly worth the pain of gathering,
Though it grows out of mud that soils her feet
And though it wounds her fingers. Subtle, still,
She smiles at those who weep for beauty gone.
She says past beauty may suffice to fill
With a new glow the grayest sort of dawn.
Her bleeding hands stretch forth again to press
Close to her heart each fleeting loveliness.

WE ARE INFORMED by the public prints that three hundred ministers at an anti-saloon meeting in New York jumped to their feet, swung their arms, and gave vent to thunderous applause when James A. Doran told them the coast guards must use their weapons if necessary to enforce prohibition. So now, then, let us take up our Bible and turn to the words of Jesus as reported by the gentle John: "Little children, a new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another."

WELL, YOU WERE A CHILD ONCE YOURSELF.

Pathetic picture taken by our stiff photographer yesterday afternoon of a group of small Chicago schoolboys weeping bitterly because the public schools may close down in February on account of lack of funds. Some of the poor boys fear they may have to go skating in the parks, or even ride down the ice covered hills on their sleds.

BIOGRAPHY.

A passionate aloneness, long unspent
and uncommunicated, filled her eyes
with unshed bitterness. A grim surmise that death alone was good came to torment her youth that was not young. Yet others saw her lovely and unusued, a creature blessed by strange unneed of love; they had not guessed
she asked their simple touch more than their awe.

And so one morning just a patient cow
heard a lost cry, "I only never share
joy in companioned life. Come quickly death!
You be my friend." There was a sudden breath of sunwarmth on the parting in her hair.

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 15, 1865.

WASHINGTON.—A vast amount of peace talk which now floods the capital is absurd. It is not true that ambassadors from Jeff Davis are on their way here or that any authorized ambassadors from Mr. Lincoln have gone to Richmond, or that there is any serious expectation of immediate results from either F. P. Blair's mission or that of Gen. Singleton. Even Blair was in no way authorized to say anything for Mr. Lincoln to Davis or any one else. His pass to the front was signed by Mr. Lincoln, and that forwarded to him under a flag of truce to Grant's headquarters was signed by James A. Seddon, rebel secretary of war. Seddon's pass reads: "Permission is hereby granted to Francis P. Blair Sr. to visit Richmond on private business. He will regard himself as on parole of honor while within the confederate lines."

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Gov. Fletcher issued a proclamation in accordance with the ordinance of the convention which declares all men free and rejoices that Missouri is enrolled among the free states of the north. The whole city is dressed in flags in celebration of the event.

LANSING, Mich.—A joint resolution was adopted by the senate instructing Michigan senators and representatives in congress to secure the passage of the resolution to amend the constitution so as to abolish slavery throughout the nation.

CHICAGO.—The rectifying establishment of A. E. Croskey & Co., 51-53 South Water street, was destroyed by fire. The loss was $90,000.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 15, 1900.

LONDON.—The war office issued a dispatch at midnight from Field Marshal Roberts, dated Cape Town, Jan. 14, stating "there is no change in the situation." However, a special dispatch from Cape Town announces that Gen. Warren has crossed the Tugela river in Gen. Buller's advance to relieve Ladysmith.

BOER HEADQUARTERS AT COLENSO.—Everything points to a great battle within the next few days. Ladysmith for the last two nights has been firing rockets.

CHICAGO.—Joseph Henry Gray, 88 years old, one of the early settlers of Hyde Park, died at the family homestead, 77 53d street. His widow, 86 years old, is at the point of death. Mr. Gray reached Chicago in 1836 and went into the grocery business. After the great fire he took up the real estate business. He was active in politics and once served as alderman from the old 2d ward.

CHICAGO.—In the basement of the saloon known as "Shaddy's Place," in Clybourn avenue, near Clay street, cock fighting was in progress all yesterday afternoon and evening. No policemen appeared, although the yells of the spectators could be plainly heard on the street.

LONDON.—Two Americans were killed and three wounded in a fight with an armored train of Gen. Semenoff, commander of the all-Russian army, between Lake Baikal and Verkhneudinsk in the province of Trans-Baikalia, a Harbin correspondent says.

VLADIVOSTOK.—[By Frazier Hunt.]—America's efforts in Siberia have been futile, costly and as miserable a failure as the north Russian allied expedition. The only effect of 16 months of military intervention has been to bolster up an unpopular and impossible military government by keeping open a purely military railroad, gaining for America the distrust and resentment of all classes and postponing final settlement of the Russian question by the Russians themselves.

NEW YORK.—John F. Dodge, Detroit automobile maker, who had been ill a week with pneumonia, died at the age of 54. He and his brother, Horace E., built the first bicycle ever seen in Niles, Mich. In 1901 they started a machine shop in Detroit and the next year when Henry Ford was trying to organize a company to begin manufacturing automobiles the brothers each invested $5,000. Mr. Dodge's $5,000 had grown to $12,500,000 when the Fords finally bought out the minority stockholders last year.

PHILIP YARROW'S DISCLAIMER.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—The story printed in Saturday's TRIBUNE concerning our trial of Walter Shaver is woefully garbled in part and untrue. Some of the questions you record were not asked and certainly the answers your reporter furnishes are derived from his imagination.

For a number of years I have led various movements for the betterment of the moral and civic life of Chicago. In all those many years THE TRIBUNE has been fair and even generous toward me. You have sometimes been opposed to our objections, but I do not recall where you have been unjust to us in your opposition. But your recent editorial and this story are both unjust and untrue.

I did not say I was "not exactly" an ordained minister. If I had been asked the question I would have said "Yes, I am a regularly ordained minister and a member in good standing of the Chicago Congregational association."

In answer to the question "Where do your funds come from?" I did not say we split with the state on fines in cases we instigate. The state has a good and wise law which provides that one-half the fines in cases of smut convictions goes to the informer. So insidious and destructive is the sale of this stuff that the state thought it wise to encourage prosecutions.

In this present campaign we have secured three convictions with a $100 fine in each case. Fifty dollars has already been paid to the Illinois Vigilance association. Not a dollar will come to myself personally.

The answer to the above two questions would suggest that we are collecting a large part of our income from this source.

In answer to the question "What is your salary?" my hesitation was due to the fact that I do not get a regular salary and I did not know for the moment what would be a fair answer to that question. Some years it is more—some years it is less. I have earned thousands of dollars on a salary whose amount was voted by our board of directors which I will never receive. This goes as my contribution to the work.

I was not conscious of "glaring at the lawyer." The judge did not instruct me to answer. I answered of my own free will.

Your reporter says that I "refused comment." I did not. And furthermore I did not "express hope that in two other cases now pending the society would be able to split the $100 fines."

To those who know of the work of the Illinois Vigilance association, with its twenty-three years of honorable service, and to those who know of my own work in this city for twenty-two years, these unjust and dishonorable attacks upon us will seem strange.

BOOKSELLER'S DILEMMA.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Imagine the feelings of a bookseller who, since the Yarrow raids, is compelled to view every customer with suspicion. He can no longer take an order for a book unknown to him in fear of being arrested.

ELIZABETH HELLER.

FUTILITY.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 12.—It is curious that a newspaper fervently subscribing to Decatur's vicious words on patriotism should be the only large paper advanced enough to defend the right of adults to choose their own reading. How you manage to reconcile your strange collection of views is a puzzle that you might explain.

In your editorial on the refusal of citizenship to a distinguished divine you did a poor job and will satisfy no one: stating a problem fairly does not solve it and determines nothing. In the same way when you say every adult American citizen (why citizen?) has the right to read Frank Harris' "My Life and My Loves," you do nothing to prevent the breach of that right.

Granted your view is right, does it prevent punishment of book dealers by righteous, self-helping politicians? Good as your editorial was, it can well be described as futile. ELMER GERTZ.

GOOD RIDDANCE.

Orland Park, Ill., Jan. 12.—In regard to Miss C. K. O.'s letter about hunters shooting at her cat, I don't blame the men for doing it.

Out in this part of Cook county the hunters shoot every cat that is from 100 feet to 200 feet from its home. Each hunter knows it is within the law to do so or at least should know. I am an ardent follower of Bob Becker's articles in THE TRIBUNE and I am quite sure there was an article saying to kill the cat on the fields or the cat will kill the birds and destroy wild life as quick and sly as a weasel or mink.

THE FIRST REPORT OF THE COMMISSION.

The foreword of what the law enforcement commission's report would be, as disclosed by the administration and by gratified drys in congress, was accurate as to specific recommendations, but it was not complete. The commission would seem to be a house divided against itself. The advance digest of its findings, indicating that it would be wholly dry, prepared for the recommendations for further attacks on constitutional immunities, but not for the concession that no inquiry will be of any value which does not go to the bottom of the whole matter.

The members who wrote this section of the report did everything that was done to save it from futility and to save the reputation of the commission itself. They have stated things which will be hard now to dodge. "To reach conclusions of any value we must go into deep questions of public opinion and criminal law." A number of these questions are noted: The Whig tradition of the right of revolution (English Whigs founded the American republic); the conception of natural rights classical in our policy; the Puritan's objection to administration; the divergences of attitude in various sections of the country, the attitude of the pioneer, the democratic tradition of individual participation in sovereignty.

"We must not forget the many historical examples of large scale public disregard of laws in our past. To give proper weight to these things, in connection with the social and economic effect of the prohibition law, is not a matter of a few months."

The report has recommended that the padlock be used more freely against property rights and that where possible a citizen be tried without a jury, but it also has stated the purpose of its further activities, if any—to take the eighteenth amendment and put it in its relation to the principles of American government, to the provisions and the intent of the constitution as it was without this amendment, to the temperament of the American citizen, the basic ideas of his life and the structure of his country.

Such a study would reopen the whole question. In every particular mentioned by this section of the report the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, along with the official and judicial procedures under them, have violated the purposes for which the United States was formed and have denied what citizens had a right to expect.

That explains the present day spectacle of lawlessness, so called, in this country, and the more intelligent members of the commission knew that they were dealing with trifles when they recommended codification of laws, a consolidation of enforcement agencies, a change in frontier intercommunications, etc. They also may have known that they were not dealing with trifles when they recommended more padlocks and fewer jury trials, but they did recognize where the whole problem was.

The American government has been laid prostrate by excesses of bigots supported by people who do not know what they are doing but who are strongly engaged by ideas of right and wrong. The order of the country is distracted because the essential laws of the United States have been violated. American citizens are against law because it is law which should not have been imposed on them. There is enough of the Whig tradition and the classical democratic conception of the natural rights of man still alive in the America which they founded to produce resentment and resistance when government goes back to autocracy.

That's the problem the commission will open up if it is faithful to its own statement that "to reach conclusions of any value we must go into deep questions of public opinion and the criminal law." Nothing else will be of any consequence.

EDUCATING THE POLICE FORCE.

The citizens' police committee has reported its criticism of the police system in Chicago. Most of the advice was confined to the reallocation of executive powers and duties. It was largely a study of the bosses' work. The recommendations seem sensible and logical, conducive to more effective marshaling of the personnel. But the committee suggests no measure for improving the character of the personnel.

We have recently had occasion to remark at the deficiency of at least some of the noncommissioned policemen in the most elementary features of their work. Mistakes have been made which betray lack of blackboard training among the rank and file of the force. Officers have been assigned to tasks requiring special knowledge with no more preparation than that of an unskilled laborer.

This condition will not be improved by the changes which the committee proposes. Removing the commissioner's office from the city hall to the police administration building would protect the chief somewhat from the advances of politicians and would make him less accessible to favor seekers. But it would not teach new policemen how to obtain evidence after a crime, nor how to behave in court, nor would it teach them the elements of detective work. Likewise, the other recommendations would affect only indirectly the usefulness of the man on the beat. The proposal for a reduction in the number of subordinates immediately answerable to the commissioner follows a well advised policy for administrative efficiency. So is the proposal to relieve the commissioner of many distracting chores and the proposal for redistribution of police divisions on a more logical principle.

How much more useful would be this reorganization of the executive functions if it were accompanied by the education of the police force! So long as it is proposed to reform the top, why not improve the bottom, too? The housecleaning might better be undertaken from attic to basement. Then we would have a more efficient management and a more efficient staff to manage.

IN THE SHADOW OF MONT PELEE.

Residents of Martinique, alarmed by the activity of Mont Pelee, are taking refuge in Trinidad. The eruption of 1902, which brought death to an estimated 40,000 persons, is a warning to authorities. Public and private entertainments and the customary February fêtes on the French island have been proscribed.

Unlike the present generation, the people of Martinique in 1902 had no presentiment of catastrophe when Mont Pelee began to steam and discharge dust. There had been inconsequential eruptions in 1762 and 1851, and the fact that a new vent had opened merely aroused the curiosity of the natives. Indeed, an expedition was scheduled to visit the summit of the mountain and investigate on the morning of the holocaust.

The explosion occurred shortly before 8 o'clock the morning of May 8, 1902. From the breach in the southern slope of the mountain issued a cloud of incandescent volcanic dust and superheated steam. This ammunition catapulted upon St. Pierre, traveling more than sixty miles an hour. Obstructions were wrecked and ignited. The population of St. Pierre instantly perished, cremated in the atmosphere which was fired to a temperature of 1,000 degrees Fahrenheit, or asphyxiated by the fumes. Two convicts in a deep dungeon survived.

The Roddam, anchored beyond the other ships in the harbor, was the only surviving vessel. The swell set up by the detonation snapped the anchor chain of the Roddam, which sailed with the news to the next island, St. Lucia. Venezuela, 800 miles distant, felt the tremor. It caused brilliant sunset glows which were witnessed in England, Germany, and China.

After the explosion the volcano continued to spout material at the rate of 8,000,000 cubic feet a minute. Before it subsided a pillar of rock 800 feet high was pushed up from the vent. Geologists say that this dam of rock diverted the natural vertical movement of the débris, acting as a nozzle to direct the flow immediately upon St. Pierre.

With this calamity in mind, the natives will take extraordinary precautions to protect themselves against any emergency. In 1902 Mont Pelee was restless thirteen days before the great explosion. If the island is again doomed, there is justification for hoping that the damaging eruption may be delayed long enough to permit the residents to gain shelter.

THE CHEERING MINISTERS.

Dr. Doran, federal prohibition commissioner, spoke to three hundred ministers in New York on enforcement. Near by in Connecticut a short time before the coast guard had distinguished itself by two performances, first by machine gunning three men to death on a rum runner, second by having some thirty or more guardsmen arrested after they had become drunk and disorderly on liquor seized on a runner.

Dr. Doran said that the coast guard's duty was to enforce the law and to do that it must be armed and it must use its arms. "At this juncture," said the New York report, "there was a thunder of applause, many of the ministers springing to their feet and waving their arms in approval of the statement."

For some reason, relevant or irrelevant, this brings to mind Capt. John Philip at the end of the naval battle of Santiago quieting his rejoicing crew with "Don't cheer. The poor devils are dying." Capt. Philip, it may be recalled, was known in the service for his attachment to the Christian faith.

SPEED NOT MEASURE OF SAFETY.

The problem of reducing the number of fatalities in automobile accidents in the United States is one which seems to be perennial. It has been talked about and written about without cessation of recent years, and yet the number of deaths per year steadily mounts. It is estimated at 30,000 in the country for 1929.

Controlling speed is not the proper remedy, according to Dr. Dickinson, chief of the heat and power division of the United States bureau of standards. Rather, the measure of safety is gauged by the possibility of stopping a car before it strikes the nearest object in its path. This distance would vary with conditions. Dr. Dickinson would then reduce the safety rule to this formula: "No vehicle shall be operated at a speed such that it cannot be stopped within the assured clear course ahead."

Dr. Dickinson would have drivers rely less on their speedometers and more on their instinct, knowledge, and experience. Today if a man is involved in an accident while he is driving 18 miles an hour, if the traffic laws allow him 22 miles an hour in that particular district, he is absolved from blame. Dr. Dickinson contends that a driver is equally guilty whether the accident occurs when he is driving 10 to 40 miles an hour, as long as it can be proved that he was not in position to stop within the clear course of his vision.

The adoption of the clear course ahead as the basis of a speed law, however, would necessitate a change in right of way rules, according to Dr. Dickinson. The present right of way regulations, he says, are so confusing that even the courts are unable to interpret them. They could be simplified by providing that a driver may have the right of way as long as he remains in his own lane, i. e., along a straight stretch, but that any action interfering with traffic such as stopping suddenly, making a crossing, pulling out from a curb or turning a corner, first requires a signal which must be answered by the driver of the other car most concerned before the first motorist can proceed.

The left hand right of way at intersections is advocated as having many advantages over the present right hand rule. From the standpoints of visibility, ease of hand signaling, and avoidance of other vehicles, it is contended that the left hand rule is far superior.

HEALTH OF THE BUSHMEN.

THE Bushmen of South Africa never eat any sugar, nor do they have any considerable amount of starchy foods in their dietary. Yet they have about as much tooth decay as we do, with an allowance of about a third of a pound of sugar per capita daily, and our diet rich in breads, pastries and cereals.

Dr. W. J. Cameron, who has always been in close touch with the dental profession, says: "I paid particular attention to their teeth and found conditions much as among our own people. Some had good teeth and some had carious ones. Some had pyorrhea and others were free from it. And I could note no difference in dental conditions between those living on meat or mixed diet."

Dr. Cameron says the Bushmen live almost altogether on meat. They are wise enough not to eat it raw, but the cooking they give it is only thorough enough to sterilize it. The marrow of roasted bones they regard as a great delicacy. They eat the organs as well as the muscle. In addition they eat a few roots, herbs, fruit and melons, but as they live around water holes in a desert country there are not many melons nor much fruit nor many vegetables of any kind. They have no grain.

Human breast milk is the only food supply for the babies. In consequence of the scarcity of foods fit for young children mothers are likely to nurse their children until they reach the sixth year. Dr. Cameron does not mention that this custom reduces the birth rate, as it is said to have done among the Indians. The baby death rate is very high. Otherwise they are not unhealthy people. They are very prone to pneumonia, from which they rarely recover. They do not have sleeping sickness nor malaria because they keep away from the country in which these diseases prevail.

Dr. Cameron did not mention consumption nor rheumatism in his story of his visit. In all probability they do not have much of the first and they pay heavy toll to the second. Such was the actual case among the American Indians, who lived much as the Bushmen do and whose disease history probably was not much different.

CHEER FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

J. C. writes: Possibly a word to a twenty year old tubercular patient will cheer as much as medical advice. Both are necessary. It seemed impossible to part with my seven year old son, who wept bitterly and nearly broke our hearts by his combined patience and despair, but he left us for a year, finished his treatment at home and today, at sixteen, is well.

A man we knew said, "What that child did, I can do," and has waged a splendid fight with good results. Two women I know left home and small children, and today are carrying on at home with their families.

These people had far more to fight than a person who is not married and if it was realized that others have fought a more bitter fight and won out, cure would be possible. Tuberculosis is not the losing battle it once was, and a fighting spirit is half the battle in these cases. Don't try to be cured at home, accept help from so-called charitable sanitaria if necessary, and live to enjoy life in the future. Use your head and heart as you go along and you are cured.

REPLY:

You are right.

PITY THE POOR BARBER.

D. B. writes: I have been a barber for ten years. I shave all kinds of men and sometimes I serve a man whose breath makes me sick. To overcome these breath odors I chew a little tobacco. I do not smoke as much as a cigar a day on the average. I have been told that chewing tobacco protects me against disease.

1. Is that so?
2. Will chewing and smoking hurt me?

REPLY:

1. There is no basis of truth for that statement.
2. Smoking less than one cigar a day and chewing a little tobacco should not hurt you. You do not say how long a plug lasts.

My Friends and Felon Citizens—

yessir, it looks now as though the common people were going to get a chance. This is a land of equal opportunity, where one fellow is just as good as another, and a damn site better, if you ask him, but the dry commission makes us realize that things have been going all wrong. They point out in their reports to congress that the courts are so congested that the citizen whose infraction of the dry law isn't worth any more than a five hundred dollar fine, or a six months' jail sentence, doesn't get any attention.

No, sir, he's been practically ignored. And that isn't right! Every American citizen is the equal of every other American citizen. We said that before, but we want to hang on to it. But what is the condition we see before us today? Why, the courts taking care of the millionaire rum runners and beer barons and the Big Five and Ten Jones law boys and the hip flask and Own-Your-Own-Still boys can't get into court with a set of burglar tools.

That's what the commission points out, and Mr. Hoover says that things have got to be fixed up so that every American citizen, no matter if he isn't worth more than a couple of months in the county jail, is going to be taken care of. Well, that's right. There's Al Capone in a nice comfortable jail down in Philadelphia, but the commission says the laws haven't been able to take care of the greater number of our citizens.

Under Mr. Hoover's plan, Dr. Doran says that arrests can be speeded up fifty per cent. With 80,000 arrests last year and one hundred and twenty thousand to be made this coming year, you can see for yourself that it looks at last as though the common citizen was going to get something nearer to an even break. Yessir, we've got to quit building battleships and put the money in Bigger and Better Jails.

[From the Champaign (Ill.) News-Gazette via A. B. F.]

Due to an error, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ankrum, 104 West Healey street, are the parents of a girl, born Thursday morning in the Mercy hospital, instead of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ankinn.

WE ARE INFORMED by the public prints that three hundred ministers at an anti-saloon meeting in New York jumped to their feet, swung their arms, and gave vent to thunderous applause when James A. Doran told them the coast guards must use their weapons if necessary to enforce prohibition. So now, then, let us take up our Bible and turn to the words of Jesus as reported by the gentle John: "Little children, a new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another."

WELL, YOU WERE A CHILD ONCE YOURSELF.

Pathetic picture taken by our stiff photographer yesterday afternoon of a group of small Chicago schoolboys weeping bitterly because the public schools may close down in February on account of lack of funds. Some of the poor boys fear they may have to go skating in the parks, or even ride down the ice covered hills on their sleds.

BIOGRAPHY.

A passionate aloneness, long unspent
and uncommunicated, filled her eyes
with unshed bitterness. A grim surmise
that death alone was good came to torment
her youth that was not young. Yet others saw her lovely and unsused, a creature blessed by strange unneed of love; they had not guessed
she asked their simple touch more than their awe.

And so one morning just a patient cow
heard a lost cry, "I only never share
joy in companioned life. Come quickly death!
You be my friend." There was a sudden breath
of sunwarmth on the parting in her hair.

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 15, 1865.

WASHINGTON.—A vast amount of peace talk which now floods the capital is absurd. It is not true that ambassadors from Jeff Davis are on their way here or that any authorized ambassadors from Mr. Lincoln have gone to Richmond, or that there is any serious expectation of immediate results from either F. P. Blair's mission or that of Gen. Singleton. Even Blair was in no way authorized to say anything for Mr. Lincoln to Davis or any one else. His pass to the front was signed by Mr. Lincoln, and that forwarded to him under a flag of truce to Grant's headquarters was signed by James A. Seddon, rebel secretary of war. Seddon's pass reads: "Permission is hereby granted to Francis P. Blair Sr. to visit Richmond on private business. He will regard himself as on parole of honor while within the confederate lines."

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Gov. Fletcher issued a proclamation in accordance with the ordinance of the convention which declares all men free and rejoices that Missouri is enrolled among the free states of the north. The whole city is dressed in flags in celebration of the event.

LANSING, Mich.—A joint resolution was adopted by the senate instructing Michigan senators and representatives in congress to secure the passage of the resolution to amend the constitution so as to abolish slavery throughout the nation.

CHICAGO.—The rectifying establishment of A. E. Croskey & Co., 51-53 South Water street, was destroyed by fire. The loss was $90,000.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

JANUARY 15, 1900.

LONDON.—The war office issued a dispatch at midnight from Field Marshal Roberts, dated Cape Town, Jan. 14, stating "there is no change in the situation." However, a special dispatch from Cape Town announces that Gen. Warren has crossed the Tugela river in Gen. Buller's advance to relieve Ladysmith.

BOER HEADQUARTERS AT COLENSO.—Everything points to a great battle within the next few days. Ladysmith for the last two nights has been firing rockets.

CHICAGO.—Joseph Henry Gray, 88 years old, one of the early settlers of Hyde Park, died at the family homestead, 77 53d street. His widow, 86 years old, is at the point of death. Mr. Gray reached Chicago in 1836 and went into the grocery business. After the great fire he took up the real estate business. He was active in politics and once served as alderman from the old 2d ward.

CHICAGO.—In the basement of the saloon known as "Shaddy's Place," in Clybourn avenue, near Clay street, cock fighting was in progress all yesterday afternoon and evening. No policemen appeared, although the yells of the spectators could be plainly heard on the street.

LONDON.—Two Americans were killed and three wounded in a fight with an armored train of Gen. Semenoff, commander of the all-Russian army, between Lake Baikal and Verkhneudinsk in the province of Trans-Baikalia, a Harbin correspondent says.

VLADIVOSTOK.—[By Frazier Hunt.]—America's efforts in Siberia have been futile, costly and as miserable a failure as the north Russian allied expedition. The only effect of 16 months of military intervention has been to bolster up an unpopular and impossible military government by keeping open a purely military railroad, gaining for America the distrust and resentment of all classes and postponing final settlement of the Russian question by the Russians themselves.

NEW YORK.—John F. Dodge, Detroit automobile maker, who had been ill a week with pneumonia, died at the age of 54. He and his brother, Horace E., built the first bicycle ever seen in Niles, Mich. In 1901 they started a machine shop in Detroit and the next year when Henry Ford was trying to organize a company to begin manufacturing automobiles the brothers each invested $5,000. Mr. Dodge's $5,000 had grown to $12,500,000 when the Fords finally bought out the minority stockholders last year.

PHILIP YARROW'S DISCLAIMER.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—The story printed in Saturday's TRIBUNE concerning our trial of Walter Shaver is woefully garbled in part and untrue. Some of the questions you record were not asked and certainly the answers your reporter furnishes are derived from his imagination.

For a number of years I have led various movements for the betterment of the moral and civic life of Chicago. In all those many years THE TRIBUNE has been fair and even generous toward me. You have sometimes been opposed to our objections, but I do not recall where you have been unjust to us in your opposition. But your recent editorial and this story are both unjust and untrue.

I did not say I was "not exactly" an ordained minister. If I had been asked the question I would have said "Yes, I am a regularly ordained minister and a member in good standing of the Chicago Congregational association."

In answer to the question "Where do your funds come from?" I did not say we split with the state on fines in cases we instigate. The state has a good and wise law which provides that one-half the fines in cases of smut convictions goes to the informer. So insidious and destructive is the sale of this stuff that the state thought it wise to encourage prosecutions.

In this present campaign we have secured three convictions with a $100 fine in each case. Fifty dollars has already been paid to the Illinois Vigilance association. Not a dollar will come to myself personally.

The answer to the above two questions would suggest that we are collecting a large part of our income from this source.

In answer to the question "What is your salary?" my hesitation was due to the fact that I do not get a regular salary and I did not know for the moment what would be a fair answer to that question. Some years it is more—some years it is less. I have earned thousands of dollars on a salary whose amount was voted by our board of directors which I will never receive. This goes as my contribution to the work.

I was not conscious of "glaring at the lawyer." The judge did not instruct me to answer. I answered of my own free will.

Your reporter says that I "refused comment." I did not. And furthermore I did not "express hope that in two other cases now pending the society would be able to split the $100 fines."

To those who know of the work of the Illinois Vigilance association, with its twenty-three years of honorable service, and to those who know of my own work in this city for twenty-two years, these unjust and dishonorable attacks upon us will seem strange.
PHILIP YARROW,

BOOKSELLER'S DILEMMA.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Imagine the feelings of a bookseller who, since the Yarrow raids, is compelled to view every customer with suspicion. He can no longer take an order for a book unknown to him in fear of being arrested.
ELIZABETH HELLER.

FUTILITY.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 12.—It is curious that a newspaper fervently subscribing to Decatur's vicious words on patriotism should be the only large paper advanced enough to defend the right of adults to choose their own reading. How you manage to reconcile your strange collection of views is a puzzle that you might explain.

In your editorial on the refusal of citizenship to a distinguished divine you did a poor job and will satisfy no one: stating a problem fairly does not solve it and determines nothing. In the same way when you say every adult American citizen (why citizen?) has the right to read Frank Harris' "My Life and My Loves," you do nothing to prevent the breach of that right.

Granted your view is right, does it prevent punishment of book dealers by righteous, self-helping politicians? Good as your editorial was, it can well be described as futile. ELMER GERTZ.

GOOD RIDDANCE.

Orland Park, Ill., Jan. 12.—In regard to Miss C. K. O.'s letter about hunters shooting at her cat, I don't blame the men for doing it.

Out in this part of Cook county the hunters shoot every cat that is from 100 feet to 200 feet from its home. Each hunter knows it is within the law to do so or at least should know. I am an ardent follower of Bob Becker's articles in THE TRIBUNE and I am quite sure there was an article saying to kill the cat on the fields or the cat will kill the birds and destroy wild life as quick and sly as a weasel or mink.

Companion again breaks its record

WITH a gain of 46% in gross advertising revenue over the corresponding month last year, the March issue of the Woman's Home Companion sets a new Companion all-time record.

It is the largest issue of the Companion ever printed—in advertising revenue, in pages and in circulation—passing the record-breaking, million-dollar February issue—and following the largest January issue in the Companion's history.

These three issues—January, February and March—register a gain of 23% in pages and 30% in revenue for the first quarter of 1930 over the first quarter of 1929.

And 1929 has established its own record as the Companion's most successful year.

The Companion now has more than 2,600,000 paid circulation, a gain of more than 300,000 in 12 months.

Such a gain and such a growth have only one cause: they are for value received by reader and advertiser.

REBEL LIBERALS START OPEN WAR ON LLOYD GEORGE

Old Foe Attacks Leader; Decries Yoke of Funds.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—A scathing attack on David Lloyd George's personality, his leadership and management of the political fund was made today at a meeting of the Liberal party council by Viscount Grey of Falloden, who was British foreign secretary at the outbreak of the great war. The Liberal council was formed after the split between Mr. Lloyd George and Asquith, the late earl of Oxford, and has in its membership all the Asquithian Liberals.

Among those present today applauding Viscount Gray were Sir Walter Runciman, the great ship owner, and Sir Donald MacLean, who was for some time the official leader of the party in the house of commons.

Denies Welchman's Leadership.

Viscount Grey declared it was a mistake to believe that Lord Asquith's friends had become reconciled to Mr. Lloyd George's leadership and his fund.

"Mr. Lloyd George has given money to the Liberal party, it is true, but always after considerable negotiation," Viscount Grey said. "It is right, of course, that the leader of the party should have a good deal to do in how party funds are spent, but this is different. Mr. Lloyd George, in effect, told us that if we didn't do what he wanted we would get no money. But even if the Liberal party can clear itself of its dependence upon Mr. Lloyd George's money, there is still the question of our want of confidence in his leadership.

"Hero of Conservatives."

"He has not always been of the Liberal party. After a couple of elections he was the hero of the Conservative party, and after the war his leadership created a cleavage in the Conservative party. Precisely the same thing happened in the Liberal party and the cleavage is quite as deep. We have no confidence in his leadership."

Viscount Grey predicted a revival of Liberalism and appealed to the young idealists, who are now joining the Labor party, to wait a while before making up their minds. He also declared the parties are no longer rivals, but competitors. He asserted that the Conservatives, the Liberals, and the Laborites were all going the same way, spending money for "progressive" measures, and there was no real difference in principle between them.

WALES GETS DUCKING AT NAUTICAL RITE AS HE CROSSES EQUATOR

S. S. KENILWORTH CASTLE, Jan. 13.—[Delayed.]—(AP)—The prince of Wales acted as court barber this afternoon at the traditional nautical ceremony, of "crossing the line," when the ship bearing him to South Africa for a hunting trip crossed the equator off the coast of Africa.

The prince himself was initiated long ago and was therefore officially exempt from the duckings, scrubbings, and shavings, not to mention paddlings, which even heirs to thrones undergo on this occasion. But he got a ducking in the end.

Dressed in white clothes borrowed from the chef, the prince wielded an enormous wooden razor that was daubed with red paint to represent the blood of the shaven. Girl passengers as well as men went through the initiation ceremony. After a shave by the royal barber they were tipped backwards into a canvas pool of water. When the prince was ducked by one of the customers, he emerged smiling in time to see king Neptune, in the person of Admiral Ellison of the British navy, and his queen, a lady passenger, receiving similar immersion.

PREDICT END OF MANAGER FORM IN CLEVELAND, O.

Political Chiefs Comment on Hopkins' Ouster.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 14.—(AP)—That the city manager government in Cleveland, the largest city where it ever has been used, was killed last night in the ousting of City Manager W. R. Hopkins, was the belief expressed by political leaders here tonight. If they are right, within a year Cleveland may return to the mayor and council form of control.

Beaten last night by a 14 to 11 majority in city council, Hopkins began at once his plans for a "rear guard" action to regain his office, but had faint hope of success. He demanded that the reasons for the ouster be explained in writing and that he have the opportunity to answer them.

The council appointed a committee to prepare the accusations and within a week the deposed city manager will have their report.

Belief that Cleveland may change to the "old style," or mayor-council form of city government, was based on the fact that many of Hopkins' opponents were leaders in several previous unsuccessful campaigns to abolish the city manager form, while today many of Hopkins' friends were ready to join in a new movement of similar purpose —with the intention of nominating Hopkins for mayor.

Hopkins had been Cleveland's city manager ever since that form of government was introduced here six years ago. The general charge against him was that he "played too much politics in a supposedly strictly business position."

The deposed city manager claimed that the ouster was due to two causes, chiefly: [1] Dissatisfaction of the Republican organization over his handling of city employé appointments and salaries; and [2] alleged opposition emanating from the East Ohio Gas company against whom he has led a fight for lower rates.

Harold H. Burton, city law director, took the chair of city manager pro tem today, pending final disposition of the Hopkins case. The same councilmen who voted to oust Hopkins announced they had chosen State Senator Daniel E. Morgan to succeed him.

BILLIONS OF GALLONS OF PURE SIERRA WATER

Billions of gallons of sparkling, pure water have been captured in the Sierra Nevada Mountains . . . to insure an abundant, permanent supply for rapidly-growing industries and expanding residential districts of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Emeryville, San Leandro, and other cities of Alameda County, California.

Visioning a certain, logical, glorious destiny as "Western Capital of Commerce", millions were invested by a world-minded citizenry to complete the Mokelumne River Water Project . . . in world-record time.

Huge Pardee Dam, 358 feet high, releases 60 million crystal-clear gallons a day. Across lush valleys, under rivers, through hills in 84 miles of steel pipe and concrete aqueduct, this snow-kissed water speeds to the western edge of the North American Continent, on the eastern, land side of broad San Francisco Bay.

Mokelumne Project is an inspiring monument, in practical stone and steel, to this community's willingness to cooperate with America's foremost industrialists who plan western branches.

Momentum

A YEAR ago Liberty's net paid circulation had just edged past a million and a half. No other magazine had ever before attracted such a large, enthusiastic following of buyers in so short a time. Every copy was bought voluntarily; not a single subscription solicitor was employed. Of those things we were proud.

But Liberty's momentum had not begun to spend itself. A new record was in the making.

During the past twelvemonth, Liberty has lifted its net paid average 750,000 above that of a year ago. Notch another magazine record—for circulation gained within a year.

Liberty's guarantee of 2,250,000 net paid circulation for 1930 has been achieved months ahead of schedule. Again advertisers are enjoying liberal velvet above their contracts.

Liberty now has the largest newsdealer sale of any magazine. In recording these huge circulation gains Liberty has not deviated from its established policy: 99 per cent newsdealer sale. No circulation sorcery has been invoked. Through the persuasion of its editorial content alone, more people buy Liberty from the newsdealers than any other magazine.

For 1930: More than 2,250,000 average net paid circulation . . . and still on the rise

VATICAN PAPER SCORES FASCIST SILENCE ON POPE

Resents Press Ignoring Holy See's Encyclical.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, Jan. 14.—Severe criticism of the [illegible] silence on the part of the Italian press and its failure to acknowledge Pope Pius' encyclical of last Saturday was voiced in an irate editorial in the Vatican organ, Osservatore Romano, tonight. The encyclical scored coeducational, modern methods of teaching and again asserted the right of the Catholic church to control the education of the youth. It was addressed to the Catholics of all nations.

Pointing out the fact that Il Tevere in Rome was the only Italian paper in this Catholic country to give the pope's letter a half column play, while the rest of the Italian official press was content with a bare announcement of the fact that the pope had issued an encyclical letter, the Osservatore Romano draws a wistful comparison of this with the abundant space the papers here habitually give sporting news, police raids and other minor events.

See Need of Sacred Society.

As a direct consequence of this disregard for the religious and moral activities of the holy see and the Catholic church, the Osservatore declares the so strongly belabored "Azione Cattolica" and its Catholic papers are greatly necessary in Italy "to make it possible for the doctrine of the church, through the words of the pontiff, to be known by all Italy."

The Catholic associations, instead of being disbanded by the government, concludes the Osservatore Romano, are henceforth to be first rate necessities to atone for the "distraction" of those who voluntarily withdraw from the highly beneficial activities of the Catholic action movement.

Italian Press Hostile.

Resentment in Vatican circles against the Italian press for its hostile silence in regard to the doings of the holy see has been brewing for some time, and it has been greatly accentuated since the Italian press totally ignored Pope Pius' speech of last Christmas eve to the cardinals on what he deems are unsatisfactory conditions in Italy where Catholic activities are concerned.

GAVIN M'ELROY BURIED AS STATE EXAMINES BANK

While clerks of the state auditor's office yesterday were going over the books of the Blue Island Trust and Savings bank, funeral services were being held at a south side chapel for Gavin Blair McElroy, the bank's chairman, who last Friday shot himself to death, presumably because of financial worries. The bank was closed for examination following his death. The examination is expected to require a week.

Present at the funeral were Donald McElroy, a son who was associated with his father in the latter's widespread theatrical and investment ventures, and a younger son, Howard McElroy, 19 years old, who lives with his mother in California. The McElroys were divorced ten years ago.

McElroy's will, which was drawn in 1928 and is said to leave the bulk of his estate to his three children, will be filed for probate tomorow.

Bernard Nath, one of McElroy's attorneys, yesterday ascribed his suicide to an excessive worry over business affairs, to which, he said, McElroy had been subjected for six months.

Eskimo Tunes Warm Elmer on Chilly Eve

James Stanley Pleases as Baritone Soloist.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

The New York orchestral and vocal program, featuring James Stanley, as baritone soloist, from New York, through W-G-N, 8 to 8:30, was the outstanding program last night. This program formerly was for one hour. Mr. Stanley, who, by the way, is one of Illinois' sons, and from his performance last evening appears destined to be one of Illinois' notables, had no difficulty in winning the admiration of his audience. The likable character of his songs, the charm of his voice, and the clearness of his enunciation are deserving of praise. The orchestra's program was full of interest and their numbers were played with a zest.

The orchestra played the "Sixth Rhapsody," by Liszt, which we do not hear very often, and the first part of which is unusually fascinating. The piano part sounded lovely. The piano tone from our Chicago studios, in my opinion, has not the quality of that of New York and something ought to be done about that.

The W-G-N Symphony orchestra, Gaston du Moulin conducting, presented a Russian program from 8:30 to 9 entitled "Dances East" which was quite as unique as its title. Works of Mousorgsky, Glinka, and Korsakow were among the purely Russian numbers. The Hungarian composer, Lehar, was also represented. It was a capital program of first rate lively pieces, some familiar and some unfamiliar. We are promised another, and presumably similar, novelty next week.

I found the familiar Eskimos' orchestral program from New York, through KYW, filling the 9 to 9:30 hour, with the lower local temperature being utilized for some comedy that was not chilling, but warming.

Something of a novelty, though more of a medley, was the joint program by the Pace Jubilee singers and orchestral compositions by Alfred Wathall, from W-G-N, 9:30 to 10. But this program was only so so.

Louie's Hungry Five, rather Louie and the "Weasel," W-G-N, 10:10 to 10:20, are unquestionably striking the bell of poularity with a bang recently.

RICHMOND RACE SEGREGATION ACT IS HELD INVALID

Richmond, Va., Jan. 14.—(AP)—The race segregation ordinance of Richmond was declared unconstitutional today by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in an opinion which sustained the decision of Judge D. Lawrence Groner in the United States District court last fall.

The decision given today followed the city's appeal in which it was contended that the municipality had the right to restrict residence of the races.

Lucius F. Cary, assistant city attorney, who has directed the city's case, stated today that the city would carry the case to the United States Supreme Court of Appeals.

The specific case is that of the city of Richmond against J. B. Deans, local Negro property owner, who was denied the right to reside in a home owned by him in a district set aside for the residence of whites under the segregation ordinance. The city contends that the segregation ordinance is based on the Virginia racial integrity act.

FARMERS' GRAIN CO-OP CHIEFS TO CONVENE TODAY

The executive committee of the Farmers National Grain corporation will meet today and tomorrow in the corporation's headquarters, room 1010, Fisher building, and the full board of officers and directors will meet there Friday and Saturday. Ratification of various actions by the board of managers and discussion of policies are on the program.

Officials of the corporation announced yesterday that thus far 23 grain marketing corporations have purchased or have taken steps to purchase stock in the farmers' corporation. These 23 coöperatives will handle through the corporation approximately 200,000,000 bushels of grain in 1930, it is estimated. Recent operations of the grain corporation, an agency set up under the federal agricultural marketing act, include the purchase of wheat at Minneapolis and corn at Kansas City.

COL. RANDOLPH TO HEAD A. OF C.; ELECTION TODAY

Col. Robert Isham Randolph will be elected president of the Chicago Association of Commerce today at a meeting of the association in its headquarters at 10 South La Salle street. Col. Randolph was nominated for the office two weeks ago and has no opposition. He will succeed Charles Ward Seabury, investment banker, who has been president since the resignation on Oct. 1 of Frank F. Winans, who is now residing in New York.

Col. Randolph has been active in civic affairs for years, interesting himself particularly in the lakes-to-the-gulf waterway. He lves at 227 Shenstone road, Riverside. Other officers of the association were also nominated with Col. Randolph and will be elected today. Installation of the new officers will take place on Jan. 22.

YANKEES RUSH TO AID OF STARVING CHINA'S MILLIONS

British Missionary Bares Cases of Cannibalism.

BY JOHN POWELL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, Jan. 14.—As a result of an eyewitness report of the indescribable conditions of famine, destitution and human misery existing chiefly in Kansu province, affecting several millions of Chinese people, brought here by the Rev. George Andrews, an American relief committee composed of business men and missionaries is being organized here for the purpose of making an attempt to raise funds.

The Rev. Mr. Andrews is a British missionary connected with the mission school at Chefoo, but passed several months in dispensing relief in some sixty counties in central Kansu, where most desperate conditions exist.

Tells Story of Misery.

Addressing an audience composed of representatives of the Anglo-American and Canadian Missionaries' Union church here tonight, the Rev. Mr. Andrews told a story of the famine conditions, including an eyewitness' description of human misery resulting from crop failures, but aggravated by the disturbed military and political situation, as well as the Moslem rebellion.

The Rev. Mr. Andrews' account of conditions in central Kansu province ranged all the way from cannibalism to the sale of children by their parents as a means to obtain sustenance. He said the most serious conditions affect approximately 1,000,000 people, who are likely to die during the winter and early spring unless assistance is forthcoming at once.

He said a Protestant and Catholic missionary community of 100 persons has been working in the district since last May. Thirty were afflicted with the typhus epidemic and 15 died, but the rest are continuing to render help.

He gave the names of numerous towns where 200 persons are dying daily, the people dying faster than it is possible to bury them, and he described houses where the bodies were still lying on beds, providing food for dogs.

With reference to cannibalism he said the practice is widespread, and he had observed flesh carved and eaten. When Chinese officials tried to prevent this the people replied, "Who should we be, to be refused what the dogs are doing?"

He said the overland road leading from Shensi province to Kansu was lined with bodies of famine victims, and stated that his horse stepped over as many as 50 bodies in one day's journey.

The Rev. Mr. Andrews worked under a famine relief organization known as the China International Famine Relief, with headquarters at Peiping. He said a system was worked out by which relief was extended without mishap, and reached, with limited means, about 1,000 people in each town. He said that during the several months of relief work there was only one small instance of theft of supplies.

He added that while Chinese officials were doing little of their own accord to help the situation, the Chinese extended full assistance and coöperation to facilitate the work. He said that only two bags of food were lost out of 50 tons transported to the famine district.

FALSE TEETH
Can Not Embarrass

Most wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment, because their teeth dropped or slipped at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little Fastteeth on your plates. Makes false teeth stay in place and feel comfortable. Sweetens breath. Get Fastteeth at Walgreen Drug Stores or any other good drug store.

SENSIBLE winter vacation rates
...due to all-year activities

Information and books at Chicago office of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, 65 W. Adams Street

YOU can enjoy a "winter" vacation in Southern California at really low cost compared with equal accommodation at resorts elsewhere. This is because all the year this southwest semi-tropic vacation country is visited by tourists; its rates are based on activities that continue through the 12 months. Visitors from all over the world frequently comment on the moderate charges of restaurants and hotels, apartments, bungalows and accommodations of every kind—and class. Your expenses while here need be no more than you would spend at home.

With these definite facts before you there is no reason to give up a winter vacation...even though you may still be somewhat bewildered by last fall's perplexities.

Play on the ocean beaches and get the tang of salt air...always-green golf courses...hill saddle trails ...out of doors life every day in the midst of groves of ripening oranges! Entertainment is endless, if you wish it—or perfect relaxation and rest. The "winter" season here is only now approaching its peak . . . February, March, April are among the most beautiful months of the year!

Decide to come NOW—while your winter is at its worst. Treat yourself to the most enjoyable vacation of your life. We have published a beautiful book picturing this Southland. It contains 71 camera studies by the best men of this land of "pictures." You may have a copy for the postage cost.

HAWKS BEAT PITTSBURGH, 6-2; KEEP 2D PLACE

DENNY SHUTE'S 296 IS BEST IN COAST TOURNEY

Wins $3,500 Prize by Four Strokes.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Over the same flooded fairways and rain soaked greens that proved a golfers' grave yard for America's greatest, there tramped today a little known disciple of the royal and ancient game to win the championship of the $10,000 Los Angeles 72 hole open.

Young Denny Shute, from Columbus, O., whose brief two year career as a professional hardly rated him the honor of a gallery, hunched his shoulders into the wind and braved the torrential rains to post the respectable and winning score of 296. It exceeded by four strokes the efforts of such notables as Horton Smith, Joplin, Mo., star, and Bobby Cruickshank of New York, winner of the Los Angeles open in 1927. They tied for second place with 300.

Steady Golf Wins.

Smith and Cruickshank started today's first round three strokes behind Shute but failed to make up the lead. Cruickshank saw his hopes shattered on the morning nine—Smith's chances faded away on the incoming stretch when on three holes he went over par figures.

Not brilliant golf but rather a steady game that clung close to Riviera's par 71 figures brought Shute laurels as the fifth open championship here, one of the biggest money events of the winter season.

For four rounds the mid-westerner posted scores of 73—74—75 and 74 and for his efforts, Shute pocketed tonight $3,500, the winner's share.

Tonight Shute was as thrilled as any rank outsider should be in winning a major event. "I was a little shaky going into the last nine today," he said, "but when I sank that 22 foot putter for a birdie two on the fourteenth, I regained confidence. Now I'm going after the Agua Caliente championship next week." The Agua Caliente event, to be played for the first time, is the richest tournament in the world with $25,000 total prize money listed.

Al Espinosa Finishes Fourth.

Shute's victory was as remarkable as it was decisive. To top the field he conquered most adverse weather conditions in three of the four days and maintained his same unfaltering pace during the one round that was not played in rain.

His 73 on the opening day put him in a tie for third place along with Horton Smith and Leo Diegel, Agua Caliente pro. Adding a 74 in the second round he went into a 2 stroke lead over Smith. From that time on he was never headed. A 75 for the third round brought him a total of 222, three strokes better than Smith and Cruickshank.

Al Espinosa of Chicago posted a 303 for fourth money, while Tommy Armour had 304 for fifth position. Leo Diegel, winner of the Professional Golfers association for the last two years, tied with Mortie Dutra, Tacoma, Wash., with 305.

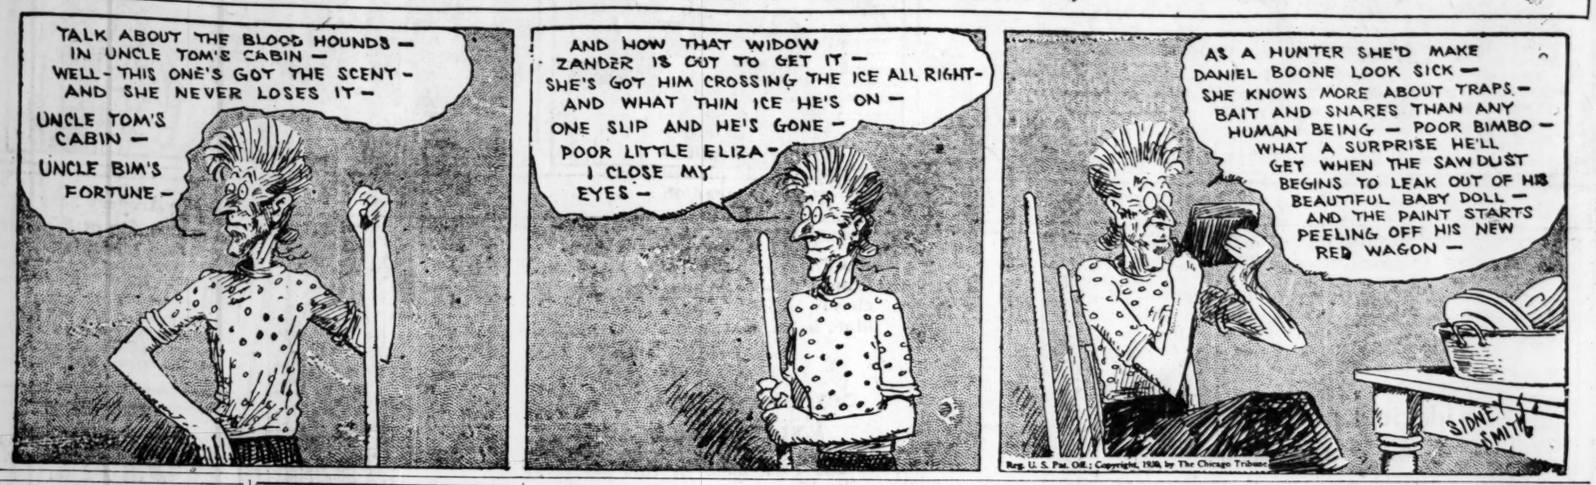
Early Morning Fire Sweeps Harvard Locker Room

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 15.—(AP)—Fire of unknown origin early today swept through the Harvard locker building, housing all of the Harvard athletic association's equipment. The building is in the Stadium enclosure. The locker building is a two story wooden structure. The Percy D. Haughton Memorial stands at the entrance to a courtyard formed by the locker structure and two "L's" of the locker building.

THE GUMPS—SOUP'S ON!



NEW NABOBS IN MAT BUSINESS FAIL TO AGREE

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—There appears to be some misunderstanding as to the present ownership of the heavyweight wrestling championship which was bandied about for so many years by the plump Ed [Strangler] Lewis, the Zbyzsko boys, Joe Stecher, Earl Caddock and Wayne [Big] Munn, the great clean influence and impromptu preacher from Nebraska.

One mail brings three placards of a very insulting nature, robustly typed in large handbill letters of the kind once used to advertise the showing of "East Lynne" at the town hall for one night only with the original Minneapolis cast and with recitations and funny sayings between the acts by members of the troupe at no advance in the price of admission.

Nothing Modest Here.

One of these state papers sets forth the virtues of Mr. Gus Sonnenberg, the former football player; another speaks of Richard Shikat in no modest phases, and the third, forwarded by Mr. Al Haft of Columbus, O., printed on yellow stock, pleads the case of John Pesek in part as follows:

"Are Shikat and Sonnenberg a couple of yellow title claimants? Are they both as yellow as the paper this poster is printed on? John Pesek, the Nebraska tigerman, says they are, and Dick Shikat and Gus Sonnenberg have never denied it. Are they a couple of cheese champions?"

Well, coming at one suddenly that way, Mr. Haft leaves one without an answer. I would like to answer Mr. Haft, too, because I believe he is the gentlemen who once went to some trouble to help a number of golf correspondents, including this one, attending the national open tournament in the Ohio desert along in August, establish relations with a case of Canadian malt beverages.

Curley Also Interested.

But those are strong words of Mr. Pesek's and I have called on Mr. Jack Curley for information to pass along to Mr. Haft, only to learn that Mr. Curley is a party to the controversy himself, holding proprietary rights in Shikat, and therefore no competent informant. Mr. Curley himself wished to know whether Pesek and Sonnenberg were yellow and said he had been running around this town for several months with 30 $1,000 bills in his pocket which he would be pleased to pay over to Sonnenberg the instant he, Sonnenberg, should enter his ring to try holds with his chap, Shikat. In proof thereof he showed your correspondent the very pocket.

Ordinarily the unimportance of the question of whether one wrestler is or is not afraid to practice wrestling with another one is rivalled only by the triviality of the class B roque championship of the middle Atlantic states. There was a long time there, up to a few years ago, when the boys seemed to have an agreeable understanding regarding rotation in the office of heavyweight champion and the press, beginning to suspect that the heavyweight championship bouts were not strictly competitive in all cases, began to favor them, one and all, with an unconcern such as only Vice Presidents of the United States of America had previously encountered.

New Blood, New Rancor.

But in time Mr. Lewis, the strangler, grew too portly to take his regular turn in office, the Zbyszko brothers, who were nigh onto 60 years of age

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

BY DON MAXWELL.

FILLING IN THE BLANKS.

ONE of our contemporaries hints that a terrible situation has arisen in basketball. He is shocked to learn that a "major university" has required a "minor university" to use a certain type of play when the two basketball teams clash. Our contemporary uses dashes in lieu of names of the two schools.

The major university is Purdue. The minor university is Loyola.

The classifications are our contemporary's. We'd just as soon use them interchangeably. When it comes to basketball the size or academic prestige of a university doesn't count.

But to return to the subject of the scandal. Piggy Lambert, coach of Purdue, asked Lennie Sachs, coach of Loyola, to use the man to man defense when the two teams play at Lafayette, Jan. 30. Loyola has specialized on a zone defense.

Sachs consented for several reasons. One was that Loyola has been attempting to break into fast basketball competition for several years. It doesn't mean much to Purdue to play Loyola (there is no natural rivalry, no historic competition) but victory over Purdue would mean a lot to Loyola.

Lambert considers the game a practice contest for the Big Nine competition. Big Nine teams use the man to man type of defense. Lambert asked Sachs to use the same.

It seems foolish of Lambert to make such a request. Purdue's team doesn't need that sort of help. And it looks foolish of Sacks to consent. But if both Lambert and Sachs are satisfied to play on that condition, why worry about it?

Incidentally, Butler plays Loyola on Jan. 24, and Butler's coach, Tony Hinkle, hasn't asked Sachs to alter his style of game. Butler beat Loyola two years. It was after that game that Loyola began the winning streak that has endured through thirty games.

GOSSIP.

Art Shires received $5,000 for his Boston bout. Shires had taken the Spohrer bout on a $2,500 guarantee. But when the advance sale went beyond expectation the Boston promoters decided it wiser to double Shires' pay than to have him develop symptoms of psittacosis. Shires has been paid $13,000 for his five ring engagements and in all has fought no more than half an hour.

Red Grange is staking everything on making good in the movies. He considers his vaudeville work the drudgery necessary to good acting. Last year's season with the Bears just about convinced him that his gridiron days are over. Grange has an optional contract with a movie concern—his first picture must go over or he's out.

PROMOTIONAL.

Two thousand boys and girls have entered THE TRIBUNE'S Silver Skates Derby (details in Eckersall's story) and two thousand more are expected to enroll. Fourteen years ago the first Derby attracted 116 skaters. If my figures are right, the entry list now is 34 times bigger than it was 14 years ago. If the ratio of increase should continue for the next 14 years, Eckersall will be listing 136,000 names in 1944. Quite a tournament.

George Halas wonders now long it will be before Chicago really grows enthusiastic over professional basketball. He now is trying to hire the highest priced player in the pro game. Halas realizes that the move is a gamble. But he thinks the presence of the clever Nat Holman might turn the tide. Professional basketball is interesting. Another year should convince Chicagoans that it is worth their patronage.

Loyola university's string of victories mounted to thirty straight last night, Coach Sach's cagers beating St. Xavier of Cincinnati, 18 to 13.

After Sack's short basket the northsiders took a 7 to 2 lead on two goals by Murphy and one by Schuhmann. Then the visitors scored two field goals. Both teams began fouling freely near intermission time with the Loyola center drawing three personals within a few minutes. The half ended with Loyola leading, 14 to 10.

The second half was an exhibition of the zone defense. Both teams would work the ball down the floor with slow, accurate passes only to lose the ball on an attempt for field goals.

Accurate passing of the visitors kept Loyola from using favorite scoring plays. The defense the Ramblers threw up against St. Xavier held the Ohioans to a single field goal during the second period.

Loyola's ace again was Charley Murphy, the lanky, center, who scored four baskets and a free throw for one-half of his teams points. Bill Sack, St. Xavier forward, gathered three baskets and a pair of free throws to lead his team.

MANDELL, RIVAL TAKE IT EASY; FIGHT TONIGHT

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 14.—(AP)—For the second time since their ten round nontitle seaside battle was scheduled, Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion, and Manuel Quintero today took things easy "the day before the fight."

Mandell and his opponent declared today that they were in pink of condition to go into the ring at the Miami Beach Kennel club arena tomorrow night. Their scheduled go Friday was postponed on account of rain.

The champion went through a light workout at the open air arena today

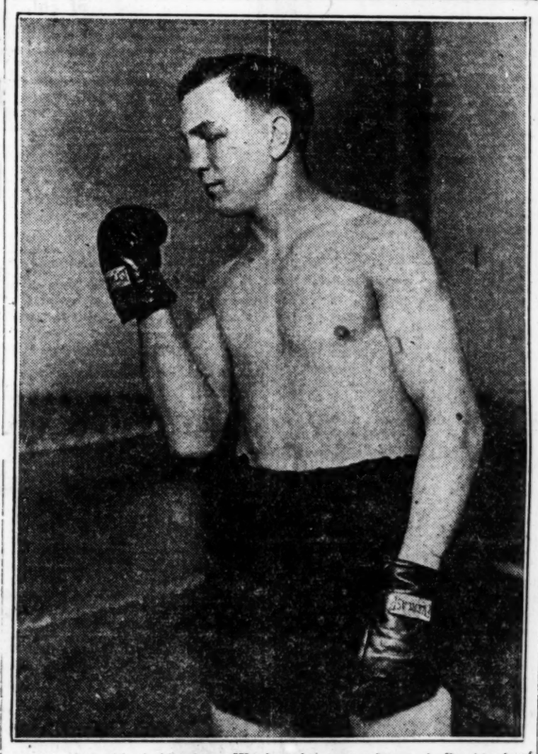
THE RIGHT THAT FLAILS



Lee Lomski of Aberdeen, Wash., who meets James J. Braddock of New Jersey in the windup of Jack Dempsey's show at the Coliseum Friday night, examines right hand which twice felled Tommy Loughran. It will be a battle of rights, for Braddock used the same weapon to knock out Tuffy Griffith in two rounds.

James J. Braddock Points to Griffith K. O. with Pride

BY EDWARD BURNS.

James J. Braddock would have the Chicago boxing fans and press become a little more reminiscent about his past performances. He feels that not enough has been said about his prowess as a knockout performer.

He places special emphasis on his treatment of Tuffy Griffith, something of a fistic hero in these parts. James J. fears that many Chicago residents do not know or have forgotten that he flattened Tuffy before Chicago's heavyweight pride had time to become accustomed to the lights and shadows in the hall. He also likes to linger over his reflections on the way he knocked out Jimmy Slattery, though he admits that that performance didn't rate as such a hot item in Chicago as it did in Buffalo.

Braddock isn't making any particularly large talk about what he's going to do to Leo Lomski at Jack Dempsey's show in the Coliseum Friday night, but he expressed no surprise that he has been installed as a 6 to 5 favorite, and thinks that he'll be even a better bet ere the gong rings.

Lomski has tired of his verbal efforts to laugh off the decision he lost to Maxie Rosenbloom in New York a couple of weeks ago, and has concluded his argument will be best served by whipping his New Jersey adversary Friday night. He's been promises another fight with Maxie if he handles the Braddock matter properly.

Leonard Sacks, Jack Dempsey's business manager, yesterday spiked reports that Jack might be the third man in the ring when Jack Sharkey and Fainting Phil Scott do their tableau in Miami, Feb. 27. Mr. Sacks spoke thus:

"Even if Dempsey were offered the post, he would have to turn down the opportunity because of theatrical bookings and his promotional ventures.

"The ex-champ is quite anxious to further his plans for the outdoor season, at which time he hopes to stage a series of bouts that will culminate in a heavyweight championship spectacle."

In the foregoing Mr. Sacks hints at something Chicago fans doubtless are hoping will materialize. Dempsey, it is pointed out, is a man who knows as much about heavyweight championships as Mr. William Wealthy Man Carey, Mr. Boy Bandit Johnston, and other New York gents who are seeking to take full charge of all championship matters.

Jack will have no difficulty in acquiring Soldiers' field, it has been indicated, and he appears to have the confidence and friendship of some of our biggest big shots, who made it possible for Chicago to set an attendance record at the Tunney-Dempsey fight two years ago last September.

When summer comes Jack will have paid rent and taxes in Chicago over a period of ten months, so no one will be able to designate him as a visiting fireman.

Promoter Jim Mullen, as the man who gave Boxer Shires to the world, still is trying to make some use of the young man's drawing power. Ten days ago Jim announced that C. Arthur was to appear in the ring of one of his shows and make a speech about how he hadn't been done right by in Detroit. Shires was in St. Paul when he was supposed to make the speech, but this one setback didn't discourage Jim.

Monday Mr. Mullen announced he was taking steps to have Shires appointed referee for the Trafton-Hoffman fight at his Rainbo fronton inaugural tomorrow night.

Last night's bulletin re Shires was that C. Arthur will be at the ringside and will heckle Trafton, then challenge him for a return match. It is promised that Art and George will wisecrack between rounds.

There is no reason to believe that Promoter Jim will not click on his third trial, for C. Arthur is in town, having arrived yesterday morning from Philadelphia.

Whether Shires is there or not, there will be ten boxing matches on the first Mullen fronton card.

MILLIKIN RISES TO HEIGHTS; NIPS WESLEYAN, 30-27

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—An underrated Millikin five rose to heights here tonight and subdued Illinois Wesleyan, the Little 19 basketball champions for four years, 30 to 27, and virtually knocked the favorites for this year's title out of the running.

The lead changed hands many times with Millikin on top, 15 to 14, at the half. From the opening whistle of the second half both teams fought frantically.

CHARLESTON TUTORS WIN.

De Kalb, Ill., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Charleston Teachers outscored an overconfident De Kalb Teachers quintet tonight to finish a four day road trip with a 41 to 28 victory. The Eastern State Teachers pierced the De Kalb defense for many shots. Hall was high scorer with thirteen points. Blaire garnered ten and Wassem and Venollo eight apiece. The score at half time was 19 to 14 in favor of the visitors.

FRANKLIN UPSETS BUTLER.

Franklin, Ind., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—For the second time this season, the Butler university cagers fell before a secondary foe, losing here tonight to Franklin, 34 to 20. Franklin took the lead from the start and at halftime led, 20 to 9. Central Normal of Danville is the only other school holding a victory over Butler. The Danville Teachers play a return game with Butler at Indianapolis Friday night.

KNOX, 32; MACOMB NORMAL, 22.

Galesburg, Ill., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Knox college opened its Little Nineteen conference basketball season tonight with a 32 to 22 victory over Macomb Normal. Normal's unexperienced youngsters put up a great battle in the first period, holding Knox to a 16-16 tie.

MONMOUTH, 24; EUREKA, 23.

Eureka, Ill., Jan. 14.—(AP)—A closing rush featured by Walkers' field goals in the last few minutes of play gave Eureka a 24 to 23 victory over Monmouth in a little 19 conference basketball game tonight. Monmouth led down to the last three minutes when Eureka started its victorious drive.

CARROLL, 34; BELOIT, 26.

Waukesha, Wis., Jan. 14. — [Special.] — Carroll college opened its Big Four conference season here tonight by defeating Beloit, 34 to 26, before 2,500.

MARQUETTE, 26; GRINNELL, 23.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Marquette took revenge tonight for a pre-season beating at the hands of Grinnell, scoring a 26 to 22 victory over the Iowans in a fast basketball game.

NEBRASKA WINS, 29-27.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 14.—(AP)—With the score tied and only a minute left to play, Don Maclay, Nebraska center, dropped in two free throws and the Cornhuskers won their second game in six starts here tonight by defeating South Dakota State, 29 to 27.

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS.

Boston Bruins, 5; Ottawa Senators, 1.
New York Rangers, 3; Detroit Cougars, 0.
Toronto Maple Leafs, 1; Montreal Maroons, 1. [Overtime tie.]

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Disregarding turmoil in the "front office" and the resultant appointment of Bill Tobin as successor to Tom Shaughnessy as manager after the game with Boston tomorrow night, the Blackhawks tuned up for the Bruins by putting on their biggest scoring spurt of the season. The flying Hawks skated off with a 6 to 2 victory over Pittsburgh as easily as a sparrow hawk soars off with a field mouse.

The game finished the first half of the season for the Hawks, leaving them in second place with 25 points, three more than they accumulated all last year. While the Rangers also won and are only a point behind the Hawks, the New Yorkers have played 23 games, one more than Chicago.

The game was only part of the day's grist of hockey news, the most important being the appointment of Tobin, business manager of the Hawks, as executive manager. Dick Irvin, former center and coach, remains with the team and will handle the players in games and direct their play.

Acquire Minneapolis Player.

At the same time another trade with Minneapolis, bringing Helge Bostrom to the Hawks, was announced. Bostrom is a 190 pound defense man and will fill the gap left by Dutkowski who goes to center. Bobby Burns, on whom waivers were obtained some time ago, was sent to the Millers in an even exchange.

From Frank Calder, president of the league, came a telegram that Art Somers and Bill Cook, who tried to knock each others ears off with hockey sticks Sunday night had been fined $50 each. No mention was made of lifting the suspension but it was assumed it was automatic. Somers was ready to take the ice but Pittsburgh protested. Cook, however, played with the Rangers. Somers is sure to be back in the game tomorrow.

The smallest crowd of the season, 6,200, braved the zero wind to watch the Hawks whip the league's tailenders. Tommy Cook, center, who has been out since the first of the year with an injured shoulder, celebrated his return to the game by taking the scoring lead among the Hawks. The little blonde center scored two goals and was credited with one assist. He also was partly responsible for the Hawks' first goal, but the

Bob Tries Hunters' Coffin Blind; Finds It Good Place for Nap

BY BOB BECKER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Tallulah, La., Jan. 14.—You are apt to get quite a shock when you hunt Canada geese down here in this waterfowl county along the Mississippi river. Your host may inquire if you would like to shoot out of a coffin blind or a pit during the course of the day's operations against the honkers.

Hall Allen, the boss of our hunting program put that question to us this morning. Not knowing what this "coffin blind" stuff was, we sidestepped it in preference for a pit in an oat field. Later the Louisiana method of fooling the geese by means of a coffin blind was revealed.

The boys make a long box some six feet long, more than a foot high and at least the width of a husky man. The cracks in the box are filled with tar so that it will be waterproof. Thus it is possible to sink it in the sand, in a wet field or anywhere they wish to use it.

Hiding this box with weeds, grass or twigs, the goose hunter has a dry comfortable shooting place. In fact it is too comfortable sometimes. Yesterday we occupied one for a few hours and with a warm springlike sun overhead, the chirp of robins in our ears and a soft wind rustling through the vegetation, we promptly fell asleep. This violates all the principles of goose hunting.

The pits in the fields are not so conducive to afternoon naps. They are simply holes dug in the ground five feet and are wide enough for just one hunter. Usually three are placed together. If you want to sit down there is a small box for a seat. Early yesterday morning when drizzling rain was falling these pits were small islands in a field of mud but that didn't seem to bother the geese.

Looking northwest across the fields to the levee and beyond to the timber, we could see the honkers come from the sand bars and make for the fields. Flying birds were apparently so close that we were almost afraid to lift our head out of the pit. Then the call "let's go" and bam, bam, the guns roar. Down come some of the fat old honkers and hit the mud with a loud thump.

MOYNIHAN CLUB ENTERS 34 IN SILVER SKATES DERBY; BOOSTS TOTAL TO 2,000

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

The Moynihan Skating Club of South Chicago will be represented by thirty-four in THE TRIBUNE'S fourteenth annual Silver Skates Derbies at Gorfield park, Jan. 25 and 26.

The entry, filed by Manager Thomas A. Carlos, is topped by Harry Overtoon, who will compete in the boys' senior. Other entrants in the same race will be Walter McNichols, Bill Minster, and Cliff Huggins. Harold Hahn and Mickey Mansen are the best of the intermediates. Catherine Rutherford is expected to win points in the junior girls' race.

The Rambler A. C. entry of forty-one also was received. Bob Benson is expected to predominate in the boys' juvenile and Albert Shray in the boys' junior. Helen Dambar and Ethel Sheely will be the club's aces in the girls' junior race, while Joe Fletcher and Jim McCauly will wear the club colors in the men's senior. Manager Terry Benson filed the team entry.

John H. Fahey, director of O'Toole playground, nominated fourteen boys, and the Gompers Park Skating club entered nine. The Cullen A. C. will be represented by eight, and the Brentano playground by thirteen. The Gladstone playground will depend upon fifteen skaters in the six races.

Although weather conditions are anything but favorable for skating, entrants are keeping in shape by playing handball, running around indoor tracks in various gymnasiums, and engaging in various types of athletics conducive to proper physical development.

Managers and captains of all skating teams are requested to send in their entries as soon as possible.

Meanwhile Duke Dutkowski, playing his first full game at center, scored once and helped Gottselig to another. Teddy Graham stepped into the picture, with a goal and an assist and Frank Ingram with two assists. Gottselig and Arbour each got a goal.

The Hawks matched their goals to the period, scoring one in the first, two in the second and three in the third. Arbour scored in the first five minutes on a neat interception of a rebound. Cook had stickhandled into the Pirates' defense area and shot. Miller blocked it, the puck bounding far out. Arbour swinging in from the left, picked it up, drew Miller out of his net and passed him. Except for that goal the play in the period was virtually even.

Cook scored his first goal, after a penalty on McKinnon had left Pittsburgh a man short. Graham began the sorties, with Ingram and Cook on the flanks. The three got in front of the Pirates' net simultaneously and Graham passed to Ingram, who also was blocked so he whipped the puck back to Cook, who shoved it into the net.

Adams went out and that meant a goal for Pittsburgh albeit a rather lucky one. Jarvis carried the puck down the right side of the ice and passed to Briden on the left. Briden couldn't quite hook it in but took a slash at it, a mashie shot that dropped into the net.

The Hawks, who seemed to have grown careless with a two goal lead, tightened up and Cook and Graham combined for another goal a minute and a half later. Cook bore down center ice and the Pirates' defense scissored him, yet he managed to pass forward to Graham who had raced in, waiting, at the goal's mouth. Teddy's shot was true.

Fraser Goes Out.

Pittsburgh again pulled up within a goal when McKinnon scored for the Pirates with a center shot from just inside the blue line that sped between Gardiner's legs. It was the only lapse of the Hawk goalie in the game. He made enough circus stops to make up for it, though twice drawn 15 feet out of his net.

Fraser was sent to the penalty box followed shortly by Milks and with the Pirates two men short the Hawks scored again. Dutkowski, Couture, and Gottselig bunched in front of the goal in a scramble that lasted a minute, ending when Gottselig took Dutkowski's rebound and pushed it over.

Two minutes later Ingram and Cook came through again, this time Ingram passing from the right boards, just inside Pittsburgh's blue line to Cook, who was clear in front of the net. Five minutes later Adams sailed down left ice, took a long shot and tried again with the rebound. Miller blocked both, but Dutkowski took the second rebound a couple of feet in front of the net, twisted around to avoid Miller and scored with a backhand shot.

Central A. A. U. to Hold 2d of Swim Series Tonight

The second of a series of Central A. A. U. indoor swimming championships will be held in the C. A. A. pool tonight. Championships in the 220-yard breast stroke, 100-yard free style and low board diving will be determined. A water polo game between the Cherry Circle team and University of Chicago will be staged in addition to several novelty events.

Chicago Archery Star Finishes 5th at Pinehurst

Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Phillip Rounseville, Chicago archery star, finished fifth in the annual mid-winter tournament completed on the ranges here today. Rounseville scored 1,143 for the York and two American rounds against the winning 1,491 total of Carl Thompson, New York state champion.

Bruins Play N. Y. Colored Team Tonight

CHICAGO.		NEW YORK.
Hickey	R. F.	Saitch
Kennedy	L. F.	Riehn
Kellet	C.	Cooper
Ely	R. G.	Jenkins
Russell	L. G.	Mayers

The New York Renaissance five, colored champions, will offer opposition tonight to the Bruins at the Chicago stadium in the first of a series of two games. The other will be played Friday night.

The easterners, on their record, appear to be as formidable as the old New York Celtics.

Sharing half the honor in the windup will be a game between the Taylor Trunks, national girls' champions, and the Olivet Baptist team. This is the first time the Trunks have played the colored champions.

The Bruins have rested since the first half of the American league race in Cleveland Sunday night, and should be in shape for the invaders. They are especially anxious to avenge a defeat handed them by Renaissance last week in New York City.

CANADIAN RING CHAMP DIES.

FORT WILLIAMS, Ont., Jan. 14.—[A. P.]—Angie McLeod, 24, of Fort Williams, Dominion amateur welterweight boxing champion, died today while undergoing a tonsil operation.

THOMAS LEADS SOX PITCHERS; SIXTH IN A. L.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The pugilistic displays by Art Shires and Lena Blackburne and the other difficulties that disturbed the baseball affairs of the White Sox last season didn't work much of a hardship on Al Thomas, star tosser of the staff. Despite the hazards accompanying employment as a hurler with the south side troops, Thomas was able to look out for himself, so well in fact that he placed close to the top in the official averages made public yesterday.

On an earned run basis, now the popular method of rating a hurler's efficiency, Thomas grabbed a berth six places removed from the lead which was occupied by old Tom Zachary of the Yanks. The ancient southpaw worked in 12 wins, against no defeats, and for effectiveness topped 'em all with 147 runs per game. Grove of the Athletics followed Zachary closely with a 2.82 percentage. Thomas had 3.9 runs per game scored against him, but his wins and losses were not quite so impressive. He won 14 and lost 13.

Finished 24 Games.

One thing in which Thomas had the entire party to himself was in complete games. He finished 24 battles in which he was the starting pitcher. Gray of the Browns and Uhle of the Tigers gave him a race by completing 22 games apiece.

McKain, by his spurge in the last couple months of the season, earned himself a position that indicates he may be a fairly handy worker for Manager Bush during the coming campaign. Offhand even the best informed fan wouldn't rate McKain above Faber or Lyons, but he nosed out both in earned run percentage. His mark was 3.65. Faber contributed a 3.88 pace and Lyons 4.10.

Ehmke Does Well.

Howard Ehmke's record for the year is of more than passing interest because of what he accomplished against the Cubs in the first game of the world series. Ehmke hurled only 3 innings all season. He figured in only two complete games. In one of those he gave the enemy two hits; in the other, four. This would indicate that when he felt like working he was just as tough for at least a couple American league teams which knew his style as for the Cubs, who never had seen him before.

Harrison Tech's Lights Win from Medill, 31-17

Harrison Tech's lightweights won their second league victory and their fourth in six days by defeating Medill yesterday on the Tech court, 31 to 17. Harrison led, 19 to 6, at the half and fourteen players got into the game. Lineup:

LINDBLOM WINS DOUBLE HEADER FROM HYDE PARK

Lindblom heavyweights, runners-up for the city title last year, scored their first league victory of the year yesterday by defeating Hyde Park, 27 to 26, on the home floor. Lindblom lights then rallied in the second half to trim the Hyde Park juniors, 25 to 17. Meanwhile both Wendell Phillips teams, leaders of the central section, were hanging up their third consecutive victories, the heavies defeating Tilden on the latter's floor, 37 to 18, while the lights took a 34 to 12 victory.

Listen, World! Chicagoan Challenges Any Bowler

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Sykes Thomas of Chicago has issued a challenge to any bowler in the world for a series of match games for $1,000 or $500 a side. Fred Thomas, his brother, will manage Sykes' bowling activities. He insists that the match games include sixty or eighty games in blocks of ten each.

Roosevelt Nips Lake View in Overtime; Bergbom Stars

Les Bergbom, Roosevelt heavyweight forward, led his team to a 27 to 24 victory over Lake View on the Roosevelt floor yesterday in the first overtime game of the City league season. Lake View led at the half, 15 to 13, and at the third quarter, 21 to 16. Roosevelt rallied in the last period to come within two points and Bergbom delivered on a long shot in the last minute to tie it up at 24 all. He added a free throw and a basket for the winning points in the extra period.

Gebbie, with 11 points, also starred for Roosevelt, while Capt. Athan and Dick Boyer featured for the losers. The Roosevelt lights made it a pair by trimming Lake View, 29 to 22. Wiedeman's nine points led the scorers. Lineups:

Golde Five Wins from Pick-Parths, 33 to 21

Golde's basketball team defeated the Pick-Parth quintet last night, 33 to 21, at Trinity gym. The Pick-Parth team, of former Big Nine stars and leaders of the Industrial league, had been undefeated.

Crane Tech, City league heavyweight champions, hung up their second league victory of the season yesterday by defeating Tuley, 31 to 18. Harry Denenberg, Milt Bocek and Maffia led the attack for Crane while Tempkin and Wandner featured for Tuley. Phillips, Rick and Pearl led the Crane lights to a 21 to 14 victory over the Tuley ponies.

NEW BLOOD IN MAT BUSINESS FAILS TO AGREE

in those days, became too elderly to carry on any more and new parties entered into the competition, bringing greed and rancor into a phase of the sport industry which had been distinguished for its harmony and orderly routine prior thereto.

Wrestling Deserves Amnesty.

As intimated, Mr. Curley is made unhappy by any remarks tending to reflect on the good repute of the wrestling industry, but conceding, for the sake of argument, that perhaps at some time, somewhere in some remote jurisdiction some two wrestlers had deceived the customers, he maintained that the industry had been punished enough and should now be given the same amnesty that was accorded the prize fighting industry throughout the country following the war.

This brought up the subject of the relative prevalence of conniving, stalling, and other forms of betrayal of the customers in the prize fighting and wrestling trades, and examination of the known facts and widespread suspicions indicates to me that the customer who attends heavyweight championship wrestling bouts at the customary maximum ringside price of $7.70 is cheated of much less money and cheated much less often than the customer who goes to a corresponding number of heavyweight prize fights, including the championships.

Wrestling's Good by Comparison.

Without going to the files I can recall a half dozen prize fights other than heavyweight championship matches, presented in this region within the last few years in which the customers were thwarted of their due and thus mulcted of approximately $750,000 in gate receipts, due to faking, stalling, or resort to the technical foul. In the meantime, the wrestling chaps have been carrying on in a very small way of business, suffering, although not to any heart rending extent for a number of sins of which their predecessors were widely suspected but never convicted.

If a principal in a heavyweight wrestling bout had gone out of action as promptly and with so little apparent provocation as Jack Delaney did one evening when boxing Jack Sharkey before the best people in the new Garden, the cry of larceny would have been loud in the streets and wrestling would have been outlawed forever by a special session of the legislature. And one hesitates to envision the ghastly end that Mr. Curley would have come to at the hands of a vexed attendance if he had ever produced a wrestling championship in which the customers received so little return for their contributions as the pugilists provided in the celebrated Miller-McLarnin, Delaney-Maloney and Scott-Von Porat affairs.

OPEN TENNIS.

TENNIS players, amateur, have expressed a majority preference in a submitted questionnaire for open tennis tourneys, similar to those of golf, in which both amateurs and professionals would compete for the open title.

The Wake approves this preference. We cannot see how it would do any harm and it would afford another tournament. Competition is the best means to develop proficiency in any sport after the elementals have been mastered. We do not know how many pro tennis players there are because there has not been competition of that kind. Prominent amateurs who have turned pro are limited in number.

While possibly not much good would come from open tennis, it is worth the experiment. Our young tennis players hardly are keeping pace with our young golf players, especially in this district. There are several reasons. One reason is because golf offers more opportunities for competition.

Sonnets of a Dub.

The other night they took me out to bowl—
Compared with golf, I felt, a simple game.
At ten top-heavy, tottering pins you aim
With great big balls, a most inviting goal.
Just twenty yards is all they have to roll,
And then you have three tries each round, or frame.

A golf dub here should really make a name,
No traps or water, no elusive hole.
I erred about the hazards—there are two.
They parallel that narrow, slippery, way.
The balls would find 'em in spite of all I'd do.
My final count was not impressive. Say!
If I could get at golf my bowling score
I'd hold a medal record evermore.

FARM BOARD STATEMENT IS BOON TO WHEAT

Prices Advance on Talk of Acreage Slash.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

A statement by the farm board saying that it would do everything possible to bring about a reduction in the wheat acreage in order to check overproduction and the purchase of several cars of No. 1 northern wheat at Minneapolis by the co-ops at $1.25, the federal farm board loan figure, brought about considerable change in sentiment yesterday.

General commission house and local buying helped advance prices 2⅛@2⅝c from the early low. Despite profit taking, the finish was within a fraction of the top, with net gains of ⅛@⅝c. Shorts covered freely on the way up.

Outside markets showed relatively more strength than Chicago, with Minneapolis gaining 1c for the day, although No. 1 northern in that market was again quoted at $1.25 at the last. Winnipeg was up ⅝@¾c, while Buenos Aires closed ⅛@¾c lower, and Rosario, ⅛c lower. Liverpool was sharply lower early, due to lack of demand and further offers of French wheat at equal to $1.15 per bu c. i. f. the United Kingdom, but rallied later and finished⅛@⅝d higher.

Sentiment Remains Bearish.

An oversold condition was disclosed in the wheat market, and the rally from the inside figures was not surprising to many operators. May at the inside sold at $1.27¾, a new low on the present movement. However, sentiment generally was bearish at the last, owing to the slow demand for cash grain, both domestic and export, and it was pointed out that buying of cash wheat by the co-ops did not help the situation to any extent other than affording a chance to sell country run grain at a certain price.

Foreign demand for cash wheat was disappointing, with sales of 400,000 bu in all positions, and the basis on hard winter at the gulf was easier, with No. 1 for January loading at Galveston offered at 4c over Chicago May. Little attention was paid to scattered claims of damage to the Indiana crop. World's available supply of wheat decreased 711,000 bu for the week, and is 448,616,000 bu, against 408,225,000 bu last year.

March Corn Easier.

While corn prices held within a relatively narrow range, the strength in wheat had less effect than of late and, with scattered selling, especially of the March, the close was unchanged to ¾c lower, the latter on the nearby month. Commission houses were persistent sellers, with purchases of 50,000 bu to arrive from the country. Heavy snowstorms over the west are expected to delay the movement to some extent. Buenos Aires closed ⅛c higher.

More attention was paid to the oats market, with cash and commission houses good buyers, and there was also buying of May oats against sales of May corn at 27⅛c difference. The finish was ⅛@¼c higher.

March rye was sold by elevator interests and showed an easy undertone a good part of the day, while the deferred futures were somewhat firmer with wheat. The close was ⅛c lower on March, while May was ¼c higher.

LARD SHARPLY HIGHER

Light offerings of lard futures, good buying by shorts and commission houses, combined with an advance of 25@25c in hogs and a strong close in that market, lifted lard prices yesterday from 20c to 22½c, the best advance in a long time. The close was strong at the top. Lard in Liverpool was unchanged to 3d higher. Exports at the seaboard were 1,246,456 lbs and of bacon 732,000 lbs. Deliveries of lard on January contracts were 200,000 lbs.

Bellies were hard to buy and closed from 35c to 37½c higher, with trading centered in May. Cash trade was fair, with shipments of lard and meats in excess of last year. Prices follow:

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Foreign demand for cash wheat from abroad continues disappointing, with sales of 400,000 bu estimated in all positions. A cargo of Manitobas was sold to the Orient from the Pacific coast. Argentine cables reported Europe was not buying. Local handlers sold 20,000 bu wheat, 70,000 bu corn, and 108,000 bu oats to the domestic trade. A local house bought 10,000 bu No. 1 rye to come from Omaha.

BUTTER AND EGGS RALLY

Encouraging storage figures for the country as of Jan. 1 and renewed confidence caused a healthy recovery in egg futures on the Chicago Mercantile exchange. A stock of 710,000 cases was revealed by the government report, against 1,415,000 cases a year ago, and 1,225,000 cases for the five year average. January futures gained $180 a car, 1½c a dozen. Other deliveries also advanced. Sales were 263 cars and receipts 7,963 cases. January butter gained $72 a car, or ⅝c, and February $96 a car, or ½c. Storage holdings for Jan. 1 showed continued large surplus, stocks totaling 81,837,000 lbs, against 43,783,000 lbs a year ago. The five year average is 48,580,000 lbs. Sales were 134 cars and receipts 11,921 tubs. Prices follow:

Top yesterday, $14.15; average, $13.35.

Estimated receipts at Chicago today, 8,000 cattle, 24,000 hogs, and 15,000 sheep.

Better grades of hogs sold freely at 25@40c higher prices yesterday, closing at the high point of the day, with few left in the pens. The extreme top reached $10.05, while the general average jumped 30c at $9.70, comparing with a top of $9.85 and average of $9.45 Saturday, the low point of last week.

All interests bought at the upturn and some orders for the lightest weights were unfilled, due to the acute scarcity of 140@160 lb averages.

Receipts at all points were disappointingly low, the total at Chicago at 27,000 being 8,000 below the advance estimate and 22,000 smaller than the previous Tuesday. A year ago Chicago received 49,938 and two years ago, 63,784. Aggregate supplies thus far this month are smallest for January in recent years.

Market Unsettled.

The hog market recently has been more unsettled than usual, owing partly to the uneven distribution of supplies. The trade, however, is gradually working toward a higher price basis, and demand showed fewer signs of narrowing when the $10.00 hog put in an appearance again yesterday.

Top prices have been at $10.00 and above on only half a dozen days during the last three months and at $9.50 and below nearly 40 per cent of this time. Until yesterday traders have been unable to hold the gain whenever the $10.00 quotation was brought on the market.

In spite of the fact that shipping demand for cattle is about as great as any time in more than a year, there was a lower tendency noted soon after the opening yesterday. Lightest weights and yearlings, however, were picked up readily at steady prices, some sales of specialties indicating strength after the market had been fairly well established toward noon.

Fancy 1,192 lb. long yearlings at $16.00 headed the price list, while bulk of sales at $11.50@14.00 compared with $11.50@14.50 a week ago. Monday's shipments of cattle from Chicago totaled 5,460. Only two days were larger during all of last year. Cows and heifers were barely steady. Calves held firm. Stockers and feeders were unchanged.

Heavy Lambs Drag.

The slowest market for heavy lambs this season was experienced yesterday and all of the gain scored since Jan. 3 has been erased. Additional price cuts of 15@25c brought prices to the lowest point in almost two weeks and 50@75c below the high spot of last week. Some 90@100 lb averages remained unsold until well after the noon hour, held on unsatisfactory bids.

Most 75@90 lb. averages were bought at $13.50@13.75, with a few up to $14.00 and one lot at $14.15. Lambs exceeding 95 lb. in weight sold at $12.50@13.00. Aged sheep sold slowly at the recent decline. Yearlings weakened off in sympathy with lambs. Country demand for feeding stock continued good in face of the break in fat lamb prices, and some good light feeding lambs reached $12.00 again.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

Wheat traders mainly regard the market as having no particular trend, although the undercurrent of opinion leans largely to the bear side. This is due to disappointment over the comparatively limited purchases of our wheat by foreigners despite the fact that they have frequently advised that they were dependent on North America for supplies. Until there is a change in their policy and other bullish factors develop, one of the largest local traders considers wheat a sale on sharp bulges.

In his international review Broomhall says that imports into European countries during the last two months have been kept very low by a combination of circumstances which are now being gradually modified, and he expects to see increased buying develop the ensuing six months. However, he says, indications point to a total season's imports of below their estimates.

A Chicago house cabled a buying order for wheat to Liverpool early in the day when their market was quoted at 9s 6¼d. A reply came: "No offerings at under 9s 7½d." This was take, as indicating that the Liverpool market was not as weak as quoted.

To Push Security Trade on Chicago Grain Board

Aggressive work is to be started to develop the security trading on the Chicago Board of Trade, as announced by John A. Bunnell, the new president. He has appointed a committee composed of active workers. Albert E. Cross is the chairman on the stock list. Other members are M. J. Hickey, J. P. Griffin, B. R. Brown, C. H. Re Qua, J. W. McCulloh, J. W. Badenoch, Fred Uhlmann, J. J. Bagley, A. F. Lindley, and A. S. Jackson.

The securities committee is headed by Thomas Youngs Wickham, the other members being Wallace Templeton, D. H. Annan, P. A. Copenhaver, G. H. Tanner, H. S. L. Reno, and E. H. Bagley.

Members of the regular standing committees are: Clearing house: A. W. Mansfield, P. M. Paine, Lowell B. Hoit. Cotton: J. E. Bennett, chairman. Executive: C. V. Essroger, P. B. Carey, Fred Uhlmann. Finance: C. V. Essroger, E. L. Roy, and P. M. Paine. Floor: J. C. Wood, chairman. Grain: Lowell B. Hoit. Market reports: Fred Uhlmann, chairman. Memberships: F. B. Fox, P. B. Carey, F. S. Templeton. GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, CORPORATE TRUSTEE.

J. J. Bernet, Esq., President of The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, has summarized as follows his letter to us describing this issue:

PROPERTY — The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company now operates 2,735 miles of railroad extending from the coal fields of West Virginia and Eastern Kentucky eastward to the Atlantic Seaboard at Newport News, Va., and westward to Louisville, Ky., and Chicago, Ill. Near Columbus, Ohio, its lines connect with the main line of The Hocking Valley Railway Company to Toledo, where connection is made with lines of the Pere Marquette Railway Company. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company now owns over 80% of the capital stock of the Hocking Valley Railway Company, and purposes, subject to authorization by the Interstate Commerce Commission, to acquire the properties of that company.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE — These Bonds are being issued to provide for the retirement of $31,390,000 4½% Twenty-Year-Convertible Gold Bonds maturing February 1, 1930, and to reimburse the Company in part for the payment of $3,698,000 General Funding and Improvement Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds which matured January 1, 1929.

Earnings— Years Ended Dec. 31	Gross Operating Revenues	Income Applicable to Fixed Charges	Total Fixed Charges	Net Income
1925	$123,184,103	$31,512,836	$11,360,567	$20,152,269
1926	133,974,031	39,415,418	10,120,615	29,294,803
1927	133,942,174	38,413,154	9,805,839	28,607,315
1928	124,825,172	38,956,806	10,039,881	28,916,925
*1929	129,719,000	41,581,000	9,182,000	32,399,000

In the five years covered by the above table, income applicable to fixed charges averaged more than 3¾ times the amount actually required.

Combined income applicable to fixed charges of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company and of the Hocking Valley Railway Company in 1929 (December estimated) amounted to $47,717,000 or more than 4½ times the combined fixed charges of $10,353,000.

SECURITY — Upon the completion of this financing, the $59,872,000 Series A and B Bonds outstanding under the Refunding and Improvement Mortgage will be secured by a direct lien on the entire 1,999 miles of railroad owned in fee and on the Company's interests in 666 miles operated under lease and trackage rights, subject to the liens, so far as they attach, of $98,225,000 underlying bonds outstanding in the hands of the public.

EQUITY — The Company has $148,620,491 par value of capital stock outstanding, which has an indicated market value, based on current quotations, of approximately $306,158,000. In 1929 the company paid dividends on its common stock at the rate of 10% and the aggregate amount paid on account of such dividends for that year totaled $13,333,335.

The foregoing is subject to the more complete statements contained in the circular, a copy of which may be obtained upon request.

THE ABOVE BONDS ARE OFFERED FOR SUBSCRIPTION, SUBJECT TO THE CONDITIONS STATED BELOW AT 94% AND ACCRUED INTEREST TO YIELD 4.80% TO MATURITY.

Subscription books will be opened at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., at 10 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, January 15, 1930, and will be closed in their discretion. The right is reserved to reject any or all applications, and also, in any case, to award a smaller amount than applied for. All subscriptions will be received subject to the due issue of the Bonds as planned, and to approval by counsel of the form and validity of the related documents and proceedings.

The amounts due on allotments will be payable at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., in New York funds to their order, and the date of payment (on or about January 30, 1930) will be stated in the notices of allotment. Temporary Bonds, exchangeable for definitive Bonds when received, are to be delivered.

MANY CHANGES MADE HERE IN BANK OFFICIALS

Congress Trust Has Young President.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Chicago has several new bank presidents and chairmen today as the result of annual elections held yesterday by a majority of the banks.

The Congress Trust and Savings bank boasts one of the city's youngest presidents with the election of William F. Gregson, who is 34 years old. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, served as a lieutenant during the war, and had been associated with the Central Trust company of Illinois and the United Autographic Register company.

Another new bank president is Carl Lemberg of the Halsted Exchange National bank. Among the new chairmen are Philip F. W. Peck of the Congress Trust and Savings bank and Otto J. Gondolf of the Citizens' State bank.

A number of well known business men and politicians figured in changes in directorates. United States Senator Charles S. Deneen was succeeded by George Hermann in the Stony Island State Savings bank. Arthur Meeker was succeeded by Eugene V. R. Thayer in the Stock Yards Trust and Savings bank. William H. Malone, chairman of the Illinois tax commission, became a director of the Jefferson Park National bank; Francis L. Boutell, county commissioner, joined the Broadway National bank, and Ald. B. J. Zintak was added to the board of the Depositors' State bank.

Charles S. Pearce, president of the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet company, was made a director of the First National bank, and A. E. Cross, president of Cross, Roy & Harris and trustee of Northwestern university, joined the Terminal National bank. William Veeck, president and treasurer of the Chicago National league baseball club, was made a director of the Hinsdale State bank.

Stockholders of the Bowmanville National bank voted to increase the capital stock from $200,000 to $300,000 by declaring a 50 per cent stock dividend from surplus. Earnings last year were equivalent to 37 per cent on the capital stock.

Scrutator Discusses Trend to Concentration of Power

BY SCRUTATOR.

Last year the United States paid more than two billion dollars for electrical energy generated by central stations. Statistics in the Electrical World show that the exact total, $2,107,000,000 was about 165 millions above the 1928 bill and a new record.

The industrial regions bordering on the Great Lakes and the middle Atlantic seaboard paid for more than half of all this electricity. As electrical consumption is regarded as correct an indication as any of the relative economic importance of any region in the country, and as these states increased their demands for it in about the usual ratio, it may fairly be assumed that manufacturing activities are showing no trend to leave these sections, rather the contrary.

Higher Utility Budget.

This year the utilities companies have, as a construction budget, the sum of 913 million dollars, which compares favorably with 866 millions last year. As the present investment in electric utilities is figured at more than 11 billions, the facilities should increase in 1930 by 8 per cent or more. Last year the total output of kilowatt hours, more than 94 billion, if the small amount imported is included, exceeded 1928's record by about 12 per cent.

In a short span of but seven years, electrical consumption in this country has doubled. A prediction that it will double again by 1937 is accepted without grave doubts. All the available information points to a further consolidation of power production in central stations rather than more at the plant steam installations.

A rather significant feature of the annual report on power is that 36.4 per cent of the total was water generated in 1929, as against 40.4 per cent in 1928. Abnormally low water supplies were in a measure responsible for the hydro losses, but relatively outlays for water development were lower last year than in some previous years and the expenditures this year are regarded as likely to be still less.

Field for Battle.

Hydro power has been the center of some fierce battles in the past. Under certain circumstances it is economical, as at Niagara and in Canada, where coal is scarce and water plentiful. But the virtual certainty that industrial growth will continue to center in the great lakes region and on the mid-Atlantic, while most of the undeveloped water power is in far off sections, seems to indicate clearly that an ever larger percentage of the new power supply will come from steam plants.

Moreover, generation cost is hardly ever the main consideration. It is transmission and distribution that cost most. Arthur Huntington states that in some remote rural sections 95 per cent of the consumer's payments go for delivery after generation. This is hardly typical, but he relates that residential customers in the middle west must pay about 85 cents for each monthly bill, on the average, in line charges, if there are a hundred customers to the mile of conducting line, with changes where the number is greater or less. A certain density of population and nearness to the source are still essential to cheap power.

SHAREHOLDER ASKS RECEIVERS FOR THE KOLSTER RADIO CORP.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—Declaring that the Kolster Radio corporation has been run at a loss and that listing of the company's patents among assets at $7,001,768 constituted a fictitious rating, David Schiffman, holder of 200 shares in the company, applied for appointment of receivers for the corporation in Paterson, N. J. The corporation was ordered to show cause on Jan. 21 why receivers should not be appointed.

Schiffman alleged the patent rights had no value and were a part of a "scheme and connivance" to sell stock. A statement issued in September, he said, showed a loss of $916,233.

Kolster common today sank to a new low on the New York stock exchange, touching 2½, off 1½ points from last night's closing. It closed at 1¾. Last year, before the market crash, Kolster sold as high as 78¾ here and 79½ on the San Francisco stock exchange. Rudolph Spreckels, head of the Spreckels Sugar corporation, is chairman of the board and the dominating factor in the company. Ellery W. Stone is president.

Nat'l City Bank Has 1929 Net Earnings of $26,587,841

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—Charles Mitchell, chairman of the National City bank, declared today his confidence in the soundness of the business structure of the United States and predicted that the present recession will not be of long duration. His statement was part of the annual report of the National City bank, which showed an increase in net earnings of $5,585,961 in 1929 compared with 1928.

Mr. Mitchell's statement, delivered to stockholders of the bank at the annual meeting, said that net earnings in 1929 totaled $26,587,841. In 1928 net earnings were $20,728,880.

Mr. Mitchell explained to stockholders that out of the foregoing profits the bank, according to its fixed rule, applied a contingency reserve of $3,050,880, and dividends of $13,510,000 were paid. After the year-end adjustment a balance of $9,406,327 was carried to undivided profits, against $5,817,659 carried to undivided profits at the previous year-end.

Has More Shareholders.

A substantial increase in the number of shareholders in the National City bank occurred during the year, it was revealed in the chairman's report. The number on Dec. 31 last was 62,868, against 18,402 a year ago.

"All in all, the last year has cleared itself of the dangers that menaced it from its start. The correctives have caused the new year to begin with a somewhat diminished business activity, but the business organization is not incapacitated in any respect, nor is the physical wealth of the country impaired," said Mr. Mitchell.

"Quite generally industry and trade are more adequately financed than at any time in the past. No serious disturbance of commodity prices has occurred. The decline of interest rates is favorable to enterprise and the amount of constructional work planned for is greater than usual. It does not appear probable that business will remain below the normal stage of activity for any protracted period."

Affect of Stock Crash.

Referring to the year's operations of the National City company, Mr. Mitchell said "these were adversely affected by the security crisis and investments stagnation of the last quarter, but with all securities inventories of a transient or current business character figured at cost or market, whichever the lower, and with provision against losses that may occur as an aftermath of the crisis of November, the profits for the year amply covered the payment of the year's dividends."

As to the part played by the National City bank in the security market, its Wall street loans were only about eight per cent of its loans and discounts, and also, the bank borrowed sparingly of federal reserve credit.

New York, Jan. 14.—This stock market is gradually becoming an affair of "daily dozens." Every morning at the stroke of the trading gong the dwindling crowd of professional traders waltz out their little cluster of hand picked favorites and begin putting them through their paces virtually ignoring the rest of the list.

As the day wears on small time transactions by the uninitiated bring one or another of the "overlooked" host out on the tape to fill in another gap, so that by closing time there are enough "fillers" on the record to make it look like a stock market table—provided it is not scrutinized too carefully.

But always—here of late—a handful of out of the hundreds of listed issues furnish the bulk of the activity, whatever direction it may take. Three or four standbys may be found in every selection, but each day brings forth its quota of new try-outs.

Usually Tops List.

Steel usually tops the list. Consolidated Gas is nearly always among "those present" and here of late International Nickel has had a seat in the front row. These three were out in front today as usual. With them—to complete the "dozen"—were American Tobacco, Gillette, Radio Keith, United Aircraft, Allegheny, Industrial Alcohol, Chesapeake corporation, Air Reduction, and United Gas Improvement.

Which gets down to the trite fact—chronicled from day to day, for many weeks but as obtrusive still as a

CHICAGO AREA '29 BUILDING IS $280,256,234

The Chicago metropolitan area's contribution to the building industry for last year was $280,256,234. This figure was given out yesterday as the volume of building for the city and the forty-three principal suburbs in the forty mile limit as compiled by the building survey department of S. W. Straus & Co.

While many suburbs indicated losses, Joliet, East Chicago, Lake Forest, North Chicago, and Westchester made gains over 1928, and numerous suburbs made gains in December as against November, 1929, indicating a slightly upward trend after the sharp November slump.

Crude Oil Production Shows Rise During Week

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The daily average gross crude oil production in the United States increased 36,950 barrels for the week ended Jan. 11, totaling 2,689,250 barrels, according to the weekly summary of the American Petroleum institute. The daily average production east of California was 1,989,550 barrels, an increase of 37,750 barrels.

Finds Steel Ingot Output Continuing to Increase

New York, Jan. 14.—Production of steel ingots continues to increase, Dow, Jones & Co. reported today, adding that this trend was contrary to the situation a year ago, when operations declined after the spurt following Christmas and New Year holiday curtailment. The industry is now averaging between 65½ and 66 per cent of rated capacity, as against 59 to 60 per cent a week ago, and 38 to 39 per cent during the holiday shutdown. Steel mill operations in and around Chicago are reported to be operating now at between 65 and 70 per cent of rated capacity. Twenty-one of the 36 stacks in the district are active.

U. S. Steel Employes to Get New Stock Offering

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—Another offering of stock to employés has been announced by the United States Steel corporation. The offering made today consists of 100,000 shares, the same amount as was offered in May, 1929, and the price was placed at $169 a share by the finance committee. The May offering was made at a price of $165 a share. The shares of the company closed today on the New York stock exchange at 171. The same shares sold fractionally above 261 during 1929 and at the time of the stock break held at $150.

HARRY SINCLAIR CONFERS ON OIL CONSOLIDATION

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Harry F. Sinclair, head of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation, and officials of the Rio Grande Oil company conferred here today relative to the proposed merger of the two concerns in an $800,000,000 transaction. They planned to leave for the west to continue their conferences and inspect the Rio Grande's properties.

In an authorized statement for Sinclair it was said that the negotiations for the absorption of the Rio Grande company are in a preliminary stage and that no decision would be reached until after all the properties have been inspected and a large amount of data studied.

"For some time the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation and the Prairie Oil and Gas company have been considering consolidation," said the statement.

Checker Taxi Re-elects Healy and McLaughlin

Despite internal disputes of the past, the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Checker Taxi company yesterday was entirely harmonious. With 3,000 stockholders voting, either in person or by proxy, the officers, headed by Thomas J. Healy, president of the board, and R. E. McLaughlin, president, were reëlected without a dissenting vote.

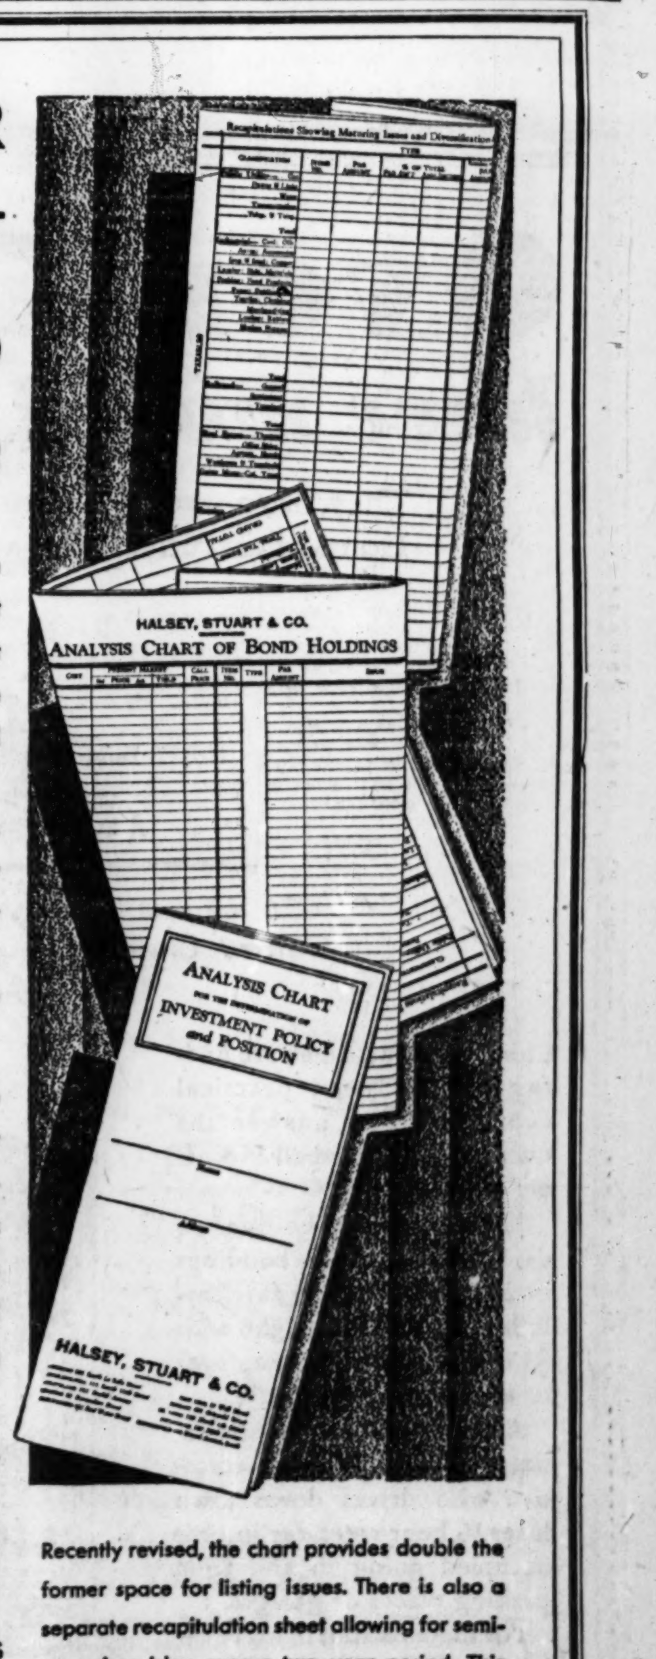
HAS YOUR INVESTMENT POSITION CHANGED IN THE PAST YEAR?

IT IS always advisable to check up your investment position periodically, but even more so after a period of unsettlement in the security markets. If you have not surveyed your investment holdings recently, may we urge you to do so—and offer you the help of a chart which will make such analysis convenient and simple.

This chart cannot, of course, tell you how sound your securities are, but it can give you a composite picture of them. It will show whether or not your account is well balanced and suited to your present needs. It may help you to discover weaknesses. It will show how much diversification, how much tax exemption you now have, and how maturities are distributed.

The Analysis Chart illustrated here is based on forms we use in making exhaustive analyses of large investment holdings. It has been simplified for the use of the average investor who prefers to make his own analysis before taking up specific questions with his investment house. It may suggest some advisable changes in your holdings. Or, if you are making further investments, it will indicate in a general way what you should buy. Many use it as a convenient record of their investment holdings.

You may have a copy of this Analysis Chart by writing for it.



Recently revised, the chart provides double the former space for listing issues. There is also a separate recapitulation sheet allowing for semi-annual revision over a two-year period. This enables an accurate survey of the investment structure at all times. An added feature is the "maturity tickler" where issues maturing in the current year may be listed.

UPS, DOWNS GET EVEN BREAK IN TRADING HERE

Chicago Stock Quotations Are Irregular.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Price changes in the Chicago stock list were irregular yesterday, with the up and down side getting about an equal number of recruits. The most noticeable improvement was made by United Gas, which continued an upward course and finished the day with a net advance of 3¼. Approximately 3,000 shares of the issue changed hands.

The total volume of sales on the exchange amounted to 153,000 shares, an expansion of about 18,000 shares. The weak side was made up mostly of narrow recessions, though Ryerson & Son dropped more than 3 points on light trade.

Effect of Report.

The immediate effect of the publication of the report of the Continental Chicago corporation was to bring on considerable selling in the issue, but the stock rallied and closed with a net gain of less than a point. The report brought on a flurry of activity in investment group, but few price changes of importance were recorded. Chicago Corporation declined a minor fraction and closed at 14.

Automotive stocks showed little inclination to move either way. Auburn retreated 2, while Borg Warner improved about a point.

Grigsby dropped a fraction in the face of news that De Forest Radio company had instituted injunction proceedings seeking to restrain Grigsby from manufacture of tubes using the grid winding machine for which De Forest claims exclusive patent rights. B. J. Grigsby, president, stated that his company was using the process under license from the Radio Corporation of America.

D. S. Diamond, president of the Federal Screw Works, reported yesterday that preliminary figures indicate that net earnings for 1929 will approximate $6 a share. Mr. Diamond estimated that January production of the firm will equal that of a year ago and February and March should exceed the output of the same months last year.

Complete Consolidation.

Consolidation of the California water service subsidiaries of the American States Public Service company has been completed according to an announcement and are now known as the American States Water Service Company of California.

Another record breaking year in road machinery field is predicted by President Roy E. Adams, president of the J. D. Adams Manufacturing company. The road building programs of the various states and federal government insure a good year, he stated. Sales of the company last year of road building machinery broke all records, according to Mr. Adams.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Cotton goods were in a little better demand especially in fine and fancy lines for converting. Blankets have become active for fall delivery. The demand for gray cloths and silk for printing is broader. Sheer woven fabrics are scarce for quick use. Broadsilks are gaining. Burlaps held the advances of Monday. The wool institute will convene its membership late this month to decide upon dates for fall openings.

Over 500 Firms have moved out of the Loop!

They Save over $50,000 in light bills. They Save over 100,000 Hours of executives' time wasted by congestion and parking difficulties.

See this new building, 541 feet west of Michigan Avenue on Ohio Street. Low rentals — More efficient layouts — The farthest corner of your office within 24 feet of a window.

Chicago business men are finding entirely new, practical economies that answer the question, "Where shall I locate my office?"

More work can be done in daylight offices. Few buildings in the congested loop have daylight, and artificial light adds $12.00 per year per employee to your overhead expense.

A noted efficiency expert estimates that the average executive who drives down town loses ½ hour every day in time occupied going to and from parking places or garages.

For these reasons many of the largest businesses in Chicago have moved to the near north Michigan Avenue section.

Before you sign another office lease, investigate the new American Bankers Insurance Building at Wabash and Ohio, illustrated here. In this building your office will enjoy the finest, most modern interior appointments. Its beautiful and dignified lobby and entrance show at a glance the high quality that prevails throughout the building.

A low rate permits substantial savings in rent plus the advantage of important savings in your time due to parking facilities, and the added efficiency of daylight quarters undisturbed by the noises of street car and elevated traffic.

This location can be reached more quickly from every side of the city than any point in the congested loop.

You owe it to your business to investigate these advantages and this new tendency in the location of fine offices. Ready for occupancy immediately. Send for floor plans, photographs and descriptive literature.

North American Edison Company

5% Debentures, Series C

To be dated November 15, 1929 — To mature November 15, 1969

Interest payable May 15 and November 15, without deduction for Federal income tax not exceeding 2% per annum. Principal and interest payable in New York in United States gold coin. Coupon debentures of $1,000 denomination, registerable as to principal only. Redeemable as a whole, or in part by lot, on the fifteenth day of any month on 30 days' notice, (1) to and including April 15, 1932 at 107 and interest, with successive reductions in the redemption price of ¼ of 1% during each fifteen months' period thereafter to and including January 15, 1966, and thereafter until maturity at 100 and interest, and (2) under certain conditions upon sale of certain assets, at 100 and interest. The indenture is to contain provision for refund of the Pennsylvania personal property tax not exceeding four mills per annum. Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, New York, Trustee.

The following information has been summarized by Mr. Edwin Gruhl, President of North American Edison Company, from his letter dated January 14, 1930, copies of which may be obtained upon request, and is subject to the more complete information contained therein:

BUSINESS

North American Edison Company, organized under the laws of Delaware in 1922 as a subsidiary of The North American Company, controls through stock ownership, directly or through subsidiaries, important public utility operating companies, including The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company, Union Electric Light and Power Company (St. Louis), Mississippi River Power Company, Union Electric Light and Power Company of Illinois, The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company, Wisconsin Electric Power Company, Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company and Wisconsin Michigan Power Company.

The earnings of the operating subsidiaries of North American Edison Company are derived principally from electric light and power business, more than 76% of gross earnings and more than 88% of net income from operation during the twelve months ended September 30, 1929 having come from that source.

CAPITALIZATION

Upon completion of this financing, the capitalization of the company (subject to further conversions of Series A debentures into preferred stock after January 13, 1930) will be as follows:

	Authorized	Outstanding
Debentures	*
5%, Series A, due March 1, 1957		$12,848,000
5½%, Series B, due August 15, 1963		20,000,000
5%, Series C (this issue)		25,000,000
Preferred Stock (without par value), cumulative dividends $6 per share per annum	500,000 shares	319,520 shares
Common Stock (without par value)	500,000 shares	460,000 shares

*Additional debentures of any series may be issued subject to indenture restrictions.
128,480 shares reserved against conversion of Series A debentures.

As of September 30, 1929, there were outstanding with the public $219,291,301 of funded debt of subsidiaries (adjusted to include all funded debt issued subsequent to that date) and $77,747,792 of preferred stocks of subsidiaries.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE

The purpose of this issue of Series C debentures is to provide funds for additional investments in the company's subsidiaries, and for other corporate purposes.

EARNINGS

Consolidated earnings of the company and its subsidiaries for the five years ended December 31, 1928, and for the twelve months ended September 30, 1929, were as follows:

Year ended Dec. 31	Gross earnings	Net income from operation	Interest charges and preferred dividends of subsidiaries, and minority interests	Depreciation	Balance after depreciation but before interest charges and credits of North American Edison Company	Total interest charges of North American Edison Company*
1924	$66,315,449	$25,358,375	$ 9,938,381	$6,613,829	$ 8,806,165	$1,490,528

12 months to Sept. 30, 1929	98,673,722	46,950,521	16,734,658	10,901,800	19,314,063	1,926,287

*Without deducting interest credits.

The above balance of $19,314,063 for the twelve months ended September 30, 1929 is more than 6.4 times the annual interest requirement of $2,992,400 on the $57,848,000 principal amount of debentures of the company to be outstanding upon completion of this financing, as shown above. For the same period, the net income of the company itself, from dividends, interest and other sources, applicable to the payment of its interest charges, was more than 3.2 times such annual interest requirement. The policy of the company has been to leave a substantial portion of the net earnings of subsidiaries in their surplus accounts and invested in their businesses.

The company has agreed to make application in due course to list the Series C debentures on the New York Stock Exchange.

We offer these debentures for delivery if, when and as issued and accepted by us, subject to the approval of legal proceedings by counsel. It is expected that delivery will be made on or about January 28, 1930, in the form of temporary debentures, or interim receipts of Dillon, Read & Co.

Price 95½ and interest. Yield over 5.25%

What Policy Should Be Behind Your Investments?

Income return or enhancement in value are the only two ways through which an investor profits.

With prices at today's far lower levels, income for the first time in many months is again on a more normal basis. There should however, be as much emphasis as ever placed on the selection of securities that will show a growth in value.

What Securities to Buy?

Investors should be particularly careful to avoid disastrous speculation, and to place funds only in securities of well managed and growing corporations. It is the purpose of Brookmire Service to help individuals to do this.

The current Brookmire Bulletin

(1) discusses the general position of investments—
(2) analyzes a specific industry—the tobacco manufacturers—
(3) sets a policy, designed to combine safety and return to best advantage.

Our 49th Anniversary Gift Offer

ANOTHER year has been added to this company's long record of "never a loss to any investor."

Since 1881 thousands of investors in every state in the Union have purchased millions of dollars worth of Cochran & McCluer first mortgage real estate bonds, unsolicited by salesmen (because we employ none).

We appreciate this confidence and this recognition of our direct plan of serving investors—a plan which enables us to offer the highest rate of interest consistent with safety, now 6½%.

As a mark of appreciation to our regular customers—and as a symbol of welcome to new investors—we are presenting this genuine Wahl-Eversharp Writing Set to each purchaser of our bonds, either for cash or payment plan, while this offer is in effect.

The set consists of pen, pencil, and attractive gift box. Pen and pencil are of beautiful rosewood rubber, and have all the famous Wahl-Eversharp features. Obtain this set for yourself or for a gift to another (pen and pencil may, of course, serve as two separate gifts).

Cochran & McCluer bonds—bonds in which no investor has ever lost a single dollar in principal or interest—may be purchased in denominations of $100, $500 and $1000. As little as $10 starts you on our Retire in 15 Years Plan and entitles you to the special gift offer. This offer can be made for limited time only. Phone, call or mail coupon for full particulars.

Retire in 15 years
on your present living budget

Follow the simple, definite plan in the book, "How to Retire in 15 Years," and your independence is won. Plan works just as surely whether you are earning $1000 or $100,000 a year. Phone, call or mail coupon for free copy.

General Outdoor Advertising.

T. C. R.: General Outdoor Advertising company's gross revenue for the September quarter and for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1929, were somewhat smaller than in the corresponding periods of 1928, and net profit showed a comparatively larger decrease.

For the three months ended Sept. 30, 1929, gross revenue was $7,366,499, against $8,084,766 in the like period of 1928, and net profit was $804,296, or 89 cents per share, against $1,082,384, or $1.32 per share in the September quarter of 1928.

For the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1929, gross revenue was $21,418,668 and net profit was $1,566,810. Earnings were equal to $1.52 per share on 642,383 no par common shares outstanding, after allowing for participating provisions.

In the corresponding nine months of 1928, gross revenue was $22,957,873 and net profit was $2,572,536, equal to $2.93 per share on a like number of common shares.

Net profit for the year ended Dec. 31, 1928, was $2,978,013, against $3,173,199 for 1927.

Dividends on the common stock are $2 per year.

The class "A" stock deserves a fairly good rating.

Phillips Petroleum.

T. S.: Phillips Petroleum company reported profit, before depreciation and depletion, of $6,518,781 for the September quarter of 1929, against $5,846,156 in the like quarter of 1928.

For the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1929, profit, before depreciation and depletion, was $15,029,588. This amount was equal to $5.95 per share on 2,524,338 no par common shares outstanding. It should be noted, however, that this figure represents profit before depletion, depreciation, intangible development costs, retirements and other amortization. The figure of $15,029,588 compares with $12,366,133 in the first nine months of 1928.

The company reported in October that notwithstanding large capital expenditures during the year the company at that time still maintained a strong current position with cash and other current assets of nearly $25,000,000 and current liabilities of $5,700,000.

Dividends on the common stock were recently increased from $1.50 to a $2 rate per year. A special 5 per cent stock dividend was declared payable to stock of record Dec. 16, 1929.

The stock is medium grade and somewhat speculative.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

D. R. G.: Canadian Pacific Railway $30,000,000 collateral trust 5 per cent bonds, dated Dec. 1, 1929, and due Dec. 1, 1954, are a sound investment.

ON FOREIGN BOURSES.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—(AP)—BAR SILVER—21¼d per ounce. Money 4½ per cent. Discount rates, short bills and three months, 4½@4⅝ per cent.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Prices were firm on the bourse today. Three per cent rentes, 88 francs 20 centimes; 5 per cent loan, 107 francs 55 centimes. Exchange on London, 123 francs 90½ centimes. The dollar was quoted at 25 francs 45¾ centimes.

Expected Year End Rise in Copper Stocks Realized

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—Expectation of increased copper stocks at the year end, due to a dearth of buying during November and December, were realized today when the American bureau of metal statistics announced that stocks of refined copper on Jan. 1, in the hands of North and South American producers and refiners amounted to 171,320 short tons. This compares with 126,919 tons on Dec. 1, 1929, an increase of 44,401 tons, which agrees closely with the estimates made by the producing companies, although it is much lower than was estimated in consuming quarters.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was unchanged today at 3.77c for spots, duty paid. Sales at this level included 14,000 bags of Philippines for January February shipment to an operator, and 21,000 bags for February arrival to a refiner. With the exception of the spot month which held steady on covering, raw futures were generally easier under liquidation and selling by houses with European and Cuban connections with the market closing net unchanged on January and 1 to 3 points lower on later deliveries. Approximate sales, 19,200 tons. Prices follow:

Reorganization of Cuba Cane Sugar Corporation

Notice that Plan has been Declared Operative

Under the Plan and Agreement of Reorganization dated as of July 25, 1929, there have been deposited more than 90 Per Cent. of the Convertible Debentures, 90 Per Cent. of the Preferred Stock and 83 Per Cent. of the Common Stock of Cuba Cane Sugar Corporation. In the receivership proceedings the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York has approved the Plan of Reorganization and has decreed that the properties of the Corporation be sold at public auction on February 7, 1930.

In view of the general acceptance of the Plan by the security holders of the Corporation and of the action taken in the receivership proceedings, the Reorganization Committee has declared the Plan operative and, in the expectation that the properties of the Corporation will be bought in under the Plan, the Committee is now actively proceeding with the steps necessary for the consummation of the Plan on or about February 10, 1930. Upon the consummation of the Plan notice will be given to depositors so that they may then exchange their Certificates of Deposit for the securities of the New Company.

Upon consummation of the Plan, Debentureholders who deposit their Debentures, in addition to receiving Debentures and stock of the New Company, will receive payment of the January 1, 1930 interest coupon on their deposited Debentures.

Preferred and Common Stockholders who deposit under the Plan will receive Subscription Warrants and Ten Year Option Warrants for Common Stock.

The deposit of Debentures or stock does not involve any charge to the Depositors. The exercise of either the Subscription Warrants or Ten Year Option Warrants is entirely optional with depositing Stockholders.

In the judgment of the Committee the proceeds of sale of the Corporation's properties will return to non-depositing Debentureholders an amount in distribution substantially less than the value of the securities of the New Company which they would receive under the Plan, and there will be nothing left for non-depositing Stockholders.

SERVING BOTH PRODUCER AND CONSUMER

During the eleven months ending November 30, 1929, Commercial Credit's purchases of industrial paper increased at a 92% higher ratio than its purchases of retail automobile paper—which in turn increased 32.7% over the corresponding period of 1928.

These rapid industrial gains indicate a highly satisfactory speeding up of the diversification process which is the Company's surest guarantee of sustained growth and increased prosperity.

TRADING IS BRISK IN NEW A. T. & T. DEBENTURE 5'S

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—Domestic bond prices were virtually unchanged today on the average although transactions on the stock exchange were a bit heavier than on the previous day. Railroad bonds were steady to firm but a number of industrials sold off several points. Foreign loans showed moderate improvement. United States government bonds were irregular at the close.

The most active trading in the list occurred in the new American Telephone and Telegraph debenture 5s which touched a new peak at 101⅛ but slipped off to 100⅝ at the close, down ¼ of a point for the day. The company's convertibles 4½s of 1939 moved up ¼. Other public utility issues were relatively quiet. International Telephone and Telegraph convertible 4½s moved up ½ point and New York Telephone 4½s moved up to par again, up ¼.

Belding-Hemingway 6s dropped 4 points to a new low at 70, Gotham Silk Hosiery sold off 3 points, and Schulco 6½s eased fractionally to a new low at 45. Sugar and rubber bonds closed irregular in rather light trading.

In the rail group advances outnumbered declines, with a number of infrequently traded issues claiming gains of a point or more. Cuba Northern 5½s proved an exception, dropping 6 points to 65, compared with the low of 60¼ touched a short time ago. Atchison, Topeka and Sante Fé convertible 4½s gained 1½ points and Southern Railway 5s moved to a new high at 110½ at the close, up 2 points. Heavy dealings in Seaboard Air Lines adjustment 5s certificates resulted in a net gain of ½ point.

Cotton Traders Unload; Close Around Bottom

Announcement from Washington that the Cotton Coöperative association with $30,000,000 capital had completed its organization and that cotton planters generally agreed to reduce acreage, failed to stimulate new buying and advance prices yesterday. It was said that only $800,000 had been subscribed to the capital stock of the new company. This was used by cotton traders, who were bearish, to do a little selling, and by longs to unload. Although business in all was not heavy, traders lacked enthusiastic interest and the close was around the bottom, with losses on futures in Chicago 15 to 24 points and in other markets 2 to 21 points. New York showed the smallest loss.

For the present traders have ceased to be scared by government announcements, which have apparently lost their effect. The government report on consumption is due early today and is expected to be bearish. Traders, discussing the probable movements of the government, said expectations were that when buying by the association started bids would probably be for round lots of spot cotton, which might have a strengthening influence on prices.

Liverpool was higher early, with spot sales 6,000 bales. Spots in New York were 10 points lower at 17.45c, with no sales. New Orleans was 20 points lower at 17.05c; sales, 896 bales; Galveston, 17.45c, and Houston, 17.35c; sales, 546 bales. Prices follow:

CUBA CANE SUGAR REORGANIZATION NOW OPERATIVE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 14.—The plan for the reorganization of Cuba Cane Sugar corporation which was recently approved by the United States District court, has been declared operative, it has been announced by the reorganization committee. In the expectation that the properties of the company will be bought in under the plan at a receiver's sale set for Feb. 7 by Federal Judge Thatcher, the committee is taking steps to consummate the plan on or about Feb. 10.

Under the plan there has now been deposited more than ninety per cent of the convertible debentures, 90 per cent of the preferred stock and 83 per cent of the common stock, the committee announced. Upon consummation of the plan depositing debenture holders will receive debentures and stock of the new company and also payment of the Jan. 1, 1930, interest coupons on their deposited debentures. Depositing stockholders will receive subscription warrants and 10 year option warrants for common stock on the new company.

According to a statement by the reorganization committee the proceeds of the receivers sals in the judgment of the committee will return to nondepositing debenture holders substantially less than the face value of the securities which they would receive under the plan and there will be nothing left for nondepositing stockholders.

TRADERS STRIVE TO BOLSTER UP STOCK TRADING

sore thumb—that the market continues dull and unimportant.

It was a little better today than yesterday—the volume was a half million shares or so heavier, and the price changes a trifle more substantial—but that isn't saying an awful lot. Less than 2,000,000 shares the total stood—a poor showing for even a Saturday half session by the old standards that Wall street has come to reckon doings on the big exchange by. And the widest swing in the active list fell short of the six point market. Yes, messieurs, the market has fallen in a bad way.

Bear drives continued on a mild scale in isolated sections of the list today but as usual they were productive of little or nothing in the way of actual results, the market continuing in something of an oversold condition.

Demand Is Slow.

That was especially true of a number of the leading industrials, utilities, and specialties. But while these stocks showed a disposition to move higher, demand did not develop in sufficient volume to provide a real test for the situation. Closing figures showed a good preponderance of gains, mostly ranging from a fraction to 2 points.

Group movements were a bit more clearly defined than they have been here of late. Rails were generally higher and the market in utilities was comparatively buoyant at times. Steel common did a good job of resuming leadership in the industrial sections at one time driving ahead nearly two points and some of the specialties attracted a profitable following, Johns-Manville, for instance, pushing ahead moderately to a new high level for 1930. Railroad equipment shares took a fair share in the trading. Mail orders were under pressure and radios were hurt by the Kolster receivership affair.

CONTINENTAL CHICAGO CORP. ISSUES REPORT

The Continental Chicago corporation, the big investment trust formed last September by the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company, issued its first report yesterday. Like the reports of most investment trusts, it shows a moderate depreciation in the market value of its security holdings, but President Arthur Reynolds expresses confidence in the future.

The statement shows that holdings of stocks on Dec. 31, 1929, totaled $35,845,611 at cost, although it is stated that their market value was about $4,900,000 below cost. Almost all of these holdings were stocks listed on the New York and Chicago exchanges. The corporation also holds $4,820,708 of short term notes, at cost, and other investments of $1,645,698.

The strong liquid position of the corporation is evidenced in the fact that it has $21,789,740 in cash and call loans, or more than a third of its total resources of $64,101,759. Taking the market value of its security holdings on Dec. 31, the liquidating value of the allotment units sold to the public, which consist of one share of preference and one share of common stock, figures out at $65.21 per unit, compared with the offering price of $68.50.

"Conservatism is reflected in the strong cash position," Mr. Reynolds says, "but the management has confidence in the future prosperity of the company and has not hesitated to invest more than $35,000,000 in a diversified list of securities of well managed companies operating in a wide range of American industries. The corporation has made a conservative and satisfactory beginning in the direction of obtaining a major interest in selected concerns and it is from this type of operation especially that substantial profits are reasonably to be expected."

Says 1930 Outlook for Kraft-Phenix Is Good One

The business outlook for 1930 is even better than that of 1929 and general business indications at the beginning of the year are that the volume of business will be in advance of last year's sales, J. H. Kraft, vice president and director of sales of the Kraft-Phenix Cheese corporation, declared today. The annual report will reveal a 1929 volume of business far in advance of that for any previous year in the history of the cheese industry.

HAWTHORNE TO GET $17,000,000 FOR EXPANSION

Big Building Program for Western Electric.

BY AL CHASE.

Seventeen million dollars are to be expended during 1930 in the development of the vast Hawthorne plant of the Western Electric company, which straddles the boundary line between Cicero and Chicago. This means that the local establishment will get nearly one-third of the $55,000,000 appropriated in New York on Monday, and announced in yesterday's TRIBUNE. The balance will go to the Kearny plant, in New Jersey, and for new buildings in the Western Electric branch at Point Breeze, near Baltimore.

The $17,000,000 scheduled for the Hawthorne plant probably will be used principally for buildings to care for departments now temporarily housed in various parts of Chicago on two year leases in warehouses and factory buildings. It also will be used for tools and equipment. The Western Electric now has a site comprising 200 acres, so none of the money will be needed for the purchase of real estate.

40,000 on Pay Roll.

The big subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph company is now in its 25th year at Hawthorne. It has 40,000 men and women on its local pay roll. It carried on a large and comprehensive building program during the last year, perhaps the most important unit of which was the cable plant addition which was completed on Dec. 31st. A huge garage is still under construction. A large tape armor cable plant was completed during 1929.

The Western Electric company manufactures all of the telephone apparatus used by the American Telephone and Telegraph company in all parts of the world. It also makes machines used in the talkies, cable, and other electrical equipment.

Will Equalize Production.

In order to equalize the production load at its three manufacturing plants Western Electric during 1930 plans to transfer certain operations to the newly constructed Baltimore plant and the enlarged Kearny works. This, it was said, will allow activities at Hawthorne, which has been overloaded to tend towards a normal operating capacity.

Transfer of work is to take place gradually. Neither the labor market, nor the community as a whole, will suffer any serious consequences as a result of the new policy, it was stated.

Western Electric sales during 1929 were 65 per cent above 1928, President Edgar S. Bloom announced, reaching a total of $400,000,000 which is the largest volume in the company's history. He said that the company enters 1930 with a record volume of orders on hand and predicted another period of growth.

21 Flat Building Sold.

The twenty-one flats at the southeast corner of 76th street and Drexel avenue, lot 82x125 feet, have been sold by Fred A. Hamilton of New York City to Klass C. De Boer for an undisclosed consideration. Seymour N. Cohen was attorney.

Charles A. Odegaard has acquired the residential property at 216 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, from F. Burton Smith in exchange for the residence at 1033 Skokie Ridge road, also in the north shore suburb. Frank P. Sadler was attorney for Mr. Odegaard.

Jerry R. Selman has purchased the three story flat building at the southwest corner of Hermitage and Haskins avenues from John Pauritsch for an undisclosed consideration. The lot is irregular in shape. Peter Sissman of Sissman & Sissman was attorney.

JOINS DIRECTORATE.

Hale Holden, chairman of the executive committee of the Southern Pacific company, has been elected a director of the Western Electric company.

News and Gossip of Stock Marts

Has Rapid Growth.

An increase of 565 per cent in five years has taken place in common stock holders of Continental Can. The number on Jan. 10, last, was 14,354, as compared with 2,159 holders at the beginning of 1925. During 1929 the list of common holders has more than doubled, the latest figure showing a gain of 129 per cent over the 6,259 holders who composed the list on Dec. 31, 1928. Increase in the number of stockholders compares with gains in outstanding common shares of 18 per cent last year and 283 per cent in the last five years.

Shares Limelight.

Wall street was impressed yesterday by the persistent report of a "large buying order" in Allegheny corporation which continued to share the limelight in rail activities with Pennsylvania. Both Allegheny and Pennsy were advanced to new high ground for the current recovery. A number of commission houses are stressing the bullish outlook for Allegheny and the popular price of the stock.

Earnings Bring Buying.

Loew's, Inc., has been well bought when available on a scale down. That is because earnings for the first quarter of the present fiscal period, which ends on Aug. 31, 1930, are estimated to have been at a $10 annual rate. No matter what is done to the Fox holdings of Loew's, the equity value of the latter stock cannot be disturbed or impaired in any way.

Worries Short Interest.

Resumption of buying operations by the latest group to take hold of American Can seemed to worry the short interest and brought about a good deal of scattered covering yesterday. This made Can the feature of the pivotal issues for a time.

Stresses Tobacco Group.

A section of the list that appears to possess interesting speculative possibilities is the tobacco group, says one stock exchange firm. Such companies as American Tobacco, Liggett & Myers, and R. J. Reynolds have shown steadily increasing earnings in recent years, and the indications are that the current year will see the continuance of such growth.

WESTERN UNION REPORTS NET OF $15,490,573

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The net earnings of the Western Union Telegraph company for 1929 amounted to $15,490,573, equal to about $15.23 a share on the capital stock. These earnings compare with $15,467,659 in 1928, or $15.11 a share. The 1929 earnings were the largest since 1919, with the exception of 1925, when they totaled $16,186,259.

The Bankers Securities corporation, which conducts a varied banking and investment service, reported earnings of $2,084,741 for 1929, or more than $900,000 in excess of dividends, regular and extra, on both classes of stock paid during the year. The balance sheet on Dec. 31 showed total assets of $30,397,222.

The annual report of the National Biscuit company for the year ending Dec. 31 showed net income of $21,423,571, equal to $8.21 a share on 2,398,469 shares of common stock. This compares with $17,883,365, or $7.31 a share, on 2,209,520 shares in 1928. The company today raised the dividend rate from $6 to $7 annually with declaration of a $1.75 quarterly payment.

The Reynolds Tobacco company reports net earnings for 1929, after all charges, of $32,210,521, or $3.22 a share, as contrasted with $30,172,563, or $3.01 a share in the previous year. The balance sheet disclosed undivided profits of $51,579,859.

Neet, Inc., reports net profits of $368,653 for 1929, after all expenses and taxes, as against $174,698 for 1928.

CORPORATION EARNINGS

SOUTHERN ICE AND UTILITIES.

For the fiscal year ended Oct. 31 net income was $693,006 after all charges, compared with $318,267 for the previous year. Balance sheet as of Oct. 31, last, showed current assets of $1,947,183 and current liabilities of $304,627.

ILLINOIS PIPE LINE.

Net income for nine months ended Sept. 30 was $4,560,852 after depreciation and federal taxes, equal to $21.80 a share on the 200,000 shares of capital stock.

KAVANAGH-DOBBS.

The annual report covering the fiscal year ended Oct. 31, 1929, shows net earnings, after depreciation and federal taxes, applicable to dividends, of $502,322. This is equivalent to $14.56 a share on the preferred dividend requirements, to $1.18 a share on the outstanding common stock.

The First Step

in a sound financial program is to build up a cash reserve of at least $1,000 in a savings bank. This done, the investor is in position to acquire his first bond and gradually advance toward a diversified list of bonds, preferred and common stocks of sound corporations, which offer opportunities for conservative and profitable investment.

SYNOPSIS.

John Andrew Kellogg, heir to millions, asks Barbara Thornton to marry him. She agrees, but not very graciously. He calls on his attorney, David Craig, who tells him he will never inherit the money his father left if he doesn't prove himself capable of managing his life in a sensible way. He tells him that since he has lost one job after another he will have to double five thousand dollars in thirty days or live on an income from a trust fund for the rest of his life. John Andrew telephones this to Barbara and she offers to give him five thousand to turn over to Craig. He refuses and tells her he is going out to Hollywood. She is furious with him and breaks the engagement. He decides to go to San Francisco and starts for California. On the train he meets Anne Arnot, who is on her way to Hollywood with a letter of introduction to a movie producer. They become interested in each other. Before saying good-by in Utah John Andrew tells Anne that he will see her in Los Angeles in a few days.

Arrived in San Francisco, John Andrew meets an old school friend, Peter Merriam, on the street. Peter is selling Mercury cars and tries to sell one to John Andrew. They go for a trial spin, and with John Andrew at the wheel have a slight smash-up. In order to keep Pete from losing his job, John Andrew buys the custom built roadster for $4,000. He also gives all but a hundred of his expense money to an old man with an accident without asking what the machine is. He drives to Los Angeles in the Mercury and sees Anne at the Consolidated studio, where she is being tried out. He makes an engagement to take her to dinner. Before starting out, he looks at the old man's plans and learns they are for a noiseless camera. He sells the patent rights to Consolidated for twenty-five thousand, the money to be turned over to him on the receipt of the signature of Blake, the inventor.

In the meantime the hotel people become suspicious of John Andrew and ask him to pay his bill. He decides to pawn some belongings. He receives a telegram from the inventor's attorney asking for five hundred additional or lose the contract. He decides to sell the Mercury.

INSTALLMENT XXXIII.

THE LAW TAKES A HAND.

Old Craig scrubbed his glasses. "As I explained to you, 'twas a client's money would have been invested, and as he was a young man, I did not think it a good example to set him. Besides"—calmly—"it might have been risky business."

"Not as long as people are thirsty, and like to be fooled——"

"We old men canna be fooled," Craig snapped. "I grant that the children who are drinking do not know the difference between whisky and colored alcohol, but there are some of us left——"

The chemist, making a final note of Craig's recommendations, nodded politely, and said, "Just as long as you drink whatever you've remaining in your cellar, sir, you can't go wrong, but——"

Craig, unlocking a drawer of his desk, pulled out a brightly labeled square bottle. "If a man's on the alert," he said, "he can sometimes pick up authentic whisky, and not at a prohibitive price. I'll just ask ye to smell this, Mr. Caldwell, and tell me if ye can imitate the perfume."

Caldwell sniffed at the quarter full bottle, and then poured a bit of the liquid, pale, odorous, into the palm of his hand. He waited a moment while the fluid warmed, and then put it again to his nose. "Yes," he said at last; "I wasn't sure if that was Merriman-Michaels' essence—they're Canadian chemists, sir, and a deal of the 'whisky' made across the border is manufactured pretty much along bootleg lines, I've been told—but I believe it's out here; we specialize in it——"

"Ye dabble so much with fakes that ye can't tell the genuine," Craig said him shrilly. "This whisky came from——"

"The cellar of some gentleman who needed money."

"Ha! And how'd ye know?"

"One of our customers, who sells only in small lots and at high prices, uses that method; he tells me it's very successful. If you like this type of liquor, sir, we can give you all you want at about nine or ten dollars a gallon; that is, I can probably get all of the alcohol you'd want, and flavor it to suit you. . . ."

"Nine or ten . . . a gallon, Mr. Caldwell? You mean a quart, eh?"

Caldwell smiled sympathetically. "No, a gallon. You see——"

The lawyer's thoughts were not exactly what Caldwell imagined; when he was alone, Craig said aloud, "'Tis only bein' superstitious, but . . . poor John Andrew! And I toasted him with this selfsame liquor; what did I say? Ha. . . . 'May your fortune be as authentic as this whisky' . . . poor John Andrew! Poor lad. Alone and friendless, and with such a curse hangin' over him. But 'tis only a superstition. No wonder the boy laughed when he bade me farewell." He glared at the offending bottle. "Into the sink ye'll go," he decided. "And I'll pour all of your fraudulent mates along with ye."

On second thought he decided that the bright bottles might be sent to some of his friends as Christmas presents. "Wrapped in red paper, and with a sprig of holly 'round your neck, ye'll fool better judges than a sober attorney," he muttered.

"An impossible venture we sent the lad on," he was thinking. "What does he know of makin' money? Did he scratch like old Andy did? Not he; he was brought up to be a gentleman. 'Tis like sendin' a baby out into the world, and sayin', 'Here ye are; go see if ye can earn a livin.'"

"John Andrew is in trouble, I do not doubt, and that will give old Andy no happiness if he knows about it above, and it gives me none here."

The attorney was so genuinely upset that he poured himself a tiny drink. "It does not taste so very good," he thought, "but a man must admit it warms the belly." And then, "If I'd kept my tongue from waggin' when Caldwell was here, I'd not know the difference. John Andrew did, poor lad. I wonder where he's at, and what he's up to? Well, he can laugh at things, and that's a blessing. . . ."

. . . . . .

But John Andrew was not laughing.

He was still in his room at the Poinsettia and he was standing very erect, but he was not smiling at all. In the room with him were three others: the manager of the hotel and two men whom Kellogg had never seen before and never hoped to see again, although there appeared to be every indication that he would be forced to accustom himself to their company.

"I think you're using rather rotten judgment," Kellogg said to the manager. "I told you your bill would be paid today, and I meant it. Now, if there's any way to avoid the money coming to you, I promise you I'll take every possible step."

"We have nothing to do with this, but——"

"They always talk big," the first of the strangers said to the manager. "He'll raise hell with you . . . yeah, a lot he'll do!" To Kellogg, "This takes more than bluff t' get out of, feller. Beatin' a hotel bill's prob'ly nothing in your young life, but paper hangin' sends you up to th' Point."

"Got an innocent look, ain't he?" the second officer grunted. "Like he's trying to say, 'I don't understand this terrible outrage; why, this is simply horrible, and what will my dear parents say?' Come along, guy; we're wastin' time."

John Andrew summoned his wits. "Just a minute," he said, with no pleading in his voice, "you needn't flash your badges again; I just know you were 'em. The manager says that he hasn't anything to do with this. Who has? Can you arrest a man without informing him why you're doing it?"

"You'll find out soon enough, if you don't know," he was told. "And don't get tough about it, either."

The manager, hopeful that the departure of the ex-guest would be made peaceably, and without any one noticing it, said placatingly, "I believe Mr. Kellogg is correct, deputy; you might just as well let him know—although naturally he already does—what the trouble is."

"Throw his junk into a suitcase, Jim," the larger deputy sheriff ordered. "The D. A.'s office'll want to go through it . . . so you don't know what it's all about, huh?"

"Not yet," said John Andrew.

Nor did he. Try as he might, he could see nothing which should have made him run afoul of the law—nothing that he had ever done in his life. But the presence of authority, inscrutable, assured, at a time when he had neither dollars in pocket nor credit in bank, and when so much hinged upon the next few hours, was sufficient to make him hot and cold by turns.

"You know what a rubber check is, huh?"

Kellogg admitted truthfully, "I've seen them, yes."

"Well . . . ain't that enough t' tip you off?"

Quietly, John Andrew mentioned the only matter which seemed even remotely connected with this warrant for his arrest. He said to the manager of the hotel, "You had a warrant issued because I wanted to cash a check here? I suggest that you wire my New York bank. You'll find the check was and is good, even if you didn't cash it for me."

"It's a gift," the deputy in shiny serge said to his mate. "To hear these guys talk you'd think that the pres'dents of banks knew 'em by their front names."

"I've had nothing to do with this," the manager said, speaking above the officer's voice. "These men from the sheriff's office inform me that they have a telegraphed warrant——"

"Don't be too hard on us," Blue Serge snickered. "We're sorry f'r you, mister, an' when you tell the D. A.'s office that you give a check on the wrong bank by accident, he'll send you back here in a taxicab."

"You still haven't told me why I'm being arrested," Kellogg insisted stubbornly. "And until you do, I'm not going anywhere."

"Now don't try gettin' mean——"

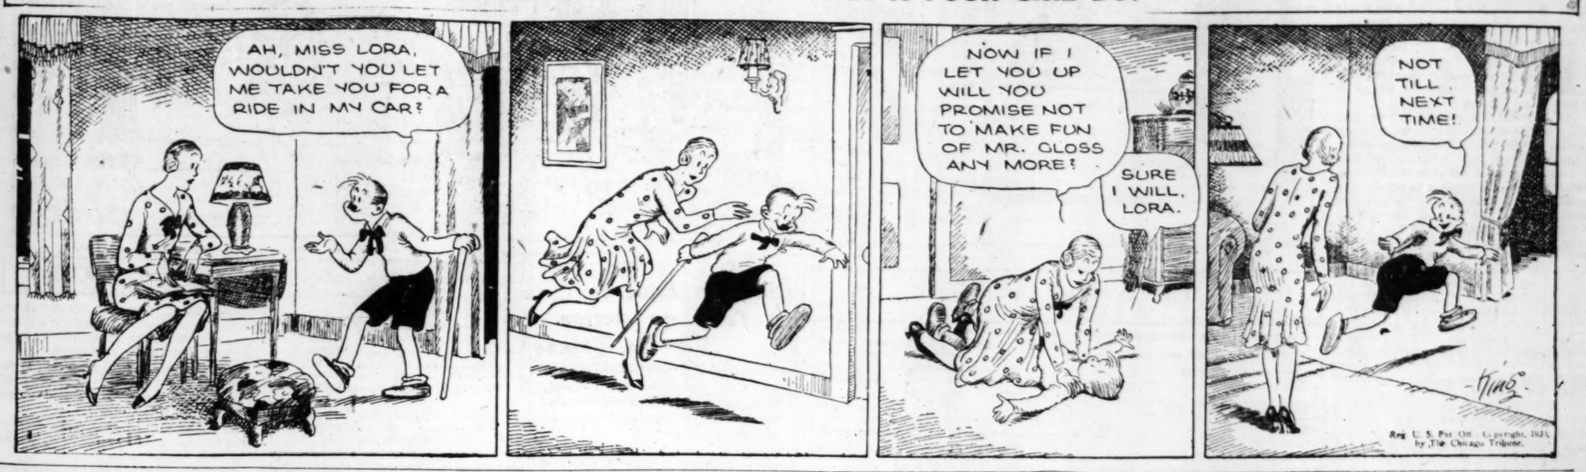
GASOLINE ALLEY—WHAT CAN A POOR GIRL DO?



Plans Season of Light Opera for Chicagoans

Insull's Latest Project to Start on April 21.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

Nine weeks of light opera at the Civic theater this spring is the prospect held out in an announcement issuing from the Civic Opera company yesterday. It is an idea that Mr. Insull has had in mind for some time, even before the erection of the present Civic Opera house and Civic theater, and it is now scheduled to begin April 21, or after the opera company returns from its spring tour.

In the cast, says the announcement, will be a number of the finest voices of the Civic Opera company. No roster has been announced, but there is gossip connecting the name of Coe Glade with some of the better known mezzo-soprano parts, and of Frank St. Leger as conductor.

Neither has the répertoire taken form, but here it would seem necessary only to choose. Out of England there are the Gilbert and Sullivan works, out of Vienna there are Johann Strauss, Franz Lehar, Oscar Straus, and a host of others, out of France there would be a chance to learn that there are a good many other pieces besides "The Tales of Hoffmann," out of America Reginald de Koven stands well at the top, with plenty more to follow. Victor Herbert probably will not be considered, since a Victor Herbert revival is now taking place in New York and its company will come to Chicago later.

Paul Kochanski, violinist, was the soloist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra yesterday afternoon, as he will be next Friday afternoon and Saturday evening. In yesterday's program he played the Tschaikowsky Concerto, a revered and effective work for all who would engage in smooth melodies and brilliant execution. Mr. Kochanski is an extremely able player, capable of meeting all demands that the piece may make. This was possibly not the finest performance he has made in his several Chicago appearances, but it was successfully accomplished and he was warmly received.

For the first, or orchestral part of the program, Mr. Stock conducted Beethoven. The first number was the "Egmont" overture. This was followed by the "Eroica" symphony, a magnificent performance played in memory of Horace S. Oakley, former vice president of the Orchestral association, who died at sea a month ago.

Two concerts will be given in Orchestra hall next Saturday morning, beginning the "Hearing America First" series for school children. This is being sponsored by the Chicago board of education and directed by Marx and Anne Oberndorfer. Identical programs will be given at 9:30 and 11:15 o'clock on the subject of Indian music. Mr. and Mrs. Oberndorfer will present and explain the topic, and there will be Indians present to give illustrations by singing war songs, beating rhythms on native instruments, and dancing. Later programs are to take up music of the American Negroes, mountaineers, cowboys, and music of the times of Washington and Lincoln.

Ethel Waterman, mezzo-soprano, appeared in a song recital at Kimball hall last night. It is customary for recital programs to cover a wide geographical range, and this one went from a French aria to a group of lieder and then to other groups of Russian, Italian, and English songs. In them the artist displayed a voice of agreeable quality which would have been more agreeable had it less tendency to waver on certain tones, and good taste in matters of interpretations. Accompaniments of high merit were played by Robert Macdonald.

Johns Hopkins Degree for Gen. Jan Smuts Tomorrow

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, ex-premier of South Africa, will be presented with an honorary degree of doctor of laws from Johns Hopkins university Thursday when he comes here to deliver an address before the Baltimore branch of the League of Nations association, celebrating the tenth anniversary of the league. Among those in the welcoming party will be Theodore Marburg, former minister to Belgium and president of the Baltimore association; Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and Dr. John H. Latane, professor of history at Johns Hopkins, both vice presidents of the association.

Erin Greets Envoy of Pope at Dublin; Bonfires Along Coast

BY HUGH CURRAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, Ireland, Jan. 14.—This city was agog with interest tonight on the arrival of the papal nuncio, Archbishop Robinson, to assume the post of minister plenipotentiary of the Vatican to the Irish Free State. The fact that it is 200 years since a nuncio came from Rome to Ireland made a great appeal to Irish sentiment, so the nuncio received a great popular ovation.

On the hills lining the coast from Howth to Bray great bonfires blazed a welcome. The nuncio was accompanied from London by his secretary, Msgr. Borgia, and by President Cosgrave's aide de camp, Col. O'Reilly. President Cosgrave and Archbishop Byrne of Dublin met the nuncio at the landing stage. Large crowds cheered as he stepped ashore. There a guard of honor saluted him. The nuncio then proceeded to Dublin, accompanied by a long procession of automobiles.

John D. Rockefeller Adds $800,000 to Gifts to the Baptists

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller Sr. has made a new donation of $800,000 to the Ministers' and Missionaries' Benefit board of the Northern Baptist convention. The announcement was made today by Dr. P. C. Wright, executive secretary of the board.

Dr. Wright said Mr. Rockefeller's latest gift brought his personal contributions to that branch of Northern Baptist work almost up to $7,000,000. A special contribution of $100,000 was announced Dec. 28.

The new gift will be applied to endowment funds, Dr. Wright said, and used to provide for aged, infirm, and needy ministers and missionaries.

Ten Seek Rosa Raisa's Backing to Study Abroad

Rosa Raisa, Chicago Civic opera star, yesterday heard ten contestants try for the scholarship bearing her name. The audition was at the Jewish Peoples institute and the winner, selected by members of the Chicago Civic Opera company and the Chicago Symphony orchestra, who sat as judges, will be named within a few days. The scholarship provides for higher musical education abroad. This is the second annual musical scholarship awarded through the Jewish Peoples institute from the fund which Mme. Raisa raises in a benefit concert. Last year the winner was Rae Bernstein, who is now studying piano in Vienna.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send your name and address with your question to "Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Leonard Levett, 2618 West Rosemont avenue, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Would the suggested naval disarmament help to promote peace?

The Answers.

Dave Levit, 1713 Humboldt boulevard, salesman—I don't believe so, due to protective tariffs and to commercial competition between various countries. As long as there is a survival of the fittest in competitive industry there are likely to arise contingencies that will bring on wars.

Margaret Williams, 831 Washington street, Evanston, Ill., cook—I do not believe disarmament is the thing for our country right now. It is a beautiful thought, but I don't believe the world is ready for it. There isn't any one who is more for universal peace than I am, but I think the chance for peace is greater if we are protected.

T. J. Walsh, 3424 Larissa drive, Hollywood, Cal., sales manager—Hardly. Man by nature is quarrelsome. The fact that we always have had wars [in recent times wars have been piling pell mell on top of each other] they are likely to continued for years to come. Then why not be prepared for what's likely to come?

Miss Hilma S. Swanson, 676 Irving Park boulevard, saleswoman—It may not reduce the possibility of war very much, because there are so many fundamental things that cause wars. But the effect of disarmament and the discussions concerning it have the effect on the public mind of laying the foundations for peace.

Charles E. Kowalski, 824 North Marshfield avenue, physiotherapist — If you had entered the world war when you were eighteen, as I did, and fought for our country you would say there must be no more wars. An invincible army and navy would prevent war. The city council should not be allowed to kill the R. O. T. C.

Save Your Teeth with Good Food, Dentists Advise

Treatment of various tooth ailments and the influence of diet yesterday occupied the attention of the 10,000 dentists gathered at the Stevens hotel for the annual convention of the Chicago Dental society. The dentists urged early and frequent repair of molars as a means of preventing dental troubles.

"False teeth are a luxury that people could well do without if they gave their teeth the proper care from childhood," said Dr. H. M. Garvin of Winnipeg, Manitoba. "It is the extensive restoration of lost or damaged teeth that incurs considerable trouble and expense to the patient."

Four out of five persons have scurvy, declared Dr. Milton T. Hanke, professor of pathology at the University of Chicago.

"My experiments indicate that the diets of approximately 70 per cent of the people are deficient in vitamin C," he said. "This causes pyorrhea and tooth decay. Wealthy people are not immune to this condition, which may be arrested in an eight months period with the proper diet." He recommended fruit, eggs, and fresh vegetables as a corrective diet.

The growing number of patients suffering from trench mouth or Vincent's infection was discussed at one session. This disease originates in an unclean mouth, said Dr. William H. Grey of St. Paul. It is carried from an unclean mouth to clean mouths through dishes, knives and forks, but more frequently through kissing, he stated.

Artificial sunlight or the ultra-violet ray is far more effective as a germ destroyer than any astringent used in washing the mouth, said Dr. Frederick W. Lake of Boston. He stated that while it often fell into untrained hands and was misused, violet-ray treatment has definite healing qualities for ailments of the teeth and mouth.

His study showed that blondes react more readily to violet-ray treatment than brunettes, young people more readily than adults, and females more readily than males.

Only 20 per cent of the population receive dental service at the present time, according to Dr. Herbert E. Phillips.

Play Given Tonight to Aid the Church of Our Savior

The young people of the Episcopal Church of Our Savior will give a play, "Betty, the Girl o' My Heart," at the parish house, 520 Fullerton parkway, this evening. The leading rôles will be taken by Miss Betty Monnell and Arthur Green. The show is directed by Frank Lopes. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the church. Its rector is the Rev. Frederick L. Gratiot.

THEATER

MR. FIELDS—W. C., that is—was the beginning, the middle, the end, and all the sides and contents of the most recent issue of Earl Carroll's Vanities in New York. That was as far back as August of 1928. Miss Ray Dooley and Joe Frisco were in it; but Mr. Fields was what in an earlier, slangier day would have been described as the Works. That is the issue now on view in the Erlanger. Miss Dooley and Mr. Frisco are missing; and Mr. Fields is still all there is. All save many girls and some men. The men are used either to utter ballads serving as cues for the entrance of the girls or to "feed" in the sketches and skits. One of them, Ben Blue, gets time to do something for himself; and he does it to his own manifest satisfaction: he is a bold lad and patently a seasoned one; but he is something of a laggard with respect to knowing what is funny in 1930.

Returning to Mr. Fields, it may be said once more of him that he is immense, and that in this employment he gives to us fresh reason for being thankful that he at length found his voice. He is unlike any other comic man in the Theater, here or elsewhere; and he knows what he is doing, why, and how. He possesses the priceless gift of deadly solemnity as he goes about his work. Catch him, as the saying is, in the sketch named "Stolen Bonds," wherein he is a hardy man of the snow-swept places, and in the skit named "The Caledonian Express," wherein he is in turn a train-guard, a conductor, a stationmaster, and a policeman, all called in to adjust a dispute between passengers as to which has the right to a compartment: catch him in these items, and then say if there be a funnier fellow in our roster of entertainers. And he is just as funny in four or five other incidents of the show.

And, when it isn't Mr. Fields, it is Mr Carroll seeking to do in his own way the things Mr. Ziegfeld used to do when the Follies was in its first years. Girls parade to the right or to the left, up-stage or down-stage, up-steps or down-steps, hither and yon, and sometimes yon and hither, and always aimlessly and meaninglessly, the while they carry things. They are fractionally clothed: none of them is quite naked. One of them, Miss Dorothy Britton, takes black type in the playbill, which, however, doesn't say why. . . . There are curtains spangled with glittering things, queer lightings that mean nothing, and so on; and, when it is 11 o'clock, you are happy Mr. Fields is in the show.

Mr. Leiber Fattens His Score.

With "As You Like It" for the week's bill, Fritz Leiber is taking things with measurable ease between the labors of "King Richard III," last week, and the exactions of "King Lear," next week. He casts himself as Jaques—not Jacques, as the playbill has it; and Jaques is a light task for any seasoned actor, once the text is acquired. After all, Mr. Leiber could not fairly be asked to act Rosalind, although "As You Like It" is Rosalind's play; and Orlando has its limitations. So, in the ninth of the ten plays he has revived in the Civic, Mr. Leiber may be heard as he utters all the famous musings and meditations, including that about the Seven Ages. Miss Vera Allen is the Rosalind—a lovely and an ample rôle for any actress.

News-Notes of the Stage.

Word from Philadelphia is that "Dear Old England" is a popular success. It is an imported comedy; and it is in the list of plays in which the Dramatic League of Chicago is concerned.

The Theater Guild of New-York is come into possession of what may be called the Max Reinhardt version of "Lysistrata"; and it is among the probabilities that the Guild will venture with this old Athenian farce. It may be recalled that the so-called "musical studio" of the Moscow Art Theater gave a version in 1926 in the Great Northern.

And Miss Alice Brady, not caring for her assignment to head the second cast of "Strange Interlude," has withdrawn from the employ of the Theater Guild.

A cablegram from London tells that Maurice Browne and associates have purchased for Mr. Browne's use the Queen's Theater and the Globe Theater there, and that the price was "more than $1,250,000." The two theaters are in the heart of the West End, and are among the best in London. . . . And, in case you are not certain, the Maurice Browne is who for a time tried to make a go of the Little Theater up in the Fine-Arts Building.

Play-producers and ticket-brokers in New-York are said to have arrived at an agreement whereby the latter will not charge a premium higher than seventy-five cents a seat.

Speed of Life Strains Hearts, Fishbein Says

Points to the Lowering of Life Expectancy.

Unless life moves more slowly the prevention of heart diseases—which in 1929 exacted a toll of more than 7,300 lives in Chicago alone—will be retarded.

That was the warning of Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association. Last night he addressed the Chicago Heart association at its annual meeting in the Chicago Woman's club on 11th street near Michigan avenue. Dr. Fishbein said the rush of modern life does not permit human tissue to rest enough.

Authorities now say, he stated, that the life expectancy after middle age has been decreased one year during the last fifty years, due to the speed of living. He urged more research, better care of the cardiac convalescent, and more education of the public as to what physicians know of heart disease.

"The first requirement is more intensive research, the second is more funds to establish research organizations, now those are a pitifully small group," Dr. Fishbein declared. "The prevention is obviously far more important than the treatment after the disease occurs. What medical science now knows about the prevention of heart disease is included in a single paragraph by Haven Emerson, which calls for 'cleaner mouths, fewer tonsils, fewer neglected decayed teeth, earlier recognition of sore throats, skilled attention of the little child with aching muscles and joints, repeated examinations of the after attacks of any acute infectious fever in childhood.'

"A majority of investigators are convinced that the attack on rheumatic fever, of which little is known, and which causes 50 per cent of all heart disease, must come from more intensive laboratory research into the causative mechanism of infection. They hope for development of serums or specific methods of attack on the germs that produce the changes in the heart tissues. We will not, however, prevent heart disease as a part of the process of degeneration of human tissues until life has been greatly slowed, and until we understand why living tissues wear out."

Dr. Fishbein said on any single day 2,000,000 people in the United States are suffering from heart disease, and the care of sufferers costs this country at least $100,000,000 a year. He urged the periodic examination of children to detect heart disease in its early stage.

"Cardiacs are making more visits to physicians for consultation than ever before," Dr. Irving S. Cutter, dean of Northwestern university medical school declared. "Better training is now available, resulting in more specialists in heart disease. The field is becoming definitely one for the social worker, and the time will come when the social worker will become the contact between the physician and the patient."

Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton, executive director, in her annual report, said one death of every five in Chicago is due to heart disease, an increase of more than 21 per cent in the last ten years. During 1929, in 17 heart clinics in nine Chicago dispensaries, 7,208 cases were cared for. Of that number, 2,284 were children.

Mrs. H. R. Kurrie, board member of the La Rabida Jackson Park sanitarium, announced that ground will be broken by June 1 for the hospital for convalescent children from 4 to 14 years. It will have a capacity of 175 beds and will be located at 65th street and the lake.

WOTTA LIFE! WOTTA LIFE!

Joseph Birren's Art, Painted in Europe, Shown at His Studio

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

Among the older Chicago artists whose names carry weight, there are few of greater importance than Joseph Birren. Mr. Birren has been part and parcel of every interesting art movement in Chicago for thirty years and his paintings may be found in practically every exhibit. He has shown them from coast to coast and they have met with popular approval and more critical justice in the shape of juried prize awards.

Mr. Birren has opened a one man show of his paintings this week in his studio residence, 49 East Elm street. The exhibition will continue to Feb. 9 and while it is on it makes an excellent goal to a north side stroll. The pictures number about twenty-four and cover a good bit of picturesque Europe. The entrance to the chapel where Ferdinand and Isabella lie buried in Granada is one of the most beautiful paintings. The gates are picked out with deliberate strokes and the exquisite color is defined with elaborate pleasure.

The two paintings of the Dome of St. Peter's in Rome, rising through a veil of trees, are interesting for themselves and because they were painted from an unusual point of vantage, the Vatican Garden. The "Ghiberti Doors" in Florence were painted from across the street and the blurred impressionistic surface gives an atmosphere which possibly might have been lost with a nearer approach.

The "Johnnie Bread Tree" is a fine study in green and brings back childhood days when for a penny two long succulent pods from this tree were ours to crackle between our teeth with an ultimate discovery of tiny black seeds of great sweetness. The fruit of the tree is fed to cattle abroad. The "Santa Maria, Rome," shows us a church, beautifully painted, under whose foundations remains of two earlier churches have been discovered.

The large canvases, "Santa Fe River Bed" and "Maytime," are magnificent. In the "Maytime" particularly may be seen the curious individual manner of painting in which Mr. Birren often delights. It has to do with texture. By deepening his paint, wadding it one might say, he gives a third dimension to blossoms and trunks and boughs. It is a fascinating and most effective departure from conventional landscape painting.

At the Palette and Chisel club there opens on Friday an exhibit of water colors by Louis Weiner and William Wier.

Friday afternoon Charles W. Hawthorne will be at the Chicago university for the showing of his recent portrait of Prof. Lockwood Willett, in the library of the Disciples' divinity house.

Among the Chicago artists whose work is being shown in the dedication exhibition of the new art institute of Dayton, O., is Viola Norman, head of the sculpture department of the National Academy of Art Miss Norman is showing several portrait heads and the sketch of the architectural eagle which may be seen on the front of the Chicago club. Siegfried Wing, a former Chicagoan, is the director of the new museum.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S AND MISSES' DRESS.

The heavy tweed suit in beige and brown diagonal weave is modish for street and sports wear. The one illustrated shows a new treatment in skirt fullness with plaits stitched to a depth well below the hips at the right side, and a low placed circular inset at the left side, where it fastens with large buttons and a scalloped edge. The coat is finger tip length and has a notched, rever collar and well fitting sleeves.

The pattern, 3172, comes in sizes 16 and 18 years and 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards of 54 inch material with 1⅛ yards of 39 inch contrasting for the blouse.

La Grange Congregation Ends Payment of $375,000

Final payments were made yesterday on the $375,000 Emmanuel Episcopal church of La Grange. This was announced by the rector, the Rev. Irvine Goddard. He stated that the achievement was celebrated with a festival last night. The Rev. Mr. Goddard stated that contributions came from every family of the congregation, none exceeding $5,000. The church was erected five years ago after the former church had been destroyed by fire. A $100,000 parish house is now proposed to complete the equipment. The plans have been drawn by John N. Tilton, a member of the vestry of Emmanuel church.

Children Love to Take an Active Part in Things

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

A "Sex Education Booklet" by Mrs. Bevans will be sent free on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Some pleasure trip was suggested to a lively little girl of 10 the other day, and her response to the invitation was: "I don't want to watch people do things. I want to do them myself."

How does that strike you?

I like it. It indicates the things we like to see in children—vigor, a desire to express themselves in some way in games, play or the arts, perhaps—a realization that they have potentialities and that the days are scarcely long enough for them to do all the interesting things there are in the world to do.

It is because this feeling is so wholesome, so developing that we should give it consideration and that we should tend to discourage too much reading, too much looking at games instead of playing them, too many movies, too much looking at dancing instead of doing it, too much of the looking-on type of amusement for children.

This doesn't mean that we don't want our children to be able to sit quietly and read, to be able to listen to music, to possess the sort of repose and concentration that enables them to look at a play or enjoy an entertainment, or listen to some one talk. But it does mean that we don't want them to do too much of it, because if they do it becomes second-hand or vicarious living. Their well rounded development lies in "doing" themselves.

Later their legitimate and normal pleasure may be these very things. The appreciation of music, the reading of fine books, an interest in the drama or lectures—these are in a sense looking-on pleasures, but their value is different when the children are grown, or nearly so. Then those activities are not taking the place of first hand experience—experience which is a vital part of their early life.

Bordens' Guests Dodging Winter in Mississippi

BY THALIA ——.

The John Bordens are giving a series of their justly famed house parties at Glenwild, their plantation in Mississippi. Besides affording their guests a good session of quail shooting, they provide such of their acquaintances as they choose to invite with a welcome and well-timed respite from Chicago's January weather.

The Bordens went to Mississippi before the holidays, and have been back once or twice for brief stays, but they are carrying out a pretty consistent program of entertaining a group of guests about every other week. Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. John Payne Kellogg, and the Leslie Wheelers composed the last party and are but just returned.

The Bordens have vacated their residence at 1450 Astor street, but Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hutchins, who purchased it, are not planning to move in until spring.

"Our Debutante Day" was duly celebrated yesterday afternoon by the Junior Friends of Art with an elaborate program of music and speeches. The meeting, presided over by its president, Miss Olga Menn, took place in the Tower ballroom of the Stevens hotel, and was followed by a tea. Miss Menn wore a frock of gold cloth, with a gold hat, and a shoulder bouquet of green orchids. The debutantes present at the invitation of the friends were badged with boutonieres of red lilies. They included Ann Small, Janet Kirk, Christobel Wheeler, Barbara Poole, Rosemary Lytton, Frances Wood, Grace Dewes, Frances Weary, Phoebe Logan, and Carol Bourne.

The English Speaking union expects a sizable representation of its membership to attend the luncheon to be given at the Blackstone today for the Hon. Mrs. Alfred Lyttleton, G. B. E.

At the speaker's table with Mrs. Lyttleton will be Frederick A. Brown, president of the union, Lady Craik, Mrs. Lyttleton's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Haggard, Capt. A. J. Pack, an attaché of the British embassy in Washington; Miss Marie Rozet, Mrs. Chauncey B. Borland, and Robert F. Carr. Mrs. Silas H. Strawn and Mrs. Robert A. MacArthur are having tables of guests, and others present will include Mrs. Elisha Chandler, Miss Emily Larned, Mrs. Francis Dickinson, Mrs. Murry Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Eames McVeagh, Mrs. Louis B. Laflin and her guest, Mrs. William Woodin Jr. of Plainfield, N. J., Mrs. Philo Otis, and Mrs. Wheaton Augur.

Mrs. Theodore Robinson, chairman of the Church Mission of Help of the Chicago Episcopal diocese, is in charge of arrangements for the organization's annual meeting to be held this morning at St. James community house.

The social calendar does seem to be getting a bit weighty and serious. The League of Nations association has invitation announcements out for the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the founding of the league of nations tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Hotel La Salle. Judge John H. Clarke is guest of honor.

Tables have been reserved by Mrs. Robert B. Gregory, Mrs. Arthur Bissell, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. Victor Elting, Mrs. William S. Monroe, and Mrs. William B. Hale. Bolton C. Waller, secretary of the League of Nations societies of the Irish Free State is also to speak.

Mrs. Martin D. Hardin, widow of Brig. Gen. Hardin, and a former resident of Lake Forest, gave a luncheon with twenty-five guests yesterday at her home in St. Augustine, Fla., for Miss Clarissa Cochran Anderson, who was married last night to John Morton Dimick of Huntington, W. Va. The guests included Mrs. Cyril C. Spades of Chicago. The wedding was at the winter home of the bride in St. Augustine.

The 49th annual meeting of the Dearborn Seminary Alumnae association will be held on Friday at a luncheon at the Chicago Woman's club. Miss Helen Drake will give a talk on her trip to the Holy Land, illustrated by films.

Mary Austen, author of much literature about the southwestern states, where she has lived for many years, is to speak on "Music, Poetry, and the Dances of the Southwest" tomorrow afternoon at the Petit Gourmet.

The program, which also includes some dances in costume by Sun Road, a Pueblo Indian, to illustrate the lecture, is one of a series being sponsored by a group of prominent women. Mrs. J. Marc Fowler and Miss Jane Addams are to preside at the tea following the talk.

The annual meeting of the Vocational Society for Shut-Ins is to take place on next Monday at 2:30 o'clock at the Woman's Athletic club. Annual reports of officers are to be read and there will be a musical program and tea. I was glad to discover the other day that the Shut-ins will accept the batches of Christmas cards that are so hard to discard. They cut off the names, and put the decorative portions to use for scrapbooks and others of their products.

Society Attends the Opera

The inclination on the part of our fashionable population to flee Chicago's weather is not resulting in a depletion of the ranks of the box occupants at the opera. Those who have taken their departure for winter resorts have evidently seen to the distribution among their acquaintances of the tickets for the remaining subscription performances.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Swift and Harold Swift are among those who have not deserted. They were accompanied last night by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell and Miss Florence Lowden. Col. and Mrs. William Nelson Pelouze had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Morse and Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Frank Parker.

The occupants of the Warren C. Fairbanks box were youthful. Miss Cornelia Fairbanks was hostess, with her visiting cousin, another Cornelia Fairbanks, Miss Isabel Greenlee, Robert Ross, John Farrar, and Durand Smith as her guests. With Mr. and Mrs. H. Newton Hudson and Jule F. Brower were Mrs. William C. Pullman and Mr. and Mrs. Brode Davis.

Mrs. Mitchell D. Follansbee's guests included Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Follansbee Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor Jr., and Mrs. Edward C. Moore of Boston, Mrs. O'Connor's mother. They occupied the Landon C. Rose box. In the Stuyvesant Peabody box were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wilson, Mrs. Morris Wilson, Mrs. F. S. Colburn, and W. L. Keane.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus C. Dawes, Palmer Dawes. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dill Scott, Ove Vette, and Miss Margaret Davies were with Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Peterson. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Schuyler Jr. were accompanied by Mrs. Schuyler senior, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Roberts, and Mrs. H. O. Jones. Mrs. M. D. Small was hostess in the H. H. Cross box to Mrs Charles D. Young, Miss Pearl Field, Mrs. A. B. Rodner, Mrs. Montford Bebb, and Miss Isabel Goessle.

The Visiting Nurse association is to hold its 40th annual meeting at the Blackstone on Wednesday next. Miss Margaret Conover, president, and the other officers will give reports, and "Our Patients," pictures taken in the district by Mrs. Uri B. Grannis, who is recording secretary, will be shown.

The Chicago Vassar club has issued invitations for a dinner at Maillard's restaurant on Thursday evening, Jan. 30, at 6:30 o'clock. Dr. Burno Roselli, founder and chairman of the Italian department at Vassar, is to be the guest of the evening, and is to speak on "Mussolini and European Politics."

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Durand of Lake Forest are to bid farewell to Chicago's winds and weather next Sunday. They will sail Jan. 21 on the S. S. Columbus for a round the world trip. The Durands last spring took a Mediterranean cruise. This time they will make stops in Egypt, India, Japan, and some of the Pacific islands. The George Masons of Highland Park are also sailing on the same vessel.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lincoln Farwell of 1301 Ritchie court have returned from a stay in Charleston, S. C. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farwell (Portia Bartlett), have departed after spending the first part of the season in Chicago for warmer climes.

Meeting Tonight Will Plan for Boy Scout Festival

Plans for the achievement jubilee in which 15,000 Chicago Boy Scouts will participate on Feb. 1 at the Chicago Stadium will be told tonight by Alfred A. Stern, chairman, at the annual meeting of the Chicago council of Boy Scouts at a dinner at the Hotel Sherman. More than 500 persons interested in the welfare of boys will attend. One of the events will be a concert by the Harmony trio—William Smerz of troop No. 285 and Anthony and Irvin Malik, troop No. 255.

TO WED JAN. 30

MISS ELLEN KNIGHT.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Seaton Knight of Evanston, to Arthur H. Ogle of 559 Surf street, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ogle of Belleville, Ill., will take place on Jan. 30 at the residence of the bride's parents. Miss Knight is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Mr. Ogle is a graduate of the University of Illinois and a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Hope to Aid Indians.

180,000 Women of Japan Sign Petitions for Navies' Reduction

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Tsune Gauntlett is headed for London with 180,000 signatures of Japanese women in the interests of peace. She brought the 500 delegates to the cause and cure of war conference to their feet today with cheers as she discussed her mission.

Mrs. Gauntlett, Japanese wife of an English professor at Tokio, is a delegate to the conference which represents 11 of the largest women's organizations in the United States. She will go from here to the naval arms reduction conference in London. Mrs. Gauntlett told how a group of Japanese women worked 20 days and 20 nights to get the signatures.

Chicago College Club Plans Luncheon-Style Show

The Chicago College club will give a benefit luncheon and bridge party at the Lake Shore Athletic club next Saturday. A style show of southern costumes will be staged during the luncheon. Mrs. Adolph O. Hartmann and Mrs. O. B. Johnson are co-chairmen of the prizes committee for the affair. About 600 women are expected to attend. Mrs. Florence W. Yeomans is general chairman in charge of the arrangements.

Red Cross Tea Today.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.—President and Mrs. Hoover dined tonight with the secretary of the treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, who had twenty-four guests in his apartment at 1785 Massachusetts avenue. Among the other guests were the speaker and Mrs. Longworth, the undersecretary of the treasury and Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph C. Miller, Miss Mabel Boardman, all of Washington; Brig. Gen. and Mrs. W. W. Atterbury and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, all of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Myron C. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Heinz and Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Mellon of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. David K. E. Bruce of Long Island, son-in-law and daughter of the host.

Vice President Curtis was given a dinner tonight by Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary of Oregon, in the Chinese room of the Mayflower. Among the large company were Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Gann, the German ambassador and Frau von Prittwitz und Gaffron, the secretary of agriculture and Mrs. Hyde, several senators and their wives, and Gen. and Mrs. C. P. Summerall, the American ambassador to Chile and Mrs. Culbertson, Claudius N. Huston; the former secretary of agriculture and Mrs. Jardine and Mrs. J. L. Loose.

Mrs. Keyes Stillwell of Chicago and Paris, is making a short visit here at the Mayflower.

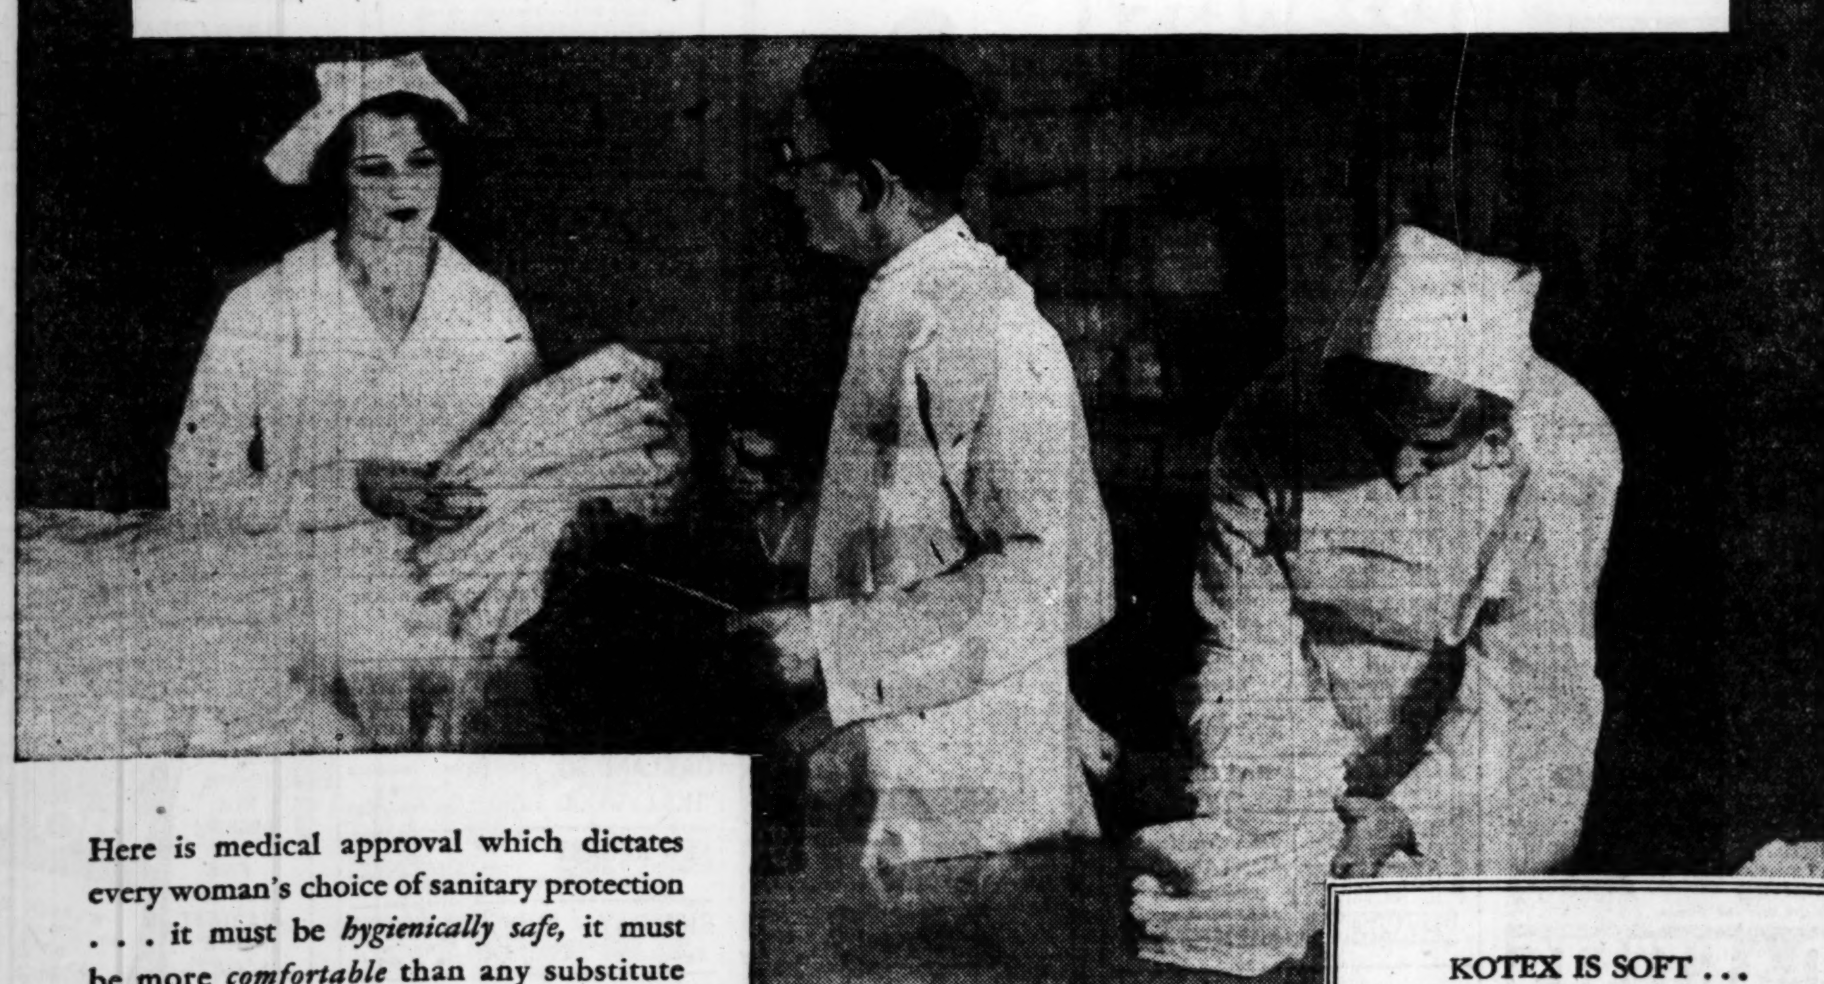
85% of America's Leading Hospitals now use the same absorbent of which Kotex is made



Here is medical approval which dictates every woman's choice of sanitary protection . . . it must be hygienically safe, it must be more comfortable than any substitute

KOTEX absorbent has replaced surgical cotton in 85% of America's great hospitals! Surgeons used 2½ million pounds of Cellucotton absorbent wadding last year. That is the equivalent of 80,000,000 sanitary pads!

Hospitals realize that comfort is most closely related to health during the use of sanitary protectives. Then is when women must have perfect ease of mind and body. And Kotex assures such ease.

This unusual substance—Kotex absorbent

Remember that Cellucotton is not cotton—it is a cellulose product which, for sanitary purposes, performs the same function as the softest cotton but with 5 times the absorbency.

It is made up of layer on layer of the thinnest and softest absorbent tissues . . . each a quick, complete absorbent in itself.

These many air-cooled layers make Kotex not only safer, but lighter, cooler to wear. They also permit adjustment of the filler according to individual needs.

As one hospital authority puts it: "Kotex absorbent is noticeably free from irritating dust, which means increased hygienic comfort."

To women who still make their own sanitary pads of cheesecloth and cotton, these facts will be of interest.

Kotex absorbs (by actual test) five times quicker, five times greater, than an equal amount of surgical cotton. It takes up 16 times its own weight in moisture and distributes that moisture evenly, not all in one concentrated place.

For perfect daintiness, Kotex deodorizes completely and thoroughly.

Kotex may be worn on either side—doesn't have to be used in a certain specified way. That makes adjustment easier, protection safer. Any way you use it, Kotex is always comfortable and safe.

Since it is so easy to buy Kotex and the price is so low, no woman need consider using anything else. Her choice is made for her by the medical profession. Surely, if they find Kotex absorbent best—even in the most dangerous operations—it cannot fail to be best for constant use.

Why smart women prefer Kotex

It is significant that 9 out of 10 women in smarter circles today use Kotex. They find that it permits a freedom and poise hard to acquire otherwise. That's because Kotex really fits. It is designed, you see, to conform . . . shaped at the corners and tapered.

And here is the reason so many women first began to use Kotex: it is easily disposable. That fact alone has helped to change the hygienic habits of millions of women the world over!

KOTEX IS SOFT . . .

1. Not a deceptive softness, that soon packs into chafing hardness. But a delicate, fleecy softness that lasts for hours.
2. Safe, secure . . . keeps your mind at ease.
3. Rounded and tapered corners—for inconspicuous protection.
4. Deodorizes . . . safely, thoroughly, by a special process.
5. Disposable completely, instantly.

Regular Kotex—45c for 12
Kotex Super-Size—65c for 12

At any drug, dry goods or department store, or singly in vending cabinets through West Disinfecting Co.

Thousands of women first learned about Kotex in hospitals, then discovered they could buy it at their corner drug store! The price of the Regular size is never more than 45 cents.

A few months' trial will convince you that you owe yourself this modern, comfortable, safe, sanitary protection. Kotex Company, Chicago, Illinois.

Keep Your Chest Up 'n' You'll Lose Years in Very Short Order

May we ask of your toes and your chest just a moment's attention today? You don't need to tip them off—but we're going to spring posture on them and if you call it by that name they might turn turtle, carrying you with them into hiding. And then, where'd we be with a swell idea and nobody, nothing to play it on!

If your young life was made miserable, as many young lives were, with constant reminders to straighten up your shoulders, you have a distaste for that word posture that can only be enjoyed by grownups who feel that as youngsters they were constantly "sot upon." Unreasonable adult thought mechanism, to be sure—but aren't we all a bit that way, looking back?

Without further ado, toes and chest please line up here. You two huskies are going to have a responsible burden put on you this very minute. However, if you do what you are told, people are going to say about that girl of yours that she is some eyeful in action.

We've shifted these instructions about how to walk with an air down to the feet and up again to the chest and have discovered if you can train them in the way in which they should go, they'll look after the rest of you beautifully.

If you square those feet of yours, some inches apart, of course, but square them so the toes will point neatly ahead when you get the word to go, and you'll just pull up that down-hearted chest of yours, you have the action for an air offensive that will carry you to glory down the street, across your room or whither you wilt. What those two simple injunctions will do to a frame oldish from birthdays or oldish from bad postural habits is something to wish your friends on your Happy New Year cards to them.

Try it, and don't make me out anything but the truthful one a mother would wish her daughter to be. When you pull up that chest, pull in the upper abdomen, then take a side peep at your figure profile and see if you haven't shifted a few pounds out of the way, too. Anyway, keep that chest up and see how all the other little postural feature sisters perk up—like the back, the shoulders and the head.

FARM AND GARDEN
BY PAUL POTTER

"Look out for gas, cold air, over or under watering, and insects, and provide light and fresh air when possible," is the advice offered on the correct winter care of house plants by L. Sando, floriculturist, University farm, St. Paul.

Changing plants from greenhouse conditions to those in the average home requires special care, says Mr. Sando, as this means bringing them into a much drier and warmer atmosphere. Water well, but do not leave water standing at the base of the plants. Raise plants an inch or two above the level of the water, if the saucer, tray or jardiniere is used. When possible, flowering plants should be removed to a cooler room at night, if the room where they are kept by day is maintained at average temperature.

Dust, gas, extreme heat, drafts from doors, or windows, and irregularity in watering, all are harmful. Insect pests should be controlled by frequent spraying with a good commercial insecticide. Dust should be removed from the leaves by sponging, using a soft cloth or sponge. Gas is less easily controlled, but keeping the plants as far as possible from where gas is used will help. Cold winds or drafts are fairly easy to control; if from windows, several thicknesses of newspaper placed between the plants and the windows will prevent damage.

Examine all plants daily, whether they require water or not, Mr. Sando advises. See that good drainage is provided. If plants are not doing well, check up on conditions mentioned before disturbing the roots of a plant, or before repotting it. Light in the average window is never too strong in the winter, but in spring ferns should be placed in the shadiest window.

Killing Green-Eyed Monster Is an Art, but It Can Be Done

BY DORIS BLAKE.

If all the aches and pains, suspicions, quarrels, and scenes attendant upon jealousy were piled one atop the other, the high heavens would be crying for air. The moon, the sun, and the stars would be crowded out of place, so common is the vice.

Sometimes I wonder whether it isn't a cross that all humans are born with. Looking on at a scene in which a wee small infant, still without the power of speech, exhibits a jealous rage, one is willingly convinced that it must be one of the senses not named in the usual dedications at birth. Anyway, it is a miserable thing to carry through life. If there is any cure for it, it should be administered in large doses while we are still in our infancy.

When we are older we can theorize on the topic and, in a manner of speaking, can subdue the urge to demonstrate a jealous fit, if we can't kill it off entirely. And about the best formula extant for wholesome theorizing is that jealousy indicates a woeful lack of self-assurance. We certainly never are jealous of people about whom we can feel superior, about people we are privileged to help, or about people we can patronize. It is some one whose power we suspect is a little stronger than our own who stirs the ungodly passion in us.

A woman is not jealous of another woman in her husband's life unless she instinctively feels that the rival has qualities superior to her own. Jealousy really is resentment against a superior power, real or imagined.

It is when the other woman appears on the horizon that Pandora's box flies open and lets escape all the little demons of rage—sharp words, accusations, bitter resentment or whatever form the individual's jealousy takes. The truth is that this is the time when you need to rally all your forces to hold the tongue and pretend there are no pains.

Clever women never show jealousy. They never will join in the cat chorus trying to sing down the good points of a woman who is popular with men. They extol her, with the men.

It's an art—this clubbing the green eyed monster into subjection—but it can be done.

"Dear Miss Blake: My girl's parents don't approve of her going with boys. I am 18; she is 17. ED."

She's at the age when most girls are permitted to have beaux. However, you might wait another six months and try again.

Paris Puts Pep in the Tailored Suit

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS.—[Special Correspondence.]—Tailored suits are surviving the hard winter very well. Usually they disappear with the first serious frost, migrating to warmer climates or hibernating in clothes closets until spring. This season Paris has made them peppy by adding a heavy topcoat and thus achieving an ensemble that can withstand the cold.

The unusual type of tailleur to survive through the cold weather is the dressmakery one, made of silk or some kind of flyweight woolen, this kind of ensemble being extremely smart to wear under a dressy coat for afternoon. Such suits are ace high in the mode, and they are highly useful to careful dressers who haven't a fortune with which to arrive at chic. The number of blouses you can wear with one dressmaker tailleur is infinite, and their variety the same; so, with clever planning, one suit can be multiplied to fill all your daytime needs.

The cachet of such suits is not only valuable at the moment. You can cash in on them in the spring, because the Paris midseason fashion shows that are solely occupied with advance spring clothes are filled with soft suits that are going to be fashionable far into the month of May.

One of the new suits shown in the demi-saison is pictured in our sketch. It is from Germaine Lecomte and has a vast amount of Parisian chic. There are a number of counts on which it earns this desirable state.

The jacket and skirt of this suit are made of a new silk, bright navy in color. This silk is woven with a square screen weave, and it is extremely soft and not susceptible to the malady of wrinkles. The skirt has a deep fitted yoke and is finely plaited below that. It reaches just four inches below the knees—the correct tailleur length according to the Paris midseason fashion shows.

The collarless jacket is lined and banded with gray silk voile covered by embroidered navy dots. The basque blouse is made of this voile and is fitted in at the normal waistline by a small sash at the back. The plaited ruffle at the bottom of this pointed blouse is emphasized by a navy plaited ruffle, dipped in a point at front and back, placed on the skirt yoke.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Raisin Sweet Meats.

Fine cluster raisins grown and beautifully packed in Spain—how ornate and picturesque were the old boxes in which these came to us, with lacy papers and ribbons and all—used to be a regular number among the dessert fruits. The nuts and raisins in some families were then a more regular addition or finish to the dinner than is the coffee so universally used today.

Sometimes when we have large loose raisins, we may make an interesting sweet meat of them by heating them in the oven and serving them with crackers, cheese and the coffee. The raisin will swell a bit but no change its avor, as it will when it is put into water.

Some years ago when I was making particular efforts to get up equivalents for pickels, or something so agreeable that people would forget they wanted pickles, I called one of the items raisin sweet meats and made it as follows: Chop one cup of prepared raisins, toast slowly so as to dry it three or four slices of bread, and grate or crush it.

Sift the crushed toast and then combine the finest of the crumbs with the raisins, measure for measure. Mix thoroughly and make into little cakes and wrap in oil paper. Chopped raisins are sticky enough to bind this combination, but a tiny bit of sugar sirup can only be used in the mixture. Without it perhaps we have one of the most wholesome of little sweet meats we could make.

It is a sort of household hint—I do not like that term—that heating the food chopper is a good plan when one has to chop raisins. A good chopping knife and bowl are better yet. To put a few crumbs through the chopper first as well as afterwards is also helpful. Perhaps you have known of amateur housekeepers who put raisins through the food chopper and then did not dismantle it at once. The result was that they had to take the whole thing to the hardware store, because the parts were glued together with the raisin sugar.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address Bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

While visiting her aunt last summer, Cicily, 3½ years, started to follow her uncle down the back stairs, but was halted by the admonishment that a dog was in the back yard.

Cicily wanted to know why uncle went there, and to her cousin's reply that the dog knew her father and wouldn't hurt him, the little one retorted:

"Libby, go down and tell the dog I am your cousin." M. B. C.

Little Helen Ann was attending a birthday party. The napkins were being passed.

"This is my goodest dress. Please give me two napkins," asked Helen Ann. H. J. B.

Few can resist the appeal of Complexion-Beauty

Popularity is based on many "endearing young charms"—but none has greater power of attraction than a beautiful complexion!

Your complexion will attain new beauty instantly when you use Plough's Face Powder in the correct texture and tint blended especially for your type.

This fine, silk-sifted powder comes in three textures—light, for dry skin; medium, for normal skin; heavy, for oily skin. Each possesses the marvelous power of adherence which has made Plough's Face Powder a favorite of beautiful women everywhere. And each is tinted in five natural skin tones so that you may select the one which harmonizes best with your complexion.

Plough's Face Powder, attractively packaged, is available at all dealers. Quality guaranteed, unsurpassed in value, inexpensively priced. 30c, 50c and 75c.

A SPECIALTY
We have a DOLLAR DOWN sales setup on a popular priced household necessity that means sales. Being a salesman YOU are naturally looking for something of MERIT that will SELL.
Answer this question to yourself: If you had two articles that ARE IN GREAT DEMAND and were in a position to SELL THEM for HALF of what any other merchant would care to offer them how many ORDERS a week do you feel YOU could write at a DOLLAR DOWN and a dollar per week?
JUST ONE MEASLY ORDER A DAY WITH A DOLLAR DEPOSIT PAYS YOU $54 A WEEK IN FULL. NOTHING DEFERRED and WE GET YOU INTO THE HOME at our own expense and pay you on all other purchases that your customer makes.
IF YOU ARE SEEKING A GOOD, LEGITIMATE STEADY INCOME AND WANT SOMETHING THAT SELLS—WE HAVE IT! Interviews between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. only. See Mr. Ackerman. 23 E. JACKSON-BLVD., 11TH FLOOR.

A SALES POSITION NOW OPEN for 3 experienced salesmen and 3 beginners for special position with large Chicago concern. Must be ambitious and willing to learn our modern business methods; must have good references, mature judgment, and be over 30 years of age; personality more essential than experience.
A FAIR SALARY IF YOU QUALIFY.
Excellent future where earnings will be commensurate with your ability. Do not write or phone. Call in person only. You will be given a courteous interview and told at once if you are suitable for this particular position. If you convince me that you are sincere I can place you in our sales department at once. Apply between 9:30 a. m. and 2 p. m.
